Mr. Raymond Lai, President & CEO of Maple Leaf commented: “We would like to thank our shareholders for their continued support. We continue to work diligently to make Maple Leaf’s Chinese operations profitable, to involve the necessary expertise to advance the Company to the next level and to secure capital for and take advantage of blue-sky operational opportunities that have been presented to us. I encourage shareholders who were unable to attend the shareholder meeting to review my new President’s Message on our website at www.mlreforestation.com, which will be posted soon.”

Maple Leaf would also like to announce that Derek Liu has resigned from his directorship with the Company effective June 14, 2011, and the board of directors of the Company has approved to replace Mr. Liu with Alex Cheung, who was recently announced as the Company’s new Chief Financial Officer (see news release dated June 1, 2011). In connection with Mr. Cheung’s appointment to the board of directors, Maple Leaf has granted 200,000 incentive stock options at an exercise price of $0.125 for three years.

About Maple Leaf Reforestation Inc.

Maple Leaf is a Canadian company that focuses in the environmental industry with 2 main operating arms:

1. Eco-Agriculture - it operates a large-scale nursery business in Inner Mongolia, China that is focused on growing value-added tree seedlings and nursery products that assist with anti-desertification.

2. Renewable Energy – it is undertaking to commence a Yellowhorn seedling and tree operation which would provide valuable Yellowhorn seeds and ultimately oil from such seeds for the manufacture of bio-diesel fuel and premium healthy cooking oil.

Maple Leaf is a wholly-owned foreign enterprise which allows the Company to control 100% of the direction and operations of the company in China while permitting the cash generated from operations in China to flow back to Canada.
