Maple Leaf Clarifies Previous Disclosure Regarding Proposed Shares for Services

Maple Leaf announces that the shares for past services transaction previously announced in March 2012 was not completed and as such shares were not issued. Maple Leaf had announced that 225,000 common shares in its capital would be issued to Alex Cheung, its former Chief Financial Officer, for past services at a deemed price of $0.05 per common share. Instead, Mr. Cheung will have the option of taking payment in cash if the Company is in a position to make this payment or in shares if Maple Leaf's share price is near $0.05.

About Maple Leaf Green World Inc.

Maple Leaf is a Canadian company that focuses in the environmental industry with 2 main operating arms:

1. Eco-Agriculture - it operates a large-scale nursery business in Inner Mongolia, China that is focused on growing value-added tree seedlings and nursery products that assist with anti-desertification.
2. Renewable Energy - it is undertaking to commence a Yellowhorn seedling and tree operation which would provide valuable Yellowhorn seeds and ultimately oil from such seeds for the manufacture of bio-diesel fuel and premium healthy cooking oil.

Maple Leaf is a wholly-owned foreign enterprise which allows the Corporation to control 100% of the direction and operations of the company in China while permitting the cash generated from operations in China to flow back to Canada.
