

Jushi Holdings Inc. Announces Closing of Acquisition of Agape Total Health Care Inc, a Pennsylvania Medical Marijuana Dispensary Permit Holder

BOCA RATON, Fla., June 26, 2020 -- Jushi Holdings Inc. (“Jushi” or the “Company”) (CSE: JUSH) (OTCQX: JUSHF), a globally-focused, multi-state cannabis and hemp operator, announced the closing of the Company's previously announced acquisition of 80 percent of the economic and voting interests in Agape Total Health Care Inc. ("Agape"), a Pennsylvania Dispensary Permittee. In closing, Jushi acquired a majority interest in Agape, who will open three retail locations: one in the Philadelphia region, one in Reading and one in Pottsville. With the closing of this deal and prior announced acquisitions, Jushi's subsidiaries will have rights to operate up to 15 dispensaries, the current maximum number of permitted retail locations in the Commonwealth outside of the Clinical Registrant Program.

Jushi's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Jim Cacioppo said: "The close of this transaction further cements our leadership position in Pennsylvania and demonstrates our commitment to broadening access to medical marijuana for patients across the Commonwealth. Not only is this a big achievement for our shareholders, it also underscores the strength of our team and their ability to strategically expand in limited license markets. As Pennsylvania's medical cannabis program grows and evolves in the coming months and years, Agape will serve as a trusted health and wellness partner in key markets across the Commonwealth. We look forward to providing further announcements as we strategically expand our footprint in Pennsylvania, Illinois, Virginia, California and other key markets across the U.S."

Highlights of the Planned Dispensary Locations to be Opened:

Philadelphia

This store will be strategically located in a high-traffic area in downtown Philadelphia in the University City district, close to patient healthcare centers. Philadelphia is the largest city in Pennsylvania, and the sixth-most populous U.S. city according to the U.S. Census Bureau. The city has evolved into an educational and economic center with many top universities, medical schools and colleges located in the area.

Reading

This store will be located in the city of Reading which has a resident population of approximately 90,000 and is the fifth largest city in Pennsylvania. Reading is located approximately 45 miles from downtown Philadelphia and will be located in the Reading Downtown Improvement District. It is one of only four dispensaries located in Reading and the only one located downtown.

Pottsville

This store will be located in the town of Pottsville which is centrally located in the Commonwealth in Schuylkill County. This dispensary will be the first dispensary located in the Pottsville area. Pottsville is a historic city and is home to America's oldest operating brewery.

Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania is the fifth largest state in the country with approximately 13 million residents and operates with a high barrier of entry due to a limited number of medical marijuana permits issued. Pennsylvania's medical cannabis market is expected to become one of the largest markets in the U.S. In the first year that the program was operational, 2018, the Commonwealth generated over US$132 million in total sales and Pennsylvania's medical cannabis sales has surpassed $500 million since the first dispensaries became operational two years ago. Additionally, Pennsylvania updated its qualifying medical conditions to include anxiety, which is expected to accelerate the increase in number of patients and caregivers registered in the Commonwealth. Pennsylvania has a robust list of 23 medical conditions including anxiety, opioid use disorder, post-traumatic stress disorder and severe chronic pain. On September 25th, 2019, Pennsylvania Gov. Tom Wolf announced he is in favor of legalizing marijuana for adult-use and is asking lawmakers to consider it.
