IWS Announces Partnership with Prospect Silicon Valley

VANCOUVER, B.C., February 7, 2017 – International Wastewater Systems Inc. (the “Company”) (CSE: IWS) (IWLF) (OTC: INTWF) is pleased to announce a partnership with Prospect Silicon Valley, a California-based urban technology accelerator (“Prospect Silicon Valley”).

Prospect Silicon Valley focuses on the commercialization of urban technologies for sustainable, smart cities. They bring government, corporations and academia together with pioneering companies to accelerate innovations in transportation, energy and buildings.

Multi-partner projects are developed by Prospect Silicon Valley to bring next-generation approaches to the fore, and to assist early adopters in public sector applications. Prospect Silicon Valley has worked successfully with local governments in California to pilot advanced urban technologies, resulting in over 150 million lbs. of CO2 reductions committed over the next ten years.

Through this partnership, IWS will have access to Prospect Silicon Valley’s network of property owners, trade groups and strategic partners in the California buildings sector. IWS will work jointly with Prospect Silicon Valley in the planning and execution of the Company’s commercialization strategy, targeting early adopters of IWS’s wastewater heat exchange technology in the California market.

Director Resignation

The Company further announces that John Williams has resigned from the Company’s Board of Directors for personal reasons. Mr. Williams will remain an advisor to IWS.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD

“Lynn Mueller”
