

Captor Will Resume Trading on the Canadian Securities Exchange on August 8, 2018 as Shareholders Approve Change of Business to Cannabis

TORONTO, Aug. 03, 2018 -- Captor Capital Corp. (“Captor” or the “Company”) (CSE:CPTR; USOTC:NWURF FRANKFURT:NMV) announced that at today’s annual and special meeting (the “Meeting”), shareholders overwhelmingly approved a change of business of Captor from an investment and merchant banking company to a company solely focused on the ownership and investment in cannabis assets. Captor today filed its Listing Statement with the Canadian Securities Exchange (the “CSE”) in respect of the change of business and trading of Captor’s shares on the CSE will resume on August 8, 2018.

Captor also announced today that John Zorbas has been appointed Chief Executive Officer following Henry Kloepper’s resignation. Mr. Kloepper will continue to work with Captor as a director and Captor extends its appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Kloepper for his work as CEO and looks forward to continuing to work with him.

At the Meeting, shareholders re-elected John Zorbas, Henry Kloepper, Kyle Appleby and Alex Dementev as directors of Captor. MNP, LLP were re-appointed as auditors for Captor and shareholders ratified and confirmed Captor’s 10% rolling stock option plan.

Captor’s audited annual financial statements and MD&A for the year ended March 31, 2018 have been released and they can be found at Captor’s profile on www.sedar.com
