Maple Leaf Appoints New Chief Financial Officer

Maple Leaf Reforestation Inc. ("Maple Leaf") would like to announce that effective June 1, 2011, Derek Liu has resigned as Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") of Maple Leaf in order to focus on other career opportunities. Maple Leaf would like to thank Mr. Liu for his efforts as Maple Leaf's CFO, and wishes him all the best with his future endeavors.

Mr. Liu's vacancy as Maple Leaf's CFO will be filled by Mr. Alex Cheung. Mr. Cheung has 27 years of accounting, tax and audit experience and is a Certified General Accountant in Canada and a Certified Public Accountant in Hong Kong. Mr. Cheung is currently the Managing Partner of the accounting firm CLW Partners LLP in Calgary, Alberta, and is a director of the Hong Kong Canada Business Association, Calgary Chapter. Mr. Cheung has previously held roles in the accounting industry as Senior Auditor with Shell Hong Kong and Shell Canada, Staff Accountant with Arthur Andersen & Co, and Partner with another Calgary-based accounting firm.

In connection with Mr. Cheung's appointment Maple Leaf has granted 300,000 incentive stock options at an exercise price of $0.125 for three years.

About Maple Leaf Reforestation Inc.

Maple Leaf is a Canadian company that focuses in the environmental industry with 2 main operating arms:

1. Eco-Agriculture - it operates a large-scale nursery business in Inner Mongolia, China that is focused on growing value-added tree seedlings and nursery products that assist with anti-desertification.
2. Renewable Energy – it is undertaking to commence a Yellowhorn seedling and tree operation which would provide valuable Yellowhorn seeds and ultimately oil from such seeds for the manufacture of bio-diesel fuel and premium healthy cooking oil.

Maple Leaf is a wholly-owned foreign enterprise which allows the Company to control 100% of the direction and operations of the company in China while permitting the cash generated from operations in China to flow back to Canada.
