Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

31 October 2010 and 2009

(Canadian Funds)

1. Nature and Continuance of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature and Continuance of Operations

Fire River Gold Corp. (the "Company") was incorporated on 22 September 1997 under the laws of the Province of British Columbia and is a mineral exploration company focused on the acquisition, exploration and development of primarily gold, silver and base metal properties. The Company expects to become a production company with a superior technical team focused on bringing its flagship project, the Nixon Fork Gold Mine, back into production within 2011. The Company is an exploration stage entity as defined by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") Accounting Guideline 11.

The business of mining and exploring for minerals involves a high degree of risk and there can be no assurance that current exploration programs will result in profitable mining operations. The recoverability of the carrying value of exploration properties and the Company's continued existence are dependent upon the preservation of its interest in the underlying properties, the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the achievement of profitable operations, or the ability of the Company to raise alternative financing, if necessary, or alternatively upon the Company's ability to dispose of its interests on an advantageous basis. Changes in future conditions could require material write downs of the carrying values. All of the Company's mining assets are located outside of Canada and are subject to the risk of foreign investment, including increases in taxes and royalties, renegotiation of contracts, currency exchange fluctuations and political uncertainty.

Although the Company has taken steps to verify the title to the properties on which it is conducting exploration and in which it has an interest, in accordance with industry standards for the current stage of exploration of such properties, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Property title may be subject to unregistered prior agreements and non-compliance with regulatory requirements.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and include the following significant accounting policies:

a) Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its wholly owned United States subsidiaries, Fire River Gold Corp. USA ("FAU USA") and Mystery Creek Resources, Inc. ("MCR"). Inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers cash and cash equivalents to include amounts held in banks and highly liquid investments with remaining maturities at point of purchase of 90 days or less. The Company places its cash and cash investments with institutions of high-credit worthiness.

c) Mineral Properties and Deferred Exploration Expenditures

Direct costs related to the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties held or controlled by the Company are deferred on an individual property basis until the viability of a property is determined. When a property is placed in commercial production, deferred costs will be depleted using the units-of-production method. Management of the Company periodically reviews the recoverability of the capitalized mineral properties. Management takes into consideration various information including, but not limited to, results of exploration activities conducted to date, estimated future gold and metal prices, and reports and opinions of outside geologists, mine engineers and consultants.

Fire River Gold Corp.

(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

31 October 2010 and 2009

(Canadian Funds)

When it is determined that a project or property will be abandoned then the costs are written off, or if its carrying value has been impaired, then the mineral properties and deferred costs are written down to fair value.

Although the Company has taken steps to verify title to mineral properties in which it has an interest, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Such properties may be subject to prior agreements or transfers and title may be affected by undetected defects.

From time to time, the Company acquires or disposes of properties pursuant to the terms of option agreements. Options are exercisable entirely at the discretion of the optionee and, accordingly, are recorded as mineral property costs or recoveries when the payments are made or received. After costs are recovered, the balance of the payments received are recorded as a gain on option or disposition of mineral property.

d) Asset Retirement Obligations

The Company recognizes the legal liability for obligations relating to retirement of property, plant, and equipment, and arising from the acquisition, construction, development, or normal operation of those assets. The Company has estimated the future cost of reclamation and closure, including site rehabilitation and long-term treatment and monitoring costs to net present value. Such estimates are, however, subject to change based on negotiations with regulatory authorities and changes in laws and regulations. These estimates are reviewed annually.

The Company records a liability for the estimated future costs associated with legal obligations relating to the reclamation and closure of its mining properties described above. This amount is initially recorded at its discounted present value with subsequent annual recognition of an accretion amount on the discounted liability. An equivalent amount is recorded as an increase to mining interests and expensed as amortization and depletion using a systematic and rational method over its useful life. Changes resulting from revisions to the timing or the amount of the original estimate of the undiscounted cash flows are recognized as an increase or a decrease in the carrying amount of the liability for reclamation and closure cost obligations, and the related asset retirement cost is capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the related long-lived asset.

e) Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost and are amortized over their estimated useful lives using the declining balance method at the following annual rates:

Furniture and office equipment	20%
Field equipment	30%

Amortization of assets used in exploration is capitalized to mineral properties expenditures.

f) Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for using the asset and liability method. Future taxes are recognized for the tax consequences of "temporary differences" by applying enacted or substantively enacted statutory tax rates applicable to future years to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax basis of existing assets and liabilities. The effect on future taxes for a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the date of enactment or substantive enactment. In addition, the method requires the recognition of future tax benefits to the extent that realization of such benefits is more likely than not. A valuation allowance is provided to the extent that it is more likely than not that future income tax assets will not be realized.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(Canadian Funds)

g) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's subsidiaries are integrated foreign operations and their results and financial position are translated into the Company's functional currency, the Canadian dollar, using the temporal basis as follows:

- Monetary assets and liabilities at year-end rates,
- All other assets and liabilities at historical rates, and
- Expense and exploration and development items at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the year.

