Tartisan Nickel Corp.

Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements

Three and Nine Months Ended December 31, 2023

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

1. Nature of operations and going concern

Nature of business

Tartisan Nickel Corp. ("Tartisan" or the "Company") was incorporated on March 18, 2008 under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). The Company's registered office is at 44 Victoria Street, Suite 1102, Toronto, Ontario, M5C 1Y2. The Company is listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange ("CSE"), trading under the symbol "TN", on the Frankfurt Exchange under the stock symbol "8TA" and on the OTCQX International Markets under the symbol "TTSRF".

The Company is in the business of acquiring, exploring for and developing mineral properties in Canada and in Peru. Substantially all of the efforts of the Company are devoted to these business activities. The ability of the Company to carry out its business plan rests with its ability to achieve profitable business operations, to secure equity and other financing.

Although the Company has taken steps to verify title to the properties in which it has an interest, in accordance with industry standards for the current stage of exploration of such properties, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Property title may be subject to government licensing requirements or regulations, unregistered prior agreements, undetected defects, unregistered claims, native land claims, and non-compliance with regulatory and environmental requirements.

Going concern uncertainty

At each reporting period, management assesses the basis of preparation of the financial statements. These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). The going concern basis of presentation assumes that the Company will continue its operations for the foreseeable future and be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to amounts and classifications of assets and liabilities that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

For the nine months ended December 31, 2023, the Company had net comprehensive loss of $2,268,337 (nine months ended December 31, 2022 - $5,482,219) and working capital of $4,001,689 (March 31, 2023 - $4,604,779). As at December 31, 2023, the Company has accumulated deficit of $1,694,387 (March 31, 2023 - $327,108). The Company's ability to continue its operations and to realize assets at their carrying values is dependent upon its ability to generate cash flows from operations, and to complete negotiations to obtain and successfully close additional funding from debt financing, equity financing's or through other arrangements. While the Company has been successful in arranging financing in the past, there can be no assurance the debt financing or any equity offering will be successful.

As at December 31, 2023, management has forecasted the Company will have sufficient cashflow to meet all planned development and general expenses for the next twelve months. The Company plans to raise additional capital to further develop and explore its projects, however the Company may increase or decrease expenditures as necessary to adjust to a changing capital market environment. The above factors indicate the existence of material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern.

1. Nature of operations and going concern (continued)

There are numerous risks involved in the mineral exploration industry. The Company's current or future operations, including development activities, are subject to environmental regulations which may make operations not economically viable or prohibit them altogether. The success of the operations and activities are dependent to a significant extent on the efforts and abilities of its management, outside contractors, experts and other advisors. Investors must be willing to rely to a significant degree on management's discretion and judgment, as well as the expertise and competence of outside contractors, experts and other advisors.

These conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt regarding the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, these unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not give effect to adjustments, if any, that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. If the going concern assumption was not used then the adjustments required to report the Company's assets and liabilities on a liquidation basis could be material to these unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

2. Basis of preparation (continued)

New standards adopted

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current (Amendments to IAS 1)

The IASB has published Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current (Amendments to IAS 1) which clarifies the guidance on whether a liability should be classified as either current or non-current. The amendments:

- clarify that the classification of liabilities as current or non-current should only be based on rights that are in place "at the end of the reporting period"
- clarify that classification is unaffected by expectations about whether an entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of a liability
- make clear that settlement includes transfers to the counterparty of cash, equity instruments, other assets or services that result in extinguishment of the liability.

The Company adopted the amendment to IAS 1 on April 1, 2023, there was no significant impact as a result of the adoption of the accounting policy.

New standards not yet adopted

Certain pronouncements were issued by the IASB or the IFRIC that are mandatory for accounting periods commencing on or after January 1, 2024. Many are not applicable or do not have a significant impact to the Company and have been excluded.

10. Loss per share

Basic loss per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. The treasury stock method is used for the calculation of diluted income per share, whereby all "in the money" stock options and share purchase warrants are assumed to have been exercised at the beginning of the period and the proceeds from their exercise are assumed to have been used to purchase common shares at the average market price during the period. When a loss is incurred during the period, basic and diluted loss per share are the same, as the inclusion of stock options and warrants is anti-dilutive.

For the three and nine months ended December 31, 2023, basic and diluted loss per share has been calculated based on the loss attributable to common shareholders of $171,579 and $2,272,429, respectively (December 31, 2022 - $75,195 and $5,480,756, respectively) and the weighted average number of common shares outstanding of 114,068,771 and 113,600,996, respectively (December 31, 2022 - 111,671,661 and 109,838,843, respectively). Diluted loss per share did not include the effect of stock options and warrants as they are anti-dilutive.
