GREENBANK AFFILIATE INSIDE BAY STREET
CLOSES $134,525 FUNDING AND DEBT SETTLEMENT

Toronto, Ontario, November 30, 2017 – GreenBank Capital Inc (CSE: GBC and OTCMKTS: GRNBF) ("GreenBank or the Company") announces that its affiliate portfolio company Inside Bay Street Corporation ("Inside Bay Street"), a financial news communications company, has closed its previously announced private placement and debt settlement in the amount of $134,525. GreenBank participated in the private placement and maintains its 19% equity ownership of Inside Bay Street.

GreenBank subscribed $41,000 in the Inside Bay Street private placement payable by the issuance of 41,000 $1 Non-Voting 5% Preference Shares Series D. GreenBank director and CEO Daniel Wettreich, who is also a director of Inside Bay Street, invested $20,000 in the Inside Bay Street offering. In addition, Inside Bay Street settled $73,525 consulting fees due to a company affiliated with Daniel Wettreich, by the issuance of Inside Bay Street common shares. Upon closing, and including the shares owned by GreenBank of which Daniel Wettreich is deemed to be the controlling shareholder, Daniel Wettreich will own directly and indirectly a 60% ownership position in Inside Bay Street. Inside Bay Street will use the proceeds of the funding for marketing, debt repayment, and working capital.

Inside Bay Street is in the process of modifying and upgrading the Inside Bay Street website to add features that will enhance the portal to attract a larger user base of investors and small cap growth companies. Using independent information, Inside Bay Street will offer dissemination of company news by way of press releases, research reports and commentary distributed to brokers, investment dealers, and investors. It will also provide exposure to small cap companies in its Featured Companies section. The website will re-launch in the near future.

The participation by Daniel Wettreich and Paul Cullingham, directors of the Company and Inside Bay Street, in this transaction is considered to be a related party transaction as defined in Multilateral Instrument 61-101 - Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions ("MI 61-101"). A special committee established by the board of directors and consisting of an independent director determined that the related party transaction is fair and reasonable in the circumstances to the Company. Neither the Company nor the related party has knowledge of any material information concerning the Company or its securities that has not been generally disclosed. The transaction will not have an effect on the direct or indirect voting interests of the related party. The process of approving the transaction involved the appointment of a special committee, the approval of the transaction by the special committee, the consideration of the transaction by the directors with Daniel Wettreich and Paul Cullingham disclosing their interest, and the unanimous approval of the transaction by the directors. The special committee was comprised of one director who is independent within the meaning of MI 61-101. There are four directors who are independent within the meaning of MI 61-101. The Company has relied on sections 5.5(b) of MI 61-101 for an exemption from the formal valuation requirement, and section 5.7(a) of MI 61-101 for an exemption from the minority shareholder approval requirements. A material change report in respect of the related party transaction was filed at least 21 days in advance of the closing of the Agreement.
