Future Farm sponsored the barbecue, allowing PlantX to provide complimentary vegan hot dogs and hamburgers to all attendees. As part of the one year anniversary celebration, the Company invited local vegan companies (Sea Cider, Solfeggio, and Oat of the Ordinary) to hand out samples and discuss their product lines. PlantX employees and event attendees enjoyed live music by Street Car Alley, a band composed of locals from both Squamish and Vancouver.

"We are thrilled to celebrate the one-year anniversary of our Squamish location with partners like Future Farm. The event was a major success resulting in substantially increased business for our Squamish location on that date," said PlantX Founder, Sean Dollinger. "The Squamish location is home to The Locavore Bar & Grill, XMarket Squamish, and PlantX's West Coast warehouse / distribution center. With so many different verticals and revenue streams, this location is an integral part of the success we've seen over the first year."