Exchange gains and losses arising from these translations are reflected in income or expense in the period that they occur.

h) Stock-Based Compensation

All stock-based awards made to employees and non-employees are measured and recognized using a fair value based method. For employees, the fair value of the options is measured at the date of the grant. For non-employees, the fair value of the options is measured on the earlier of: (a) the date at which the counterparty performance is complete, (b) the date the performance commitment is reached or (c) the date at which the equity instruments are granted if they are fully vested and non-forfeitable. For employees and non-employees, the fair value of the options is accrued and charged to operations or capitalized to mineral property costs as appropriate, with the offsetting credit to contributed surplus, over the applicable vesting period. If and when the stock options are ultimately exercised, the applicable amounts of contributed surplus are transferred to share capital.

i) Earnings (Loss) per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. The computation of diluted earnings per share which assumes the conversion, exercise or contingent issuance of securities only when such conversion, exercise or issuance would have a dilutive effect on earnings per share. The dilutive effect of convertible securities is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the "if converted" method. In years in which a loss is incurred, the effect of potential issuances of shares under options and warrants would be anti-dilutive, and therefore basic and diluted loss per share are the same.

j) Management's Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

k) Financial Instrument Standards

Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are initially recognized at fair value and are subsequently measured based on their classification as held-to-maturity, loans and receivables, available-for-sale or held-for-trading, as described below. The classification is not changed subsequent to initial recognition.

Fire River Gold Corp.

(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

31 October 2010 and 2009

(Canadian Funds)

Held-to-Maturity and Loans and Receivables

Financial instruments that have a fixed maturity date, where the Company intends and has the ability to hold to maturity, are classified as held-to-maturity and measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Held-to-maturity, loans and receivables are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

Available-for-sale

Financial assets classified as available-for-sale are carried at fair value (where determinable based on market prices of actively traded securities) with changes in fair value recorded in other comprehensive income or loss. Available-for-sale securities are written down to fair value through earnings whenever it is necessary to reflect an other-than-temporary impairment. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of a financial asset or financial liability are added to its fair value.

Held-for-Trading

Financial assets and financial liabilities that are purchased and incurred with the intention of generating profits in the near term are classified as held-for-trading. These instruments are measured at fair value with the change in the fair value recognized in income or loss.

Derivatives and Hedge Accounting

The Company does not hold or have any exposure to derivative instruments and accordingly is not impacted by CICA Handbook Section 3865, "Hedges".

Comprehensive Income (Loss)

Comprehensive income (loss) is composed of the Company's earnings (loss) and other comprehensive income (loss). Other comprehensive income includes unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities, foreign currency translation gains and losses on the net investment in self-sustaining operations and changes in the fair market value of derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges, all net of income taxes. Cumulative changes in other comprehensive income are included in accumulated other comprehensive income which is presented (if applicable) as a new category in shareholders' equity.

l) International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS")

In February 2008, the CICA announced that GAAP for publicly accountable enterprises is to be replaced by IFRS for fiscal years beginning on or after 1 January 2011. Companies are required to provide IFRS comparative information for the previous fiscal year. Accordingly, the conversion from GAAP to IFRS is to be applicable to the Company's reporting for the first quarter of its 2012 year end for which the current and comparative information will be prepared under IFRS. The Company is required to apply all of those IFRS standards which are effective for fiscal years ending 31 October 2012 and 2011 and apply them to its opening 1 November 2010 balance sheet.

m) Comparative Figures

Certain comparative figures have been adjusted to conform to the current year's presentation.

2. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, amounts receivable, accounts payable and due to related parties.

The CICA Handbook Section 3862, "Financial Instruments – Disclosures" requires disclosure of a three-level hierarchy for fair value measurements based upon transparency of inputs to the valuation of financial instruments carried on the balance sheet at fair value. The three levels are defined as follows:

- Level 1: inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2: inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument.
- Level 3: inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The fair value of the financial instruments approximates their carrying values, due to their short-term maturity or capacity of prompt liquidation.

a) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of an unexpected loss if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations and arises primarily from the Company's cash and cash equivalents and amounts receivable. The Company manages its credit risk relating to cash and cash equivalents by dealing only with highly-rated Canadian financial institutions. As at 31 October 2010, amounts receivable was comprised of Harmonized Sales Tax receivable of $49,026 (31 October 2009 - $19,128) and interest receivable of $4,426 (31 October 2009 - $Nil). As a result, credit risk is considered insignificant.

b) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company manages liquidity risk by continuously monitoring actual and projected cash flows and matching the maturity profile of financial assets and liabilities. As the Company's financial instruments are substantially comprised of cash and cash equivalents, liquidity risk is considered insignificant.

c) Currency Risk

The Company is exposed to currency risk on its acquisition and exploration expenditures on its US properties since it has to convert Canadian dollars raised through equity financing in Canada to US dollars. The Company's expenditures will be negatively impacted if the US dollar increases versus the Canadian dollar.

