This presentation, including the prospectus information and documents incorporated by reference, contains certain information, forecasts, projections, and/or disclosures about PlantX (the "Company") that may constitute "forward-looking information" and "forward-looking statements" under applicable securities laws (collectively, "forward-looking statements"). All such statements, forecasts, projections and/or disclosures included in this presentation, the prospectus and the documents and information incorporated by reference, other than those of historical fact, that address activities, events or developments that the Company anticipates or expects may or will occur in the future (in whole or in part) should be considered forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based upon the Company's current internal expectations, estimates, projections and assumptions about future events and financial trends that management believes may affect the Company's financial condition, results of operations, business strategy and financial needs, as the case may be. The forward-looking statements are subject to significant known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond the control of the Company. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "expect", "likely", "may", "will", "should", "intend", "anticipate", "potential", "proposed", "estimate", "believe", "plan", "forecast" and other words of similar import, understanding and meaning, including negative and grammatical variations thereof, or statements that certain events or conditions "may" or "will" happen, or by discussions of strategy. Actual results and developments may differ materially from those contemplated by these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements in this presentation, the prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference include, but are not limited to, statements with respect to the completion of the Offering and the receipt of all regulatory and stock exchange approvals in connection therewith; the listing on the CSE of the Unit Shares and Warrant Shares issuable in connection with the Offering; the use of the net proceeds of the Offering; the Company's business objectives and milestones and the anticipated timing of execution; the expected performance of the Company's business and operations; the ability of the Company to sell its product offerings across its operating markets; the Company's ability to expand and develop its foreign operations and supply arrangements; the Company's ability to leverage the success of its North American operations and further develop its presence in the United Kingdom, Germany, Europe and Israel; the Company's use of brick-and-mortar locations; the Company's plans to establish a franchise model in respect of its brick-and-mortar locations; the Company's use of dropshipping arrangements; the Company's meal delivery offering a subscription service; the Company's grocery and pantry products; the Company's plant shop products; the Company's recipes; the Company's private label products; the Company's plans to locate warehouse space and greenhouse space to further its distribution of ready-made meals and indoor plants; the features and expected launch of the Company's mobile app; potential future strategic acquisitions; the Company's ability to integrate the business of Bloombox and Score into its operations; expectations regarding the Company's revenues, expenses and profits; expectations in the growth of demand in the plant-based food and consumer product industries; the competitive conditions of the plant-based food industry, including ancillary industries such as plant-based cosmetics, plant-based vitamins and plant-based pet-food; the anticipated growth of consumer trends and preferences for plant-based offerings; the anticipated growth of consumer trends and preferences for online shopping; the Company's anticipated obligations to comply with food health and safety matters; the Company's anticipated obligations to comply with product safety matters; the Company's anticipated obligations to comply with employee health and safety matters; the effect of new or altered government regulations with respect to the marketing, acquisition, manufacture, management, transportation, storage, sale and disposal of consumer products; the grant or renewal of licenses or governmental approvals required to conduct activities related to the Company's business; the Company's ability to maintain ancillary business licenses, permits and approvals required to operate effectively; the intentions of management of the Company; the Company's intention to meet and seek advice from its advisory boards; the Company's ability to meet sales capacity; the Company's ability to conduct sales and marketing activities for its products; the impacts of future scientific findings regarding the plant-based market; the Company's ability to develop or facilitate introduction of new product offerings to the market; the Company's ability to implement effective distribution measures; the Company's ability to source raw materials, products and supplies at acceptable quantities, qualities and prices; the Company's ability to establish partnerships with third parties, suppliers and distribution partners; the Company's ability to fulfil its obligations to third parties, suppliers and distribution partners; the Company's expectations that third parties, suppliers and distribution partners will fulfill their obligations; the Company's ability to retain and attract key personnel and members of management; the scope of protection the Company is able to establish and maintain, if any, for intellectual property rights covering its products or services; the Company's intention to list its Common Shares on the NASDAQ Capital Market and the associated filing of a Form 40-F Registration with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; the Company's ability to raise additional funds; future liquidity and financial capacity; the Company's ability to manage cash flows; the Company's plan with respect to any payments of dividends; the Company's possible exposure to liability relating to product recalls; the Company's ability to cope with the operational impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic; and contractual obligations and commitments.

An investment in the Company involves a high degree of risk and must be considered speculative due to the nature of the Company's business and the present stage of its development. Prospective investors should carefully consider the risk factors described in and incorporated by reference into the Prospectus. See "Forward-Looking Information" and "Risk Factors" in the Prospectus.

