

TOWER ONE WIRELESS COMMENTS ON MARKETING ACTIVITIES

April 6th, 2018 - Vancouver, BC, Canada - Tower One Wireless Corp (CSE: TO) (Pink Sheets: TOWTF) (Frankfurt: 1P3N) (“Tower One” or the “Company”), announced today that it has been requested by the OTC Markets Group, Inc. ("OTC Markets") to comment on recent trading and promotional activity concerning its common shares.

On April 2, 2018, OTC Markets informed the Company that it became aware of certain promotional activities concerning the Company and its common shares. OTC Markets informed the Company that it had become aware of promotional literature encouraging investors to purchase the Company's common shares and making certain statements regarding the potential returns on such investment, including certain promotional newsletter emails. The Company has been informed that this promotional activity coincided with higher than average trading volume in the Company's shares.

Since becoming a public company in January 2017, management has remained committed to the long-term success of the Company. The Company's board and management have a contractual hold period imposed on their stockholdings of the Company that does not expire for another two years.

The Company has engaged third party providers (Oilprice.com (Gold Standard Media LLC) and Advanced Media Solutions Limited) to provide public relations, marketing or other related services. On March 27, 2018, the Company engaged Oilprice.com (Gold Standard Media LLC) and Advanced Media Solutions Limited, to assist with a managed public awareness campaign, through paid third party agents and newsletter distributor. The Company paid a one-time fee of $300,000 to Oilprice.com (Gold Standard Media LLC) and $100,000 to Advanced Media Solutions Limited, to prepare and disseminate the newsletter campaign. The campaign began on March 27, 2018 and lasted for 10 days and was terminated on April 5, 2018. The services were a one-off promotional campaign and the Company did not enter into any ongoing contractual arrangements with any of Oilprice.com (Gold Standard Media LLC) or Advanced Media Solutions Limited and no further services are being provided to the Company by such entities at this time.

While the Company's CEO did review certain drafts of the newsletter material related to the Company's business and prospects and the Company's industry, the Company had not reviewed or seen the final drafts of these newsletters prior to publication or distribution and was not aware that certain of the promotional statements were added to the materials reviewed by the Company. Further, certain of the newsletters distributed as part of the paid campaign were not reviewed by any officers or directors of the Company. The Company did not retain full editorial control over the final product.

The Company has determined that certain statements included in these newsletters related to the Company and its business might be read as misleading and/or incomplete and readers should not place undue reliance on these newsletters. Specifically, the Company does not condone the use of sensational language to describe the Company's business prospects or the growth potential of the Company's industry. Further, investors should disregard comparisons made between the Company and its larger, more established competitors, specifically the Company does not condone any comparison between the investment potential of the Company's common shares and the actual price growth of the Company's competitors or any comparison between the Company's potential market cap growth and the actual growth of its competitors. The Company encourages investors to review the business and prospects of the Company on its own merits and not based on a comparison to the success of the Company's competitors. The Company does not condone any statements made regarding the urgency of investing in the Company's common shares or any other similar statements. Finally, the Company notes that investing in the Company's securities involves certain risks and uncertainties which investors should review prior to making any investment decision. The Company encourages all investors to undertake proper due diligence and carefully consider all investment decisions. The Company directs potential investors to rely solely on its filings and disclosures made with Canadian securities regulators, available at www.sedar.com, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, available at www.sec.gov and as posted on the filings and disclosure page for TOWTF on the OTC Markets website at www.otcm Markets.com.

The Company does not know the direct effect of the paid promotional activities, if any, on the trading activity of the Company's shares. Activity in the Company's shares began rising on March 23, 2018, prior to the initiation of the paid promotional program by Oilprice.com (Gold Standard Media LLC) and Advanced Media Solutions Limited on March 27, 2018. The Company had previously issued over the preceding several weeks press releases and reports regarding the completion of a site acquisition on 80 new tower sites in Argentina and the entry into an agreement to acquire a US based tower services company with over $17 million in 2017 revenue, which the Company believes may have influenced trading in the shares.

While the Company believes that the paid promotional campaign likely had some effect on the trading activity in the Company's shares on March 27, 2018 through to the date hereof, the Company also notes that during this timeframe, the Company issued press releases announcing the hiring of a former Ericsson Telecom senior executive, the extension of its warrant incentive program, which could have influenced trading of the common shares, and the acquisition of a Mexico Tower Company with an AT&T master agreement. The Company does not know the relative influence of these announcements on the trading activity of the Company's shares compared to the paid promotional campaign.

Outside of the paid promotional campaign by Oilprice.com (Gold Standard Media LLC) and Advanced Media Solutions Limited and a review of prior drafts of the newsletters produced by such third party providers by the Company's CEO, after direct and diligent inquiry, the Company can state that the Company, its officers, directors and, to the Company's knowledge, its controlling shareholders (i.e., shareholders owning 10% or more of the Company's securities) and third-party service providers have not, directly or indirectly, authorized or been involved in any way (including payment to a third-party) with the creation or distribution of promotional materials regarding the Company or its securities.

As part of the OTC Markets' Group inquiry, the Company has been asked to disclose all transactions by any officer, director, controlling shareholder (defined as owning 10% or more of the outstanding stock), and any third- party service providers. After inquiry, below is a summary of such transactions within the last 90 days.
