It is our intention that City View Green will grow exceptional quality cannabis and produce high quality extracts. Once legalized, it is our expectation that City View will produce high quality edible products, distillates and water-soluble products for the beverage market. In addition, City View owns a 19.9% stake in Budd Hutt Inc. Budd Hutt is a retail focused Cannabis company with access to licenses in Alberta and other retail opportunities across Canada. Rob Fia, CEO of the Company, stated: "We are pleased to announce the acquisition of City View and our name change to City View Green Holdings Inc. We would like to thank our shareholders for their patience over the last year during this halt. Rest assured that our Company has been actively working on many opportunities to increase shareholder value during the listing process. Moving to the CSE market was strategic for our Company as we believe it gives us greater flexibility to pursue opportunities around the world in various jurisdictions where cannabis is increasingly becoming legal. Now that we've completed the acquisition of City View and the CSE listing, we will be focusing our efforts on finalizing, within the next short period of time, the assembly of what we believe will be one of the best management teams with an extensive contact base that will differentiate our company from the pack. We look forward to reporting back in the near future as we expand and execute our business plan."
