NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

Westcot Ventures Corp. (formerly Sparrow Ventures Corp.) (the “Company”) was incorporated on July 4, 2006, under the laws of the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia). Effective June 17, 2014, the Company’s listing was transferred to the NEX board of the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”) due to the Company’s failure to maintain the requirements for a TSX Venture Tier 2 company. Effective June 29, 2015, trading in the shares of the Company was suspended due to the Company’s failure to maintain the services of a transfer agent in accordance with the policies of the Exchange. In addition, effective October 6, 2015, and October 26, 2015, the British Columbia Securities Commission and the Ontario Securities Commission, respectively, issued cease trade orders that all trading in the securities of the Company cease until it files all necessary continuous disclosure records. These cease trade orders were subsequently revoked in February 2017 after the Company filed all requisite continuous disclosure documents in December 2016. NOTE 10 – FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

(a) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, goods and services tax recoverable, accounts payable, loans payable and convertible debentures. The carrying values of cash, goods and services tax recoverable, accounts payable and certain of the loans payable approximate their fair values because of their short-term nature and/or the existence of market related interest rates on the instruments. Convertible debentures and one loan payable are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method and their carrying values approximate their fair values. These estimates are subjective and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified into one of the three levels in the fair value hierarchy according to the relative reliability of the inputs used to estimate the fair values. The three levels of hierarchy are:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Other techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Techniques which use inputs that have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data.

The Company's convertible debentures with a fair value of $26,102 at October 31, 2017 (January 31, 2017 - $44,580) are classified as Level 2. The Company's loan payable with a face value of $15,000 and a fair value of $14,890 is classified as Level 2.

(b) Financial Instruments Risk

The Company is exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related to risks. The Board approves and monitors the risk management processes:

(i) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with a counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. The Company limits its exposure to credit loss for cash by placing its cash with high quality financial institutions. The credit risk for cash is considered negligible since the counterparties are reputable banks with high quality external credit ratings. Goods and services tax recoverable is comprised of amounts due from the Government of Canada. The maximum credit risk of the Company's cash and goods and services tax recoverable is limited to the carrying value of the assets as at October 31, 2017.

(ii) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations when they become due. The Company ensures, as far as reasonably possible, that it will have sufficient capital in order to meet short-term business requirements, after taking into account cash flows from operations and the Company's holdings of cash. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful with generating and maintaining profitable operations or will be able to secure future debt or equity financing for its working capital and development activities (Note 1).

NOTE 10 – FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

(iii) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. Interest on the Company's loans payable is based on a fixed rate, and as such, the Company is not exposed to significant interest rate risk.

NOTE 10 – CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company manages its share capital as capital, which as at October 31, 2017, was $1,248,618 (January 31, 2017 - $1,010,618). The Company's objective when managing capital is to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern such that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders. The management of the capital structure is based on the funds available to the Company in order to pursue the development and expansion of its business and to maintain the Company in good standing with the various regulatory authorities. In order to maintain or adjust its capital structure, the Company may issue new shares, sell assets to settle liabilities, or return capital to its shareholders.

To effectively manage the entity's capital requirements, the Company has in place a planning and budgeting process to help determine the funds required to ensure the Company has the appropriate liquidity to meet its objectives. The Company may issue new shares or seek debt financing to ensure that there is sufficient working capital to meet its short-term business requirements. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

There were no changes in the Company's management of capital during the period ended October 31, 2017.