Forward-looking statements are based on certain key assumptions and analyses made by the Company in light of management's experience, perception of historical trends, current conditions, expected future developments and other factors the Company believes are relevant and reasonable in the circumstances at the date such forward-looking statements are made. These assumptions and analyses are based on information available at the time that the forward-looking statements are made. These assumptions and analyses include, but are not limited to: expectations regarding the Company's consolidated revenue, expenses and operations; the Company's anticipated cash needs, its needs for additional financing, its ability to generate cash flow from operations, and changes to its dividend policies; the Company's strategies to develop its business and its operations; current and future management will work towards the business objectives and strategies outlined in this Prospectus; the Company retaining its board of directors and management, and otherwise engaging qualified advisors having knowledge of the industry in which the Company operates; the Company's expectations with respect to how its products will be distributed to consumers in the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany, Israel and other international markets, if applicable; the Company's growth expectations and ability to maintain sufficient inventory; the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union; the Company's expectations with respect to future production costs and capacity; the Company's competitive position and the regulatory environment in which it operates; and the Company's expectations regarding the general economic, financial, regulatory and political conditions in which the Company operates.

Undue reliance should not be placed on forward-looking statements because a number of risks and factors may cause actual results to differ materially from those set out in such forward-looking statements. These include risks associated with an industry experiencing rapid growth and competition; risks of managing the growth of the Company's business, including the accuracy of financial projections; risks associated with unfavorable publicity or consumer perception; risks associated with the enforceability of contracts; risks associated with the reliance on suppliers, service providers and third parties; risks associated with protecting the Company's intellectual property and licensing third party intellectual property; risks associated with litigation and/or product liability; risks inherent in the food and consumer product business; risks associated with economic conditions, dependence on management and key personnel, and conflicts of interest; risks associated with changing consumer demand and preferences; and risks associated with general economic and financial market conditions, including with respect to COVID-19.

Purchasers are cautioned that the foregoing list of forward-looking statements, assumptions and factors should not be construed as exhaustive. An investment in the Company involves a high degree of risk and must be considered speculative due to the nature of the Company's business and the present stage of its development. Prospective investors should carefully consider the risk factors described in and incorporated by reference into the Prospectus. See "Forward-Looking Information" and "Risk Factors" in the Prospectus.

Shop with confidence knowing that everything we endorse meets our personal morals. If it's not plant-based, we don't offer it.

Plant-Based Meal Delivery

Convenient Chef Designed Meals Delivered Right to Your Door.

PlantX Life Inc. is a platform for well-known chefs to create plant-based meals. PlantX delivers 100% plant-based and sustainable meal deliveries directly to consumers across Canada. The PlantX menu rotates to keep the menu fresh and provide the consumer with a variety of options. The Company has also introduced meal delivery subscription options that will allow this product offering to create a recurring revenue stream and to compete with other companies in the growing meal subscription industry.

Plant-based meal delivery is currently available in Canada only.

In Home Plant Delivery

Partnerships with greenhouses in Canada and the United States allow PlantX to ship plants directly from greenhouses to customers. PlantX greenhouse partners are committed to providing fresh, hand picked, and quality-checked plants to the PlantX customers and offer ready-to-grow plants. The PlantX platform retrieves up-to-date inventory from partners ensuring that only a fresh supply of plants is available on the platform for purchase. Additionally, the acquisition of Bloombox Club UK has facilitated the distribution of plants across the UK and Germany.

Our platform makes buying plants as seamless as possible. We currently ship our plants across Canada and the US (with the help of our partners Geoponics Inc and House Plant Shop)

