Captor Capital Appoints Dene Rogers as CEO of Captor Acquisition Corp.

Retail and Finance Executive Brings Wealth of Experience to Captor

Toronto, ON, August 2, 2019 -- Captor Capital Corp. (CSE: CPTR; FRANKFURT: NMV; STUTTGART: NMVA; USOTC: CPTRF), ("Captor" or the "Company"), a cannabis-focused investment company, is pleased to announce the appointment of highly experienced and successful business leader, Dene Rogers, as the CEO of Captor Acquisition Corp.. Captor Acquisition Corp. is a wholly owned subsidiary, under which Captor Capital holds all of its US cannabis assets.

Mr. Rogers possesses a wealth of cannabis experience from his work with private equity firms focused on the industry. He served as the CEO of Target Australia and Sears Canada and brings with him an unparalleled depth of business, financial, strategic and operational expertise. Mr. Rogers, who holds an MSc from Oxford University and an MBA from Yale University, also held senior positions with Kmart and Radio Shack.

"We are excited to have an executive with the experience, business acumen and pedigree of Dene Rogers join Captor Acquisition Corp. as its CEO. He is a consumer-focused and strategic business leader with a long track record of success. We are confident that under Dene's leadership, we will see tremendous growth in our U.S portfolio of cannabis assets," said John Zorbas.

"I'm really excited to be joining the Captor team. It's a company with a lot of unlocked potential, which was the main driver behind me joining. I look forward to bringing real value to Captor's shareholders by growing and developing its strong portfolio of U.S cannabis investments," said Dene Rogers.
