FANDOM SPORTS to Implement Powerfully Interactive Video Engagement Tool

CSE: FDM
OTC: FDMSF
FRANKFURT: TQ42

Vancouver, British Columbia – March 27, 2018, FANDOM SPORTS Media Corp. (CSE: FDM) (OTC: FDMSF) (FRANKFURT: TQ42) (“FANDOM SPORTS” or the “Company”) announces that it has retained the services of MOVI TECH (“Movi”), with the primary goal of integrating their cutting-edge video engagement technology into the FANDOM SPORTS App. In aligning with Movi, FANDOM SPORTS is among an exclusive group of carefully selected partners and early adopters to feature the future of in-app video experiences.

A key benefit for the Company in implementing the usage of such an interactive video technology into their core, flagship Android product at the onset of commercialized launch, is to increase both the level of engagement in addition to the amount of time spent within the app. Upon roll-out into the initial commercial Android version, a subsequent implementation will occur in the soon to be revamped iOS version app.

“Together with the FANDOM SPORTS team we’ll enable next generation mobile video experiences on their innovative and engaging platform, while unlocking new dimensions of video engagement for their audience.” says, Movi CEO, Lars-Erik Ravn. “FANDOM SPORTS has already raised the bar, and we are super excited to join in on the mission to enrich their sports-centric fan platform. Our visions of the future are in-sync as we both strive to provide an experience where users interact, engage and create content in a unique way”.
