

WHATTOZEE ANNOUNCES STRATEGIC RELATIONSHIP WITH LG DIGITAL INC.
- NAME CHANGE TO CHEMISTREE TECHNOLOGY INC.

Vancouver, British Columbia, July 19, 2017 – Whattozee Networks Inc. (Canadian Securities Exchange: WTZ) (the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company has entered into a strategic alliance with LG Digital Inc., (“LG”) a Vancouver-based digital marketing and production company. LG has provided expert digital marketing, website, video production and graphic design work to its international client base since 2013. LG is also the owner and producer of the highly successful and influential “Growing Exposed” series of documentary, educational and biographical videos focused exclusively on the cannabis industry. Since its first segment released in early 2016, Growing Exposed has now produced 8 videos in its series, built an online viewing audience in the tens of thousands and established an exclusive online distribution relationship with HighTimes.com, the preeminent international cannabis periodical for over 40 years.

Whattozee president Karl Kottmeier commented “We are excited to strike this alliance with our friends at LG and Growing Exposed. We feel we have a unique ability to compliment LG and work with them to build their social media presence rapidly and cost effectively. The medical and legal recreational cannabis industry is huge and it is growing stronger daily. Aligning our company with well-known and respected industry players like these will open the entire industry to us.” For more information please visit www.lgdigital.ca and www.growingexposed.com.

The Company is also pleased to announce a change of name to Chemistree Technology Inc. After much input from shareholders and prospective investors; management and the board of directors of the Company determined that a name change was necessary to better brand the Company given its focus as social media technology supplier to the growing cannabis industry. The Company has requested that the CSE reserve the trading symbol “CHM”, for the common shares. Trading under the new symbol will commence when all the necessary documentation has been filed, and the required approvals are in place. The Company has commenced development of a new website at www.chemistree.ca
