FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DIGIFONICA TO SELL FAILED SUBSIDIARIES

Vancouver, B.C., June 22, 2011 - Digifonica International Inc. (TSXV-NEX: DIL.H, the "Company") wishes to announce that, subject to any necessary regulatory approvals, it has sold its wholly-owned subsidiaries Digifonica (International) Limited and Digifonica Canada Limited to Emil Malak, President of the Company, for nominal value.

The purpose of the sale is to reduce debt on the Company's balance sheet. Per the Company's most recent audited financial statements, the Company's failed electronics business represented by certain patent applications held by these subsidiaries was effectively written off and valued at $1.

Management of the Company is looking to pursue new business opportunities for the Company.
