TRUECLAIM EXPLORATION INC. ANNOUNCES CORPORATE UPDATE ON ARIZONA JOINT VENTURE WITH NORTHERN SPHERE MINING CORP.

Trueclaim Exploration Inc. is pleased to provide the following corporate update on its Arizona Joint Venture with Northern Sphere Mining Corp. (CSE: NSM)

Northern Sphere is moving forward with implementing its production plan for the mine on the Arizona Property located approximately 20 miles from Globe Arizona.

The Arizona Joint Venture has completed construction of its mill facility, including an assay facility and a smelting room. The mill laydown area has been completed and the pilot mill in place. Northern Sphere also has mining equipment on site and work is underway to muck out the portal and commence a detailed sampling program of the ore to determine processing protocol, grade control, and firm up the mining plan.

Northern Sphere has also brought in an experienced mining team with extensive underground background and first-hand experience in working on the Arizona property. Additional information, including photos of the mining team, the mine and the mills, may be obtained on their website www.northernsphere.com.
