

SIGNAL EXPLORATION INC.
MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2011

INTRODUCTION

Signal Exploration Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated in the province of British Columbia on March 9, 2010. The Company is a resource exploration company that is acquiring and exploring mineral properties. On December 28, 2011 the Company completed an Initial Public Offering (“IPO”) and its shares commenced trading on the TSX-Venture Exchange (TSX-V) on January 9, 2012 under the symbol SNL. The Company is currently exploring for base metals on its Scotch Creek property in British Columbia.

The following management discussion and analysis (MD&A) of the financial position of the Company and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited annual financial statements and accompanying notes for the year ended December 31, 2011. The audited annual financial statements together with the following MD&A are intended to provide investors with a reasonable basis for assessing the financial performance of the Company as well as forward-looking statements relating to potential future performance.

This MD&A includes material occurring up to and including April 26, 2012.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS:

This MD&A may contain forward-looking statements including but not limited to comments regarding the timing and content of upcoming operation, exploration and business development plans. Forward-looking statements address future events and conditions and therefore involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those currently anticipated in such statements. Forward looking statements are usually identified by our use of certain terminology, including but not limited to “will”, “believes”, “may”, “expects”, “should”, “seeks”, “anticipates” or “intends” or by discussions of strategy or intentions.

Forward-looking statements used in this discussion are subject to various risks and uncertainties, most of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of the Company. If risks or uncertainties materialize, or if underlying assumptions prove to be incorrect, our actual results may vary materially from those expected, estimated or projected. Forward-looking statements in this document are not a prediction of future events or circumstances, and those future events or circumstances may not occur. Given these uncertainties, users of the information included herein, including investors and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements.

BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY:

Overview

The Company's principal asset and project is its interest in the Scotch Creek Property, comprised of 8 map-staked mineral claims covering a total area of approximately 1,384.12 hectares (3,418.78 acres) located in the Kamloops Mining Division and in the Kamloops Land District in Shuswap Highland of south-central British Columbia. The current expiry dates of these claims ranges from June 18, 2018 to November 25, 2020. In the current fiscal year and for the foreseeable future, the Company intends to continue to focus its efforts on advancing the exploration and, if merited, the development of the Scotch Creek Property.

Summary of Projects

Scotch Creek property:

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 the Company completed a geological mapping program. A total of 482 hectares (1,190 acres) were mapped at a scale of 1:5,000 across most of the property-area. A total of 42 samples of mineralization were taken. An estimated 100 hectares (247 acres) of area was prospected with varying degrees of intensity in numerous areas throughout the property-area. Prospecting was conducted as an adjunct to geological mapping in several areas in order to locate old workings, drill sites, mineralization, and outcrop. Standard prospecting methods were employed. Soil survey was conducted over a grid comprising a total of 22.95 km (14.0 miles) of survey line and 2.4 km (1.5 miles) of base line for a total of 25.35 km (15.5 miles). A total of 481 soil samples were taken.

The Company will complete phase one of the recommended exploration program during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 and provided that phase one exploration results are positive, complete phase two of the recommended exploration program. The phase one exploration program consists of additional geological mapping, prospecting and soil sampling as well as electromagnetic and magnetic 3-D induced polarization survey. The additional geological mapping, prospecting and soil sampling will be conducted on parts of the Scotch Creek Property that, to date, has not been explored. The results of the additional geological mapping, prospecting and soil sampling will be used to identify additional areas for electromagnetic and magnetic 3-D induced polarization surveys.

The electromagnetic and magnetic 3-D induced polarization survey will be conducted to cover soil anomalies identified during the initial exploration of the Scotch Creek Property. The results of the electromagnetic and magnetic 3-D induced polarization survey will, if successful, identify drill targets for the second phase of the recommended exploration program. The Company intends to complete the phase one exploration in the second quarter of 2012. The timing of the phase is dictated by weather and historically the property has been clear of snow from the beginning of April to the end of October. It is expected that the exploration program recommended by the Technical Report will take approximately 1 month to complete following the commencement thereof, which is planned for October 2011.

The cost of this first phase is estimated to be $221,170, excluding HST and contingencies. The phase one exploration cost will be funded from proceeds of the Company's IPO.

