ZARA RESPONDS TO VISIBLE PRESS RELEASE

Toronto, Ontario, June 11, 2013 - Zara Resources Inc. (CNSX: ZRI) ("Zara") announces its response to the press release made yesterday by the Directors of Visible Gold Mines Inc. (TSXV: VGD) ("Visible") which advised Visible shareholders to take no action in respect of the offer made by Zara to purchase shares of Visible (the "Offer"). The Visible press release does not address the main point that should concern all Visible shareholders, namely the 96% decline since October 2010 in the value of Visible shares. The management and directors of Visible have to take responsibility for this dismal performance.

The Visible press release states that Zara wants to acquire Visible shares in order to exercise influence over Visible. Certainly that is Zara's intention, and together with other shareholders Zara will act to replace the current directors and management in order to increase Visible shareholder value to the benefit of all the Visible shareholders.

Despite efforts to make contact with the Visible Board of Directors, Zara has received no reply to its email and fax communications seeking discussions. This leaves Zara with no alternative but to proceed with calling for a special meeting of shareholders to replace the current Visible Board of Directors, which it now intends to do.

Danny Wetteich, the CEO of Zara commented, "The Zara Offer represents a 125% premium to the price of Visible shares prior to the Offer. Long suffering Visible shareholders who have lost nearly all of their investment over the last few years, have witnessed millions of dollars being spent by the current Visible directors on unproductive expenditures. Visible shareholders will now be given an opportunity to replace the current Visible directors with Zara's nominees. To improve the value of their investment, Visible shareholders should either tender their shares to Zara or support Zara's nominees for the proposed new board of directors."

Zara has established a website at www.ZaraVisibleSupportTheNewBoard.com which has information on the proposed new Visible board of directors, the reasons why shareholders of Visible should support the new board, a video presentation of the Offer and full Offer documentation.
