First Tellurium Provides Further Information about RESOLVE and its Role in Advancing New Thermoelectric Generator

A leading NGO, RESOLVE works with governments and industry leaders to resolve a wide range of social and environmental issues.

Vancouver, BC, Canada, June 25, 2024 – Further to recent news about its joint venture with Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) RESOLVE, Inc. of Washington, DC, First Tellurium Corp. (CSE: FTEL, OTC: FSTTF), has provided additional information about the organization to help shareholders understand the significance of the agreement and why management believes RESOLVE will provide value to the Company going forward.

Under a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) reported May 30, 2024, RESOLVE will secure up to approximately US$29 million (CDN$39.5 million) in funding for manufacturing and marketing of the PyroDelta thermoelectric device. RESOLVE and PyroDelta Inc., in which First Tellurium currently holds a majority interest, have formed a partnership called Tellurium Electric to bring the thermoelectric device to market.

“Having received so many inquiries about RESOLVE and Tellurium Electric since announcing the MOU,” said First Tellurium President and CEO Tyrone Docherty, “we felt further information would be welcomed by our shareholders and interested investors.”

RESOLVE is a long-established and leading NGO recognized for its work on a wide range of social and environmental issues. Employing a team of mediators and facilitators, scientists, policy experts, strategists, and communicators, RESOLVE’s mission is to forge “...sustainable solutions to critical social, health, and environmental challenges by creating innovative partnerships where they are least likely and most needed.”

In addition to its new website, RESOLVE has produced an informative video that provides a good overview of the organization’s vision, purpose and objectives.

Stephen D’Esposito, RESOLVE’s President and CEO, stated, “We are very excited to work with PyroDelta and First Tellurium to realize the potential of this device. It aligns with our vision of transforming ambitious ideas into real benefits for people, communities, and ecosystems, and our commitment to innovation that supports the energy transition.”

RESOLVE has partnered with many global industry leaders, including Rio Tinto, Newmont Mining and Intel. First Tellurium’s strategic partner Cheona Metals has worked with RESOLVE on its Salmon Gold initiative to remine former placer mining sites in Alaska, the Yukon Territory, and British Columbia, then restore associated fish habitat utilizing sustainable techniques and leading restoration practices. Gold produced by the initiative goes into the supply chains of of RESOLVE’s downstream partners, including Apple, Tiffany & Co and Mejuri.

“We really could not ask for a better partner to advance the thermoelectric generator,” said Docherty. “Their expertise, and their extensive industry and governmental networks, are ideally suited for this product and its growing list of potential applications.”