SUMMARY OF QUARTERLY RESULTS:

The following table sets out selected quarterly information for each of the Company's most recent eight completed quarters. As all Company's activities were focused on the completion its IPO and listing its shares on the TSX –V, there was no revenue producing activities as part of Company operations. Virtually all expenses were related to legal, consulting and other professional fees necessary to execute the above activities. The variability of loss and loss per share between quarters was directly related to the costs associated with different portions of the above processes that fell in different quarters during the lifecycle of these activities.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES:

As at December 31, 2011 current assets were $533,773 consisting of $516,350 in cash, $17,423 in amounts receivable. Current liabilities at December 31, 2011 were $73,737, which consisted of accounts payable of $24,582 and amounts due to related parties of $49,155. As at December 31, 2011, the Company had working capital of $460,036 which management considers sufficient to continue operations for the 2012 fiscal year.

For the year ended December 31, 2011, net cash used in operating activities was $90,283. The Company incurred $26,245 in mineral exploration costs. The company received cash of $632,450 resulting from share issuances, including the Company's IPO. The Company realized a net increase of $515,922 from the Company's cash position in fiscal 2010.

There are no other known demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that would adversely affect the trends and expected fluctuations in the Company's liquidity. However, at this time, the Company does not own any operating mines and has no operating income/sales from mineral production. Funding for operations is raised primarily through equity financings. Realization of the carrying value of mineral interests is dependent upon funding, the ability of the Company and third parties to bring mineral interests into profitable production, or recovery from sale. In the longer term, in order to continue operations, the Company will need to raise additional capital through equity financings. There is no guarantee that financing will be available on terms acceptable to the Company, given the current climate in the financial markets and reduced availability of funding.

The Company has no debt obligations, other than short-term liabilities incurred in the normal monthly activities of exploration and administration. The Company has no long-term debt.

OFF BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS:

The Company has no off-balance sheet arrangements that would potentially affect current or future operations, or the financial condition of the Company.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

Related party transactions are described in Note 4 accompanying the audited annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2011. Rates for the services provided by the related party transactions represent normal commercial rates.

FOURTH QUARTER RESULTS:

See summary of quarterly results above.

PROPOSED TRANSACTIONS:

The Company does not currently have any proposed transactions approved by the Board of Directors. All current transactions are fully disclosed in the audited annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2011.

FUTURE ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Basis of presentation

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, modified where applicable. The financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's functional currency.

Recent Accounting Pronouncement, Not Yet Adopted

A number of new standards, and amendments to standards and interpretations, are not yet effective for the period ended December 31, 2011 and have not been applied in preparing the Company's financial statements.

Amendments to IFRS 7, "Financial Instruments: Disclosures".

New standard IFRS 9, "Financial Instruments"

New standard IFRS 10, “Consolidated Financial Statements” and IFRS 12 “Disclosure of interests in Other Entities”

New standard IFRS 11, “Joint Arrangements”

New standard IFRS 13, “Fair Value Measurement”

Amendments to IAS 1, “Presentation of Financial Statements”

Interpretation 20 “Stripping Costs in the Production Phase of a Surface Mine”

The Company has not early-adopted these new and revised standards and is currently assessing the impact that these standards will have on its financial statements.

Other accounting standards or amendments to existing accounting standards that have been issued but have future effective dates are either not applicable or are not expected to have a significant impact on the Company’s financial statements.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES:

Resource exploration is a speculative business and involves a high degree of risk. There is no certainty that the expenditures made by the Company in the exploration of properties will result in discoveries of commercial quantities of minerals. Exploration for mineral deposits involves risks which even a combination of professional evaluation and management experience may not eliminate. Significant expenditures are required to locate and estimate ore reserves, and further the development of a property. Capital expenditures to bring a property to a commercial production stage are also significant. There is no assurance the Company has, or will have, commercially viable ore bodies. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to arrange sufficient financing to bring ore bodies into production. The following are some of the risks to the Company, recognizing that it may be exposed to other additional risks from time to time:

- Limited business history of the Company, including lack of revenues and no assurance of profitability;
- Dependence on key management personnel;
- Reliance on availability and performance of independent contractors;
- Challenges by other unknown parties to property title;
- Environmental issues;
- Federal and provincial political risk;
- Commodity price risk; and
- Financial markets.

The Company is diligent in minimizing exposure to business risk, but by the nature of its activities and size, will always have some risk. These risks are not always quantifiable due to their uncertain nature. Should one or more of these risks and uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, then actual results may vary materially from those described on forward-looking statements.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying value of cash, amount receivable, accounts payable and amounts due to related parties their fair values due to the relatively short periods to maturity of these financial instruments.

Financial assets that may be exposed to credit risk consist primarily of cash, which is placed with a major Canadian financial institution.

The Company's functional currency is the Canadian dollar and the Company does not operate in foreign jurisdictions, which could give rise to exposure to market risk from foreign currency rate changes.
