VisualVault Corporation Announces Two New Board Appointments

VANCOUVER, BC January 16, 2012 – The Board of Directors of VisualVault Corporation (the Company) (CNSX:VVT) is pleased to announce that Steve Hanson and Brent Bollong have been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company. Mr. Hanson will also assume the role of Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Hanson, has spent 40 years in senior executive management positions in the high technology industry, including 28 years at Motorola Semiconductor in various engineering management and leadership positions, including Senior Vice-President and General Manager of Europe, the Middle East and Africa and Senior Vice-President and General Manager of the Standard Components Group. Mr. Hanson has been a Senior Partner at Southwest Value Acquisitions LLC, a private equity firm, since 2004, and serves on the Boards of Vitesse Semiconductor Inc. (NASDAQ:VTSS) and Deca Technologies Inc., a privately held chip scale packaging company, majority owned by Cypress Semiconductor Corp. From 2007 through 2009 he served as Chairman of InPlay Technologies Inc. (NASDAQ:NPLA), a high-technology firm delivering human input device technologies and products. From 1999 to 2003, Mr. Hanson was President and Chief Executive Officer of ON Semiconductor (NASDAQ:ONNN). Mr. Hanson has served Arizona State University as a member of the Dean's Advisory Council, W.P. Carey School of Business and the Dean's Advisory Council for the Ira A. Fulton School of Engineering. Mr. Hanson holds a BSEE from the College of Engineering at Arizona State University.

Mr. Bollong, has over 25 years of technology management experience. Mr. Bollong joined Auer Precision of Mesa, Arizona in 2000, and was named President in March 2001. In October 2002, the original VisualVault product and development team was acquired by Auer Precision, creating a subsidiary business called Auersoft, LLC. As President of Auersoft, Mr. Bollong was involved with achieving compliance standards for Automotive, Environmental, FDA, HiPPA, ISO and Sarbanes Oxley for clients, as well as the transition from on-premise solutions to ASP and SaaS business models. From 1990-2000, Mr. Bollong held positions of General Manager, Business Manager, Director of Technology at Johnson Matthey, Thermacore and ATS Automation, involved in crystal growth, electronic materials, thermal management for electronics and opto-electronic devices. Mr. Bollong holds a B.Sc. in physics from the University of Victoria, B.C.

The Board welcomes both of these highly talented individuals, Van Potter, CEO of the Company stated that "the appointments signify the Company's commitment to attract the highest quality leadership available to assist in enabling the Company to focus on the many growth opportunities presently being considered."

The Board also acknowledges the resignation of Donald Gordon. Mr Gordon was instrumental in assisting the Company through its listing process on the CNSX and has been a valuable contributor to the Company in its pursuit of capital and compliance with regulatory process. The Board would like to thank Mr. Gordon for his significant contribution to the Company.
