

WHATTOZEE REAPPOINTS KARL KOTTMEIER TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS
- Stock Options Granted

Vancouver, British Columbia, June 8, 2017 – Whattozee Networks Inc. (Canadian Securities Exchange: WTZ) (the “Company”) is pleased to announce that Karl Kottmeier, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has been re-appointed to the Board of Directors. Mr. Kottmeier’s appointment is in replacement of Mr. Allen Ambrose, who recently tendered his resignation.

Mr. Kottmeier has been the Company’s CEO since inception. A former investment adviser and member of several brokerage firm corporate finance teams, Mr. Kottmeier has over 25 years of practical experience in listing, financing and administering emerging growth companies on the Toronto Stock Exchange, TSX Venture Exchanges and Canadian Securities Exchange. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of British Columbia.

Additionally, pursuant to Whattozee’s stock option plan – the Company has granted options to purchase 900,000 common shares at $0.10 per share to certain eligible officers and consultants. The options expire in five years.

For more information, please contact Karl Kottmeier, President, at (604) 689-7422.
