All references are to Canadian dollars unless otherwise indicated.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The Company's financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2011, and this accompanying MD&A contain statements that constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of National Instrument 51-102, Continuous Disclosure Obligations of the Canadian Securities Administrators.

It is important to note that, unless otherwise indicated, forward-looking statements in this MD&A describe the Company's expectations as of June 29, 2011.

Forward-looking statements often, but not always, are identified by the use of words such as "seek", "anticipate", "believe", "plan", "estimate", "expect", "targeting" and "intend" and statements that an event or result "may", "will", "should", "could", or "might" occur or be achieved and other similar expressions. Forward-looking statements in this MD&A include statements regarding the Company's future plans and expenditures, the satisfaction of rights and performance of obligations under agreements to which the Company is a part, the ability of the Company to hire and retain employees and consultants and estimated administrative assessment and other expenses. The forward-looking statements that are contained in this MD&A involve a number of risks and uncertainties. As a consequence, actual results might differ materially from results forecast or suggested in these forward-looking statements. Some of these risks and uncertainties are identified under the heading "RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES" in this MD&A. Additional information regarding these factors and other important factors that could cause results to differ materially may be referred to as part of particular forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by reference to the important factors discussed under the heading "RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES" and to those that may be discussed as part of particular forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause the actual results to differ include market prices, continued availability of capital and financing, inability to obtain required regulatory approvals and general market conditions. These statements are based on a number of assumptions, including assumptions regarding general market conditions, the timing and receipt of regulatory approvals, the ability of the Company and other relevant parties to satisfy regulatory requirements, the availability of financing for proposed transactions and programs on reasonable terms and the ability of third-party service providers to deliver services in a timely manner.

MD&A

March 31, 2011

Forward-looking statements contained herein are made as of the date of this MD&A and the Company disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or results or otherwise. There can be no assurance that forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

COMPANY DESCRIPTION

Digifonica International Inc., formerly Initial Capital Inc., ("Digifonica" or the "Company") was incorporated under the Alberta Business Corporations Act on November 23, 2004. During the year ended December 31, 2010 and current quarter the Company ceased operations due to a lack of financing. The main activities in the Company during these periods was maintaining its public listing and keeping the patent applications current. The Company is listed on the TSX Venture Exchange's NEX board under the trading symbol "DIL.H".

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

The Company is an inactive public company as it ceased activities during the year ended December 31, 2010 due to a lack of financing. The Company has focused on maintaining its patent applications in the voice over internet protocol business as well as maintaining its public company listing.

The Company has been considering various restructuring alternatives. As part of the restructuring process, the Company completed a share consolidation effective February 25, 2011, consolidating its common shares on the basis of one (1) new common share for every ten (10) old common shares issued and outstanding at that time. All references to share and per share amounts have been retroactively restated to reflect the share consolidation.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

For the three months ended March 31, 2011, the Company incurred a loss of $149,385 or $0.04 per share, compared to a loss of $32,836 or $0.01 per share in the comparative period in 2010. The increase in the net loss during the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared to March 31, 2010 is due to increases in certain general and administrative expenses as follows:

Accounting and audit

Accounting and audit expense was $14,017 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 (March 31, 2010: $5,000). The increase was due to recording additional audit fee accrual and conversion to International Financial Reporting Standards.

Salaries, wages, and commissions

Salaries, wages and commissions consist of wages and benefits for management and operations staff, excluding the sales and marketing and research and development teams. Salaries and wages were $nil during the three months ended March 31, 2011 (March 31, 2010: $5,590). The decrease was due to a decrease in the number of employees. In the three months ended March 31, 2011 the Company had no employees compared to one employee in the comparative period of 2010.

Consulting fees

Consulting fees were $72,590 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 (March 31, 2010: $39,362). The increase was primarily due to consulting fees charged by one director of the company for $48,590 (US$50,000).

MD&A March 31, 2011

Office and miscellaneous

Office and miscellaneous expenses consist primarily of general costs to maintain the Company's public listing and pending patents. Office and miscellaneous expenses were $29,221 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 (March 31, 2010: $21,441). The increase was primarily due to maintaining pending patents ($19,435) offset by a reduction in business activity.

Foreign currency loss (gain)

The Company has liabilities denominated in Great Britain Pounds and U.S. dollars. As a result of the strengthening of the Canadian dollar relative to the U.S. dollar and the Great Britain Pound during the three months ended March 31, 2010, the Company recorded a foreign exchange gain of $41,022. During the three months ended March 31, 2011, the Canadian dollar strengthened to a lesser degree, resulting in a foreign exchange gain of $1,138.