BLOOMBOX CLUB

PlantX Acquires Bloombox Club UK

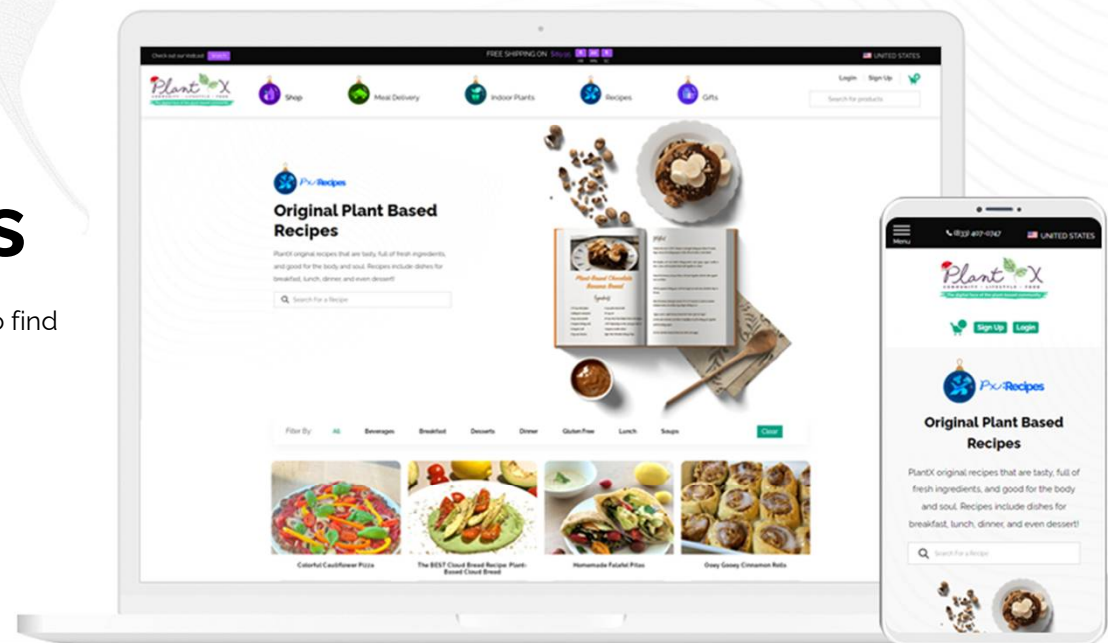

A UK based website that sells and delivers indoor plants to its established wellness community via subscription service and online shop. PlantX will help bring Bloombox Club to Germany and intends to expand its European options in the future.

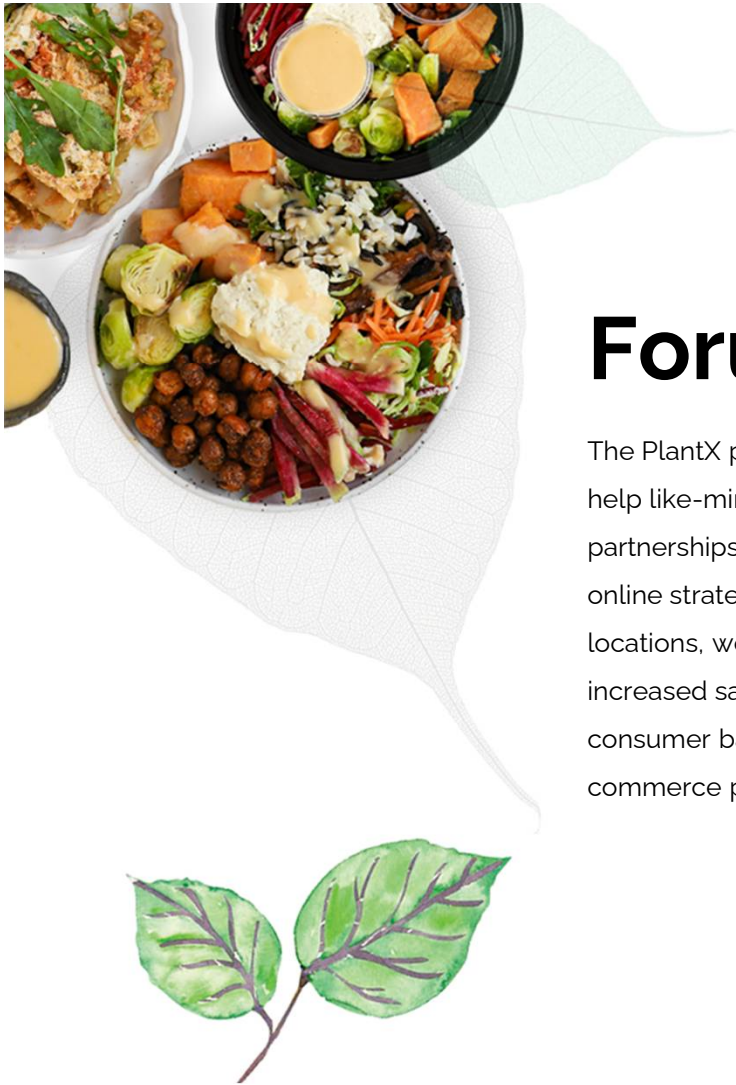

Unique Recipes

Our website is a place for plant-based individuals to find new recipes and share their own.

Forum

The PlantX platform also features a collaborative forum and blog to help like-minded consumers to engage through social media and via partnerships with top nutritionists, chefs and brands. By combining this online strategy with the opportunities to engage at brick-and-mortar locations, we to cultivate a PlantX community that translates into increased sales through its e-commerce platform. Establishing a core consumer base that makes recurring purchases from the PlantX's e-commerce platform is critical to the execution of the business model.

Digitized Flagship Shop With PlantX Branded Goods:

SAN DIEGO + SQUAMISH + TEL AVIV

The PlantX brick-and-mortar locations, including its flagship stores, are expected to provide a sensory experience for customers to experience plant-based shopping. The locations are intended to attract new customers, build brand recognition, and create a loyal PlantX consumer base. All PlantX customers should expect a consistent experience - whether shopping on-line or at a flagship store. Certain brick-and-mortar stores will also be used as distribution centers that warehouse goods and ship directly to consumers from orders placed on the e-commerce platform.
