Correction from source-GreenBank to apply for Exempt Market Dealer License

Appoints new Officer and new Director and Grants Stock Options

Toronto, Ontario, May 28, 2014 - GreenBank Capital Inc (CSE: GBC) ("GreenBank") announces that it will apply for an Exempt Market Dealer License so that it can commence investment banking transactions. The license application will be made to the Ontario Securities Commission and there is no assurance that such a license will be granted.

“Becoming a registered exempt market securities dealer will enable GreenBank to be a dealer or underwriter for any securities which are prospectus exempt, and to be a dealer for any securities provided they are sold to clients who qualify for the purchase of exempt securities. “ said Danny Wettreich, CEO of GreenBank.

In furtherance of the license application, Paul Cullingham, currently an independent director of GreenBank, has been appointed a Vice President of the Company. Mr Cullingham has been a licensed investment professional for over 25 years and will be the Chief Compliance Officer for the investment banking activities of GreenBank.

GreenBank is pleased to announce that Ryan Hunter has been appointed an independent director and member of the Audit Committee of the Company. Mr Hunter is a securities and corporate finance attorney with Chitiz Pathak LLP in Toronto. GreenBank has agreed to grant Mr. Hunter 60,000 incentive stock options exercisable at a price of $0.11 per share for 24 months from the date of grant.