The majority of the Company's cash flows and financial assets and liabilities are denominated in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's functional and reporting currency. Foreign currency risk is limited to the portion of the Company's business transactions denominated in currencies other than the Canadian dollar. The Company has cash and cash equivalents held in US dollars.

c) Currency Risk (continued)

The Company's objective in managing its foreign currency risk is to minimize its net exposures to foreign currency cash flows by holding most of its cash and cash equivalents in Canadian dollars. The Company monitors and forecasts the values of net foreign currency cash flow and balance sheet exposures and from time to time could authorize the use of derivative financial instruments such as forward foreign exchange contracts to economically hedge a portion of foreign currency fluctuations.

The following table provides an indication of the Company's significant foreign currency exposures during the years ended 31 October 2010 and 2009:

	2010	2009
Cash and cash equivalents	US$ 3,026,978	US$ 464,390

The Company receives interest revenues denominated in US dollars on the financial assets denominated in US dollars. However, the Company does not currently view this exposure as a significant foreign exchange risk as the amount of revenue is not significant.

The Company has not, to the date of these consolidated financial statements, entered into derivative instruments to offset the impact of foreign currency fluctuations.

d) Interest Risk

The Company's interest rate risk is primarily related to the Company's cash and cash equivalents for which amounts were invested at interest rates in effect at the time of investment. Changes in market interest rates affect the fair market value of the cash and cash equivalents. However, as these investments come to maturity within a short period of time, the impact would likely not be significant.

e) Commodity Price Risk

The Company is in the exploration stage and is not subject to commodity price risk.

3. Acquisition

On 22 September 2009, the Company acquired a 100% interest in MCR (Note 6). The aggregate purchase price was $4,232,585 of which $1,336,165 is to be paid in cash ($461,909 paid during the year ended 31 October 2009 and $874,256 paid during the year ended 31 October 2010 (Notes 6 and 7)), the Company issued 6,415,000 common shares of the Company valued at $2,670,750 and issued 1,000,000 share purchase warrants at an exercise price of $0.50 per common share valued at $225,670 (Note 8). The acquisition of MCR expands the Company's business of acquiring and exploring mineral properties.

A valuation of certain assets was completed and the Company internally determined the fair value of other assets and liabilities. In determining the fair value of acquired assets, standard valuation techniques were used including the market and income approach.

f) Stock-Based Compensation

The fair value of the options which vested in the year, estimated using the Black-Scholes model, was $370,873 (31 October 2009 - $57,004). A total of $272,467 has been expensed as stock-based compensation and $98,406 has been capitalized as mineral property costs, with a corresponding amount recorded as contributed surplus.

The fair value of the stock options granted and vested during the year was determined using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and the following weighted average assumptions:

	2010	2009	2008
Expected dividend yield	0.00%	0.00%	-
Expected stock price volatility	109.54%	100.00%	-
Risk-free interest rate	1.58%	2.50%	-
Expected life of options	4.98 years	5.00 years	-

The fair value computed using the Black-Scholes model is only an estimate of the potential value of the individual options and the Company is not required to make payments for such transactions.

g) Share Purchase Warrants

During the previous year, 7,244,168 common share purchase warrants having a fair value of $1,495,359 were issued relating to private placements.

During the previous year, 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants having a fair value of $225,670 were issued relating to business acquisition (Note 3).

g) Share Purchase Warrants (continued)

The weighted average grant-date fair value of warrants issued during the year was $0.24 per warrant (31 October 2009 - $0.21 per warrant). The fair value of each warrant granted was determined using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and the following weighted average assumptions:

	2010	2009	2008
Expected dividend yield	0.00%	0.00%	-
Expected stock price volatility	113.20%	100.00%	-
Risk-free interest rate	1.54%	1.30%	-
Expected life of options	1.50 years	2.00 years	-

The Black-Scholes option pricing model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, and therefore, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company's share purchase warrants.

13. Capital Management

The Company manages its capital structure which includes issuance of common shares, warrants and stock options, and makes adjustments to it, based on the funds available to the Company, in order to support the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties. The board of directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business.

The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic condition and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares, issue new debt, acquire or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash and cash equivalents and investments.
