

Cybeats Appoints Cybersecurity Industry Leaders, Kurt Callewaert and Bob Haack, to Its Advisory Board

Toronto, Ontario--(Newsfile Corp. - December 4, 2024) - Cybeats Technologies Corp. (CSE: CYBT) (OTCQB: CYBCF) ("Cybeats" or the "Company"), a global leader in software supply chain security, is proud to announce the appointments of Kurt Callewaert and Bob Haack to the Cybeats Advisory Board.

These distinguished industry leaders bring decades of experience in cybersecurity, regulatory compliance, and software supply chain management, further enhancing Cybeats' commitment to securing the global software ecosystem. The Cybeats Advisory Board was created in 2021, and comprises seasoned experts who provide strategic insights, market expertise, and guidance to support our vision and business objectives. The Company continues to expand the advisory board with diverse perspectives and deep industry knowledge which are instrumental in shaping our direction and ensuring we stay ahead in a competitive landscape.

Bob Haack is a leading expert in device security, driving innovative, scalable solutions across industries - including medical devices and the U.S. Department of Defense Risk Management Framework (RMF) - to protect connected systems, ensure compliance, and anticipate future challenges.

"The supply chain security market is rapidly evolving, and Cybeats' solutions are at the forefront of ensuring transparency, compliance, and trust across the software ecosystem. I'm excited to join Cybeats as an advisor, bringing my expertise in security to support their groundbreaking work in SBOM management," said Bob Haack.

Kurt Callewaert joins the advisory board of Cybeats following the recent partnership between Cybeats and Capyx, which leverages Cybeats' products to help businesses in Belgium and Luxembourg meet compliance requirements under the EU Cyber Resilience Act (CRA), NIS2, and DORA. Mr. Callewaert is the Business Line Director Cybersecurity of Capyx Belgium and founder & co-CEO of Capyx Luxembourg, a leading IT services provider focused on helping businesses meet compliance requirements in cybersecurity, particularly in the EU market.

"I look forward to supporting Cybeats in expanding its commercial expansion across the industry. Cybeats is at the forefront of cybersecurity innovation, and their SBOM Studio technology is a game-changer for software supply chain management," said Kurt Callewaert, Founder & CEO, Capyx.

"Welcoming Kurt and Bob to our Advisory Board strengthens Cybeats' ability to tackle the evolving challenges of regulatory compliance and software supply chain security worldwide," said Dmitry Raidman, CTO, Cybeats. "Their expertise will be pivotal in shaping the Company's growth, particularly as we continue to support organizations navigating the complex European regulatory landscape."
