

Captor Proposes Fundamental Change of Business From a Diversified Investment Company to a Cannabis Company

TORONTO, April 10, 2018 -- Captor Capital (“CPTR” or the “Company”) (CSE:CPTR) (FRANKFURT:NMV) (OTC:NWURF) announced today that it has decided to change its business focus from a diversified investment and merchant banking company and focus solely on cannabis. This change in the focus and direction of Captor’s business is considered a Fundamental Change under Canadian Securities Exchange (“CSE”) Policy 8. In accordance with the policies of the CSE, the shareholders of Captor will have to approve this Fundamental Change before it becomes effective.

John Zorbas, President of Captor, stated, “We have made strong investments in the cannabis industry and we are continuing to see great opportunities in cannabis for Captor to exploit in order to deliver value to our shareholders. It just makes sense for us and our shareholders that Captor focuses exclusively on cannabis.”

Trading in Captor has been halted and will remain halted at least until the meeting materials to be sent to shareholders for approval of the Fundamental Change have been reviewed and accepted by the CSE and posted to the CSE website. The halt is considered a Regulatory Halt as defined in National Instrument 23-101-Trading Rules.
