

Green Thumb Industries (GTI) Announces the Appointment of Beth Burk as Interim Chief Legal & Compliance Officer

Chicago and Vancouver, British Columbia (October 31, 2019) -- Green Thumb Industries Inc. (GTI) (CSE: GTII) (OTCQX: GTBIF), a leading national cannabis consumer packaged goods company and owner of Rise™ and Essence retail stores, today announced that Matt Miller has resigned from his position as General Counsel, effective October 30.

“We are thankful to Matt for his service and contributions,” said GTI Founder and CEO Ben Kovler.

Miller said: “I thank GTI for the opportunity to serve as the company’s first General Counsel and am proud of what we’ve accomplished as a team.”

GTI has hired Beth Burk as Interim Chief Legal & Compliance Officer. Burk has more than 25 years of experience as a legal and compliance strategist including 15 years with Aon, a Fortune 200 professional services firm, where she most recently served as Global Chief Compliance Officer. “The company welcomes Beth who brings in-depth experience as an in-house corporate counsel and compliance officer and a passion for promoting and maintaining compliant cultures,” said Kovler.
