TORONTO, March 6, 2019 /CNW/ - High Hampton Holdings Corp. (CSE: HC) (FSE: 0HCN) ("High Hampton" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that Dieter MacPherson, the current Senior Vice President, Operations, at Aurora Cannabis Inc. (ACB-TSX), has been appointed as an independent member to its board of directors. The appointment further extends the Company's expertise in the cannabis industry and supports High Hampton's aggressive expansion in the California cannabis market.

Gary Latham, CEO of High Hampton, commented:

"We extend a warm welcome to Mr. MacPherson and recognize that he will be a significant asset to our Company. Together with the latest appointment of Cam Birge, the High Hampton board of directors has, once again, gained in strength and expertise and is now perfectly equipped to guide the Company through this important growth phase."

Dieter MacPherson, member of the board, added:

"I am happy to join High Hampton's board as an independent member and look forward to working closely with management and the team. The Company's recent shift in focus to be a vertical integrator in the California cannabis space is rooted in the executive team's bold foresight in navigating this burgeoning market, and I am eager to contribute to High Hampton's success story."

About Dieter MacPherson

Mr. MacPherson has approximately 10 years of experience as an advocate for sensible regulations and fair access to medical cannabis, contributing to the development of municipal regulations while working with industry associations, and presenting and speaking across the country on the evolution of cannabis policy and regulation. Since joining Aurora Cannabis Inc. in February, 2017 as Manager of Production, Mr. MacPherson has been in charge of planning, development and implementation of processes and procedures to increase productivity, create efficiencies and improve profitability. He has overseen a consistent enhancement in crop yields and overall production, while also playing a key role in facility design and workflow for Aurora Sky and the Company's Pointe-Claire, Quebec production facility. As Vice President Production, he has been responsible for strategic development and direct management for all Aurora cannabis production facilities.