Interest expense

Interest expense was $11,725 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 (March 31, 2010: $2,465). The increase in interest expense was primarily due to an increase in the liabilities subject to interest.

Legal fees

Legal fees were $22,970 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 (March 31, 2010: $nil). The increase in legal fees was due to re-organizing the Company's affairs.

March 31, 2011

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("IFRS")

Effective January 1, 2011 Canadian publicly listed entities were required to prepare their financial statements in accordance with IFRS. Due to the requirement to present comparative financial information, the effective transition date is January 1, 2010. The three months ended March 31, 2011 is the Company's first reporting period under IFRS.

The Company identified four phases to the Company's conversion: scoping and planning, detailed assessment, implementation and post-implementation. The Company has now completed its IFRS conversion project through the implementation phase. The post-implementation phase will continue in future periods.

Note 3 of the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements provide details of the Company's accounting policy decisions. Note 11 provides details of the IFRS 1, First-Time Adoption of IFRS, exemptions. No adjustments were made to the Company's balance sheets, statements of operations and comprehensive loss or statements of cash flows on the transition date or during the year ended December 31, 2010.

The conversion to IFRS has had no impact on the financial record keeping, internal controls and financial disclosures of the Company due to the exploration and project development nature of the Company's business. Accounting systems have been assessed to ensure accurate reporting under IFRS, both internally and externally.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Classification of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, other receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, note payable in default, convertible promissory notes and loans from shareholders. The Company designated its cash as held-for-trading, which is measured at fair value. The other receivables are designated as loans and receivables, which are measured at fair value. The accounts payable and accrued liabilities, note payable in default, convertible promissory notes and loans from shareholders are designated as other financial liabilities, which are measured at amortized cost.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company classified the fair value of the financial receivables according to the following fair value hierarchy based on the amount of observable inputs used to value the instruments:

- Level 1 Values based on unadjusted quoted prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date.
- Level 2 Values based on inputs, including quoted forward prices for commodities, time value and volatility factors, which can be substantially observed or corroborated in the marketplace. Prices in Level 2 are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date.
- Level 3 Values based on prices or valuation techniques that are not based on observable market data.

The value of cash has been assessed based on the fair value hierarchy described above and is classified as Level 1. Assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement requires judgment and may affect the placement within the fair value hierarchy.

Discussions of risks associated with financial assets and liabilities are detailed below:

MD&A March 31, 2011

Foreign Exchange Risk

The Company has financial instruments denominated in U.S. dollars ("US$") and Great Britain Pounds ("GBP"). Accounts exposed to foreign exchange risk as of March 31, 2011 are:

| | US$ | GBP | |
| | | | |
| Cash | 150 | - | |
| Accounts payable and accrued liabilities | (115,630) | (501,834) | |
| Note payable in default | (76,755) | - | |
| Net exposure to foreign currencies | (192,235) | (501,834) | |

All U.S. dollar and GBP amounts are shown in Canadian dollar equivalents.

Credit Risk

Credit risk arises from cash held with banks and financial institutions. The maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying value of the financial assets. The Company's cash is primarily held with the Royal Bank of Canada.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The risk that the Company will realize a loss is limited because at present the Company's liabilities are non-interest bearing or have fixed interest rates.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company is not able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company manages its liquidity risk by continuously monitoring forecasted and actual cash flows, as well as anticipated investing and financing activities. The Company has a working capital deficiency at March 31, 2011.

OUTSTANDING SHARE DATA

Of the 3,877,197 common shares outstanding, 740,734 are held in escrow.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Company has incurred significant losses since inception. The continued operations of the Company are dependent on its ability to generate future cash flow and obtain additional financing. The Company has traditionally financed its cash requirements through the issuance of common shares. If the Company is unable to generate cash from operations or obtain additional financing its ability to operate and grow the business could be impeded.

MD&A March 31, 2011

DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

In connection with National Instrument 52-109 (Certification of Disclosure in Issuer's Annual and Interim Filings) ("NI 52-109"), the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company have filed a Venture Issuer Basic Certificate with respect to the financial information contained in the interim consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and this accompanying MD&A (together the "Interim Filings").

In contrast to the full certificate under NI 52-109, the Venture Issuer Basic Certificate does not include representations relating to the establishment and maintenance of disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, as defined in NI 52-109. For further information the reader should refer to the Venture Issuer Basic Certificates filed by the Company with the Interim Filings on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

OUTLOOK

The Company is considering restructuring alternatives in order to eliminate the working capital deficiency.
