

INFORMATION CIRCULAR
FOR THE ANNUAL AND SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF MORGAN RESOURCES CORP.

(this information is given as of October 31, 2014)

1. SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

This Information Circular is provided in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of Morgan Resources Corp. (the "Corporation") for use at the Annual and Special Meeting of the Shareholders of the Corporation (the "Meeting"), to be held on December 4, 2014, at the place and time and for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Annual and Special Meeting of Shareholders (the "Notice of Meeting") and at any adjournment thereof. This solicitation is being made primarily by mail, but proxies may also be solicited by directors, officers or employees of the Corporation. The cost of the solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Corporation.

2. APPOINTMENT OF PROXYHOLDERS

The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy are directors and officers of the Corporation. A shareholder has the right to appoint a person other than the persons named in the enclosed forms of proxy to attend and vote for him or her at the Meeting. In order to do so, the shareholder may cross out the names printed in these forms of proxy and insert such person's name in the blank space provided thereon or complete another form of proxy. In either case, the duly completed forms of proxy must be delivered to the Corporation, c/o Computershare Investor Services Inc., 100 University Avenue, 9th floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1, facsimile: (416) 263-9524, not later than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays) prior to the commencement of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof or the Secretary of the Meeting, on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. It is not necessary to be a shareholder in order to act as a proxy.

3. REVOCATION OF PROXIES

A shareholder may revoke his proxy at any time, relating to any question for which the voting right granted by the proxy has not yet been exercised, by instrument in writing executed by the shareholder or by his attorney authorized in writing or, if the shareholder is a corporation, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized. Such revocation must be deposited with the Corporation, c/o Computershare Investor Services Inc., 100 University Avenue, 9th floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1, facsimile: (416) 263-9524, at any time up to an including the day preceding the day of the Meeting, or with the Chairman or Secretary of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting, or in any other manner permitted by law.

4. EXERCISE OF PROXY

The voting rights attached to the common shares in the capital of the Corporation (the "Common Shares") represented by proxies will be voted or withheld from voting in accordance with the instructions indicated therein. If no instructions are given, the voting rights attached to said Common Shares will be exercised by those persons designated in the form of proxy and will be voted IN FAVOUR of all the matters described therein.

The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary voting authority upon the persons named therein with respect to amendments to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting, and with respect to such matters as may properly come before the Meeting. As of the date hereof, management of the Corporation knows of no such amendments or other matters to come before the Meeting.

5. NON-REGISTERED HOLDERS

Only registered shareholders or duly appointed proxyholders are permitted to vote at the Meeting. Shareholders who do not hold their Common Shares in their own name (the "Beneficial Shareholders") are advised that only proxies from shareholders of record can be recognized and voted at the Meeting. Beneficial Shareholders who complete and return an instrument of proxy must indicate thereon the person (usually a brokerage house) who holds their Common Shares as a registered shareholder. Every intermediary (broker) has its own mailing procedure, and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed. The instrument of proxy supplied to Beneficial Shareholders is identical to that provided to registered shareholders. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered shareholder how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Shareholder.

If Common Shares are listed in an account statement provided to a shareholder by a broker, then in almost all cases those Common Shares will not be registered in such shareholder's name on the record of the Corporation. Such Common Shares will more likely be registered under the name of the shareholder's broker or an agent of that broker. In Canada, the vast majority of such Common Shares are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for the Canadian Depository for Securities, which company acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms). Common Shares held by brokers or their nominees can only be voted (for or against resolutions) upon the instructions of the Beneficial Shareholder. Without specific instructions, brokers/nominees are prohibited from voting shares for their clients. The directors and officers of the Corporation do not know for whose benefit the shares registered in the name of CDS & Co. are held.

Under National Instrument 54-101 – Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer, brokers and other intermediaries are required to request voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders prior to shareholder meetings. Brokers and other intermediaries have their own procedures and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Shareholders in order to ensure that their Common Shares are voted at the Meeting. In Canada, most brokers now delegate the responsibility of obtaining their clients’ instructions to Broadridge Investor Communications Inc. (“BIC”). Beneficial Shareholders who receive a voting instruction form from BIC may not use the said form to vote directly at the Meeting. If you have questions on how to exercise voting rights attached to shares held through a broker or other intermediary, please contact the broker or intermediary directly.

Although a Beneficial Shareholder will not be recognized at the Meeting for the purposes of directly exercising voting rights attached to shares registered in the name of his broker (or a representative thereof), he may attend the Meeting as proxy of the registered shareholder and, as such, exercise the voting rights attached to such shares.

Unless otherwise indicated in this Information Circular and in the form of proxy and Notice of Meeting attached hereto, shareholders shall mean registered shareholders.

6. INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS OR COMPANIES IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

Except as described elsewhere in this Information Circular, management of the Corporation is not aware of any material interest, direct or indirect, by way of beneficial ownership of securities or otherwise, of (a) any director or executive officer of the Corporation, (b) any proposed nominee for election as a director of the Corporation, and (c) any associates or affiliates of any of the persons or companies listed in (a) and (b), in any matter to be acted on at the Meeting.

7. VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS

As at the date hereof, the Corporation had 35,626,936 Common Shares outstanding, representing the Corporation’s only securities with respect to which a voting right may be exercised at the Meeting. Each Common Share carries the right to one vote at the Meeting. A quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting is two shareholders, or one or more proxyholders representing two shareholders, or one shareholder and a proxyholder representing another shareholder, holding or representing not less than five percent (5%) of the issued and outstanding Common Shares enjoying voting rights at the Meeting.

The record date to determine the shareholders’ eligibility to receive the Notice of Meeting and vote at the Meeting was fixed at October 31, 2014 (the “Record Date”).

(v) Advance Notice By-Law

Background

Effective October 31, 2014, the Board of Directors adopted By-Law No. 2 (a by-law relating to the nomination of directors) (the "Advance Notice By-Law"), a copy of which is attached to this Management Information Circular as Appendix B. In order for the Advance Notice By-Law to remain in effect following the conclusion of the Meeting, it must be ratified and approved by the shareholders at the Meeting.

Purpose of the Advance Notice By-Law

The Corporation's Board of Directors is committed to facilitating an orderly and efficient process for the nomination of directors at shareholder meetings and ensuring that all shareholders receive adequate notice of director nominations and sufficient information with respect to all nominees to register an informed vote.

The purpose of the Advance Notice By-Law is to provide shareholders, directors and management of the Corporation with a clear framework for nominating directors. The Advance Notice By-Law fixes a deadline prior to any shareholders' meeting called for the election of directors by which a registered shareholder may submit director nominations to the Corporation, and sets forth the information that the nominating shareholder must include in the notice to the Corporation in order for a nominee to be eligible for election.

Terms of the Advance Notice By-Law

Briefly, the Advance Notice By-Law:

- provides that advance notice to the Corporation must be given where nominations of persons for election to the board of directors are made by shareholders of the Corporation other than pursuant to: (i) a "proposal" made in accordance with section 99 of the Act; or (ii) a requisition made in accordance with section 105 of the Act;
- fixes a deadline by which a registered shareholder may submit director nominations to the Corporation prior to any annual or special general meeting and sets out the specific information that must be included in the written notice to the Corporation for an effective nomination to occur;
- provides that in the case of an annual meeting, notice to the Corporation must be given no fewer than 30 nor more than 65 days prior to the date of the meeting; provided that if the meeting is to be held on a date that is fewer than 50 days after the date on which the first public announcement of the date of the meeting was made, notice may be given no later than the close of business on the 10th day following such public announcement;
- provides that in the case of a special general meeting that is not also an annual meeting, notice to the Corporation must be made no later than the close of business on the 15th day following the day on which the first public announcement of the date of the special meeting was made; and
- provides that the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may waive any requirement of the Advance Notice By-Law.

Ratification & Approval of Advance Notice By-Law by Shareholders

If the Advance Notice By-Law is ratified and approved by the shareholders at the Meeting, it will be subject to an annual review by the Board of Directors, which will update it to reflect any changes required by securities regulatory authorities and applicable stock exchanges or as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors to be in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders.

If the Advance Notice By-Law is not ratified and approved at the Meeting, it will no longer be in effect after the conclusion of the Meeting.

Advance Notice By-Law Resolution

At the Meeting, the shareholders will be asked to approve the following ordinary resolution: "RESOLVED, as an ordinary resolution of the shareholders of the Corporation, that:

- 1 the Corporation's By-Law No. 2 (the "Advance Notice By-Law"), a copy of which is attached as Appendix B to the Management Information Circular of the Corporation dated October 31, 2014, be and is hereby ratified and approved;
- 2 the board of directors of the Corporation be and is authorized in its absolute discretion to administer the Advance Notice By-Law and to amend or modify the Advance Notice ByLaw to the extent needed to reflect changes required by securities regulatory authorities and applicable stock exchanges, or as otherwise determined to be in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders; and
- 3 any one director or officer of the Corporation be and is hereby authorized and directed to do all such acts and things and to execute and deliver all such documents, instruments and assurances as in the opinion of such director or officer may be necessary or desirable to give effect to the foregoing resolutions."

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote for the adoption of the resolution. In order to be effective, the resolution must be approved by one-half of the votes cast at the Meeting in respect of such resolution. Proxies received in favour of Management will be voted for the approval of the Ordinary Resolution approving the Consolidation, unless the shareholder has specified in the proxy that his or her common shares are to be voted against such resolution.

9. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE DISCLOSURE

Set forth below is a description of the Corporation's current corporate governance practices, as prescribed by Form 58-101F2, which is attached to National Instrument 58-101 – Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices ("NI 58-101"):

Board of Directors

The directors have determined that Richard Rogers and Phil Kelly, current members of the board of directors of the Corporation, are independent as such term is defined in NI 58-101, and that Raniero Corsini (CEO of the Corporation), Raymond Mongeau (10% shareholder of the Corporation) and Carl DiPlacido (10% shareholder of the Corporation), current members of the board of directors of the Corporation, are not independent as such term is defined in NI 58-101.

