Report as of December 21, 2024

Management Discussion and Analysis (“MD&A”) contains certain forward-looking statements and information relating to the Corporation which is based on the beliefs of Management as well as assumptions made by and information currently available to the Corporation. These statements, which can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “anticipates,” “believes,” “estimates,” “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should” or the negative thereof or other variations thereon and similar expressions, as they relate to the Corporation or its management, are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking statements relate to, among other things, regulatory compliance and, the sufficiency of current working capital. Such statements reflect the current views of the Corporation’s management with respect to future events and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Many factors could cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Corporation to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements that may be expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

The Corporation disclaims any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements if circumstances or management’s estimates or opinions should change, except as required by applicable securities laws. The reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The following Management Discussion and Analysis relates to the financial results for the three-month period ended October 31, 2024 (the “Period”) for Bird River Resources Inc. (the “Corporation”) and should be read in conjunction with the unaudited condensed interim financial statements (“Interim Financial Statements”) and related notes thereto. All dollar amounts refer to Canadian dollars except otherwise stated. Additional information relating to Bird River Resources Inc. is available on the SEDAR+ web site at www.sedarplus.com.

The Interim Financial Statements of the Corporation were approved for issuance by the Board of Directors on December 21, 2024. The Interim Financial Statements and comparable statements were prepared using accounting policies consistent with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) applicable to the preparation of interim financial statements, including International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

Description of the business and overview

Bird River Resources Inc. (“Bird River” or the “Corporation”) is a publicly listed entity incorporated under the laws of Manitoba on March 7, 1958. The address of the Corporation’s corporate and registered office is: 5204 Roblin Blvd, Winnipeg, MB R3R 0H1. The Corporation’s shares are listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange and are traded under the stock symbol “BDR”.

Outlook

The Corporation’s principal business activity is to identify, evaluate and acquire any interest in a business or assets.

On February 27, 2023, the Corporation had entered into a non-binding letter of intent (“LOI”) with Gestion Faraday Energie Inc. (“Faraday”) for the reverse take-over of the Corporation by Faraday shareholders. In May 2024, Faraday informed the Corporation that they had decided not to proceed with the LOI. Therefore, the LOI has expired with no further extension.

Results of operations

During the period, operating expenses were $19,306 (2023 – $26,339). Expenses decreased significantly mainly due to a decrease in legal and audit/accounting expenses related to the potential business combination with Faraday Energy. Share-based compensation was $nil (2023 – $nil). Related party executive consulting expenses were $10,500 (2023 - $16,500). Audit fees are accrued in the fourth quarter and adjusted for additional cost in the first quarter. This adjustment was $4,120.

The Corporation does not have an operational business. Expenses will vary from period to period based on the corporate expenses related to maintaining continuous disclosure, filings, transfer agent and shareholder expenses, as well as accounting and audit fees.

Consulting consists of administrative work by the CEO and CFO (see related party and executive compensation). General and administrative consists of regulatory filing fees, office, banking, stock exchange fees and shareholder communications.

Liquidity, capital resources, risk and uncertainties

At October 31, 2024, the Corporation had working capital deficiency of $3,518 (July 31, 2024 –surplus $15,788) and has no current active business.

The Corporation manages its capital to ensure that the Corporation will be able to continue as a going concern. The strategy remains unchanged from the previous fiscal year. The Corporation raises capital, as necessary, to meet its needs and therefore, does not have a numeric target for its capital structure. The Corporation will have to pursue, either through acquisition or start-up, a new business. Please see OUTLOOK section for the Corporation’s current plans. There is no guarantee that the Corporation will be successful in this regard.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of a financial instrument is the estimated amount that the Corporation would receive or pay to settle a financial asset or financial liability as at the reporting date. The fair values of cash, amounts receivable and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their carrying values due to their nature or capacity for prompt liquidation. The fair values of the Corporation's financial instruments are estimated based on the amount at which these instruments could be exchanged in a transaction between knowledgeable and willing parties. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matter of judgment, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can affect estimated fair values.
