FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MATICA TERMINATES INVESTOR RELATIONS CONTRACT WITH MARICOM

February 7, 2019 – Toronto, Ontario – Matica Enterprises Inc. (MMJ - CSE) (39N – Frankfurt) (MQPXF – OTC) (“Matica” or the “Company”) reports that the Company has terminated the December 10, 2018 investor relations services contract with Maricom Inc. The Company is currently in contact with other investor relations service companies. Matica considers the investor relations function to be of the utmost importance at this time in the Company’s development.

Boris Ziger, Matica CEO, states “Having recently been granted a cultivation licence and having received starting materials, Matica has entered a new phase in our development as a company. The next several months will see dramatic growth both within and outside of our grow rooms. The licence grant from Health Canada allows us to finally put into action months of planning as Matica develops its current portfolio and branches off in new directions. Keeping our investors properly informed at this time will be a key to our collective success.”
