SpearMint Significantly Expands the Case Lake South Cesium Prospect in Ontario

May 12, 2020 - SpearMint Resources Inc. (CSE: SPMT) (OTC Pink: SPMTF) (FSE: A2AHL5) (the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has significantly increased the acreage on its Case Lake South Cesium Prospect in Ontario. SpearMint now has approximately 5,000 contiguous acres. These new claims are directly bordering Power Metals Corp.’s (PWM:TSX.v) Case Lake Cesium Property located in the Larder Lake Mining Division in Northeast Ontario. This new prospect is accessible year-round with proximity to the Translimit road that connects Ontario to Quebec. In a news release from November 13, 2018, Power Metals Corp.’s (PWM:TSX.v) announced Cesium grades as high as 14.7 per cent Cs₂O (cesium oxide) over 1.0 metre in drill hole PWM-18-126 on their Case Lake Cesium Property. Cesium is extremely rare globally. The United States Department of the Interior included cesium, lithium and vanadium on its list of critical minerals (USGS website, dated May 18, 2018). SpearMint has projects that explore for each of these.

James Nelson, President of SpearMint, stated "We are very pleased to significantly increase our acreage directly bordering Power Metals Corp.’s (PWM:TSX.v) Case Lake Cesium Property. The demand for cesium is starting to gain momentum and we are very optimistic about the future growth globally. SpearMint has multiple projects about to commence operations and management is anticipating a very active summer work program schedule. We expect to have boots on the ground shortly."
