Newton Gold Announces Notice of Hearing issued for a Director of the Company

Vancouver, British Columbia (August 11, 2011) – Newton Gold Corp. (“Newton Gold” or the “Company”) announces that the Company has been advised that Mark McLeary, a director and officer of the Company was issued a Notice of Hearing from the B.C. Securities Commission dated August 8, 2011 alleging that he and other persons and companies violated securities law in 2009 on behalf of an unrelated company by making false or misleading statements to securities commission staff and engaged in market manipulation of the unrelated company. Counsel for the executive director of the commission will apply to set dates for a hearing into the allegations on September 26, 2011.

These allegations have not been proven. Mr. McLeary has advised the Board that he refutes all the allegations and intends to vigorously defend all allegations brought by Commission staff and he is confident he will be cleared of any wrongdoing in relation to the affairs of the unrelated company. Management of the Company is reviewing the matter and intends to provide an update upon completion of their review.
