Far Resources Mourns the Death of a Director.

VANCOUVER, CANADA – It is with great sadness that the Board of Directors and management of Far Resources Ltd (CSE:FAT) (FSE:F0R) (OTC:FRRSF) announce that Director, colleague and friend, Murray Seitz has passed away.

Murray joined the Far board at the beginning of 2018 and during his brief two-and-a-half years with the company was instrumental in overseeing the growth and success of our technology business, forging relationships with partners in Canada, the US and beyond.

"Murray's guidance, vision and commitment to the success and growth of Far, and his friendship over the last two years of the company's transformation will be greatly missed," said Toby Mayo, President of Far. "On behalf of the Board of Directors and our team, I extend our deepest condolences to Murray's family and to all those who came to know him as a colleague, as a mentor and as a friend."

About Far

Far Resources Ltd. is a Canadian battery and technology metals exploration and development company with lithium exploration projects in Canada and the USA. In Canada, Far is advancing its Zoro Lithium Project, located in the mining-friendly Snow Lake region of Manitoba. Zoro covers numerous known lithium pegmatite dykes and hosts the company's 1.1 million tonne resource (0.93% Li₂O at a 0.3% cutoff), plus an additional fifty targets. The company also holds a 60% stake in the Hidden Lake Lithium Project in Northwest Territories. In the USA, the company owns the Winston Project in New Mexico, a historic mining property with potential for bonanza-grade silver and gold.