Directorships

None of the directors of the Corporation are presently directors of other issuers that are reporting issuers (or the equivalent).

Orientation and Continuing Education

While the Corporation does not currently have a formal orientation and education program for new members of the board of directors, the Corporation provides such orientation and education on an ad hoc and informal basis. The directors believe that these procedures are a practical and effective approach in light of the Corporation's particular circumstances, including the size of the Corporation, the number, experience and expertise of its directors.

Ethical Business Conduct

The directors' maintain that the Corporation must conduct and be seen to conduct its business dealings in accordance with all applicable laws and the highest ethical standards. The Corporation's reputation for honesty and integrity amongst its shareholders and other stakeholders is key to the success of its business. No employee or director will be permitted to achieve results through violation of laws or regulations, or through unscrupulous dealings.

Any director with a conflict of interest or who is capable of being perceived as being in conflict of interest with respect to the Corporation must abstain from discussion and voting by the board of directors or any committee of the board of directors on any motion to recommend or approve the relevant agreement or transaction. The board of directors must comply with conflict of interest provisions of the OBCA.

Nomination of Directors

Both the directors and management are responsible for selecting nominees for election to the board of directors. At present, there is no formal process established to identify new candidates for nomination. The board of directors and management determine the requirements for skills and experience needed on the board of directors from time to time. The present board of directors and management expect that new nominees have a track record in general business management, special expertise in an area of strategic interest to the Corporation, the ability to devote the time required, support for the Corporation's business objectives and a willingness to serve.

Compensation

At present, no compensation (other than the grant of incentive stock options) is paid to the directors of the Corporation in their capacity as directors. The Compensation Committee consists of Rick Rogers, Phil Kelly and Carl DiPlacido.

Assessments

The directors' believe that nomination to the Corporation's board of directors is not open ended and that directorships should be reviewed carefully for alignment with the strategic needs of the Corporation. To this extent, the directors constantly review (i) individual director performance and the performance of the board of directors as a whole, including processes and effectiveness; and (ii) the performance of the Chairman, if any, of the board of directors.

10. AUDIT COMMITTEE

National Instrument 52-110 – Audit Committees (“NI 52-110”) requires the Corporation, as a venture issuer, to disclose annually in its Information Circular certain information concerning the constitution of its Audit Committee and its relationship with its independent auditor.

Audit Committee Charter

The Corporation's Audit Committee is governed by an audit committee charter that was established by the directors of the Corporation on October 25, 2011, a copy of which is attached hereto as Schedule “A”.

Composition of Audit Committee

The Corporation’s Audit Committee is currently comprised of the three (3) directors of the Corporation, Richard Rogers, Phil Kelly and Raniero Corsini. Each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate, as such term is defined in NI 52-110, and two of the members, Richard Rogers and Phil Kelly, are independent, as such term is defined in NI 52-110 and in the OBCA.

External Auditor Matters

Since the commencement of the Corporation’s most recently completed financial year, the Corporation’s directors have not failed to adopt a recommendation of the Audit Committee to nominate or compensate an external auditor and the Corporation has not relied on the exemptions contained in sections 2.4 or 8 of NI 52-110. Section 2.4 provides an exemption from the requirement that the Audit Committee must pre-approve all non-audit services to be provided by the auditor, where the total amount of fees related to the non-audit services are not expected to exceed 5% of the total fees payable to the auditor in the financial year in which the non-audit services were provided. Part 8 permits a company to apply to a securities regulatory authority for an exemption from the requirements of NI 52-110, in whole or in part.

The Audit Committee has not adopted specific policies and procedures for the engagement of non-audit services. Subject to the requirements of NI 52-110, the engagement of non-audit services is considered by the Corporation's directors and, where applicable, the Audit Committee, on a case-by-case basis.

In the following table, “Audit fees” are fees billed by the Corporation’s external auditor for services provided in auditing the Corporation’s annual financial statements for the subject year. “Audit-related fees” are fees not included in audit fees that are billed by the auditor for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Corporation’s financial statements. “Tax fees” are fees billed by the auditor for professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. “All other fees” are fees billed by the auditor for products and services not included in the foregoing categories.

The fees paid by the Corporation to its auditor in its only financial year-end, by category, are as follows:

Financial Year Ending	Audit Fees	Audit-Related Fees	Tax Fees	All Other Fees
August 31, 2014	-	-	1,483	-
August 31, 2013	17,798	5,339	-	-

Exemptions:

The Corporation is a “venture issuer” as defined in NI 52-110 and is relying on the exemption contained in Section 6.1 of NI 52-110, which exempts the Corporation from the requirements of Part 3 (Composition of the Audit Committee) and Part 5 (Reporting Obligations) of NI 52-110.
