

International Corona Capital Provides Update

Vancouver, British Columbia, March 21, 2018 - International Corona Capital Corp. (TSX.V:IC) (the “Company”) would like to release result of its AGM and provide a corporate update.

The Company announces the proposed slate of directors was approved by absolute majority of shareholders at its Annual General Meeting held on March 15, 2018. The elected Board consists of Brian Bosse, Douglas MacQuarrie, and Bryan Loree. Resolutions also passed at the meeting were the appointment of DeVisser Gray LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants and approval of the company's incentive stock option plan.

Further, the Company announces that it intends to actively source, evaluate and conduct due diligence on new potential projects, including, but not limited to projects in technology, financial, resource and alternative sectors. The Company will also review alternatives for its current Quebec properties, which consist of the Schefferville gold property, and the Retty Lake copper-nickel-platinum-palladium property.

Given the Company intends to transition away from its current focus, Ned Goodman will not be returning as CEO and Director. Mr. Goodman remains the Company's largest shareholder and will continue to act as Emeritus Advisor. The Company is pleased to announce Mr. Brian Bosse has been appointed as the new CEO.

International Corona wishes to thank Ned Goodman for his contributions to the company and the country. For over 50 years Ned has built businesses and communities within Canada. Mr. Goodman served others via a distinguished career which earned him induction to the Canadian Mining Hall of Fame, the Investment Industry Hall of Fame and Membership to the Order of Canada. Schools of both Brock University and Laurentian University are named in honour of Ned Goodman's contributions. Ned has been a wonderful colleague of many years for everyone at the Corporation.

Brian Bosse, CEO states: " 2018 will be a constructive year for the company. Our team has the patience and experience to build sustainable compounding company value for shareholders."

We seek Safe Harbor.

On behalf of the Board of Directors

“Brian Bosse”
