MAPLE LEAF REVISES PRIVATE PLACEMENT TERMS AND CLOSES FIRST TRANCHE

Maple Leaf Reforestation Inc. ("Maple Leaf" or the "Corporation") announces that further to its news release dated February 6, 2012, it has revised the terms of its non-brokered private placement. Maple Leaf will now issue up to 6,000,000 units at a price of $0.05 per unit ("Unit"), for potential gross proceeds of $300,000. Each Unit will consist of one common share of the Corporation and one common share purchase warrant. Each warrant will entitle the holder to purchase an additional common share at an exercise price of $0.10 for a period of 5 years from the date of closing of the private placement.

While the private placement is non-brokered, Maple Leaf may pay finder's fees to individuals who obtain subscriptions on its behalf. Maple Leaf intends to use the proceeds from the private placement for general working capital. The private placement is subject to final approval of the TSX Venture Exchange (the "TSXV"). Common shares sold pursuant to the private placement, and common shares issuable upon exercise of the warrants, will be subject to a four month hold period commencing on the closing of the private placement.

Closing of First Tranche of Private Placement

Maple Leaf would also like to announce that, subject to final approval by the TSXV, it has completed the first of a series of closings for the private placement. The first closing consists of 2,600,000 Units for total gross proceeds of $130,000. In connection with the first closing, Maple Leaf will pay finder's fees in the amount of $4,000 to arm's length parties.
