GREENBANK TO UPDATE BLOCKCHAIN PROJECTS AT WCIT|NASSCOM

Toronto, Ontario, January 8, 2018 – GreenBank Capital Inc. (CSE: GBC and OTCMKTS: GRNBF) ("GreenBank or the Company") announces that Daniel Wettreich, its CEO, will be a speaker at WCIT India 2018|NASSCOM ILF 2018, expected to be the largest technology conference in Asia. Daniel Wettreich was invited to discuss the impact of blockchain in the digital age, and will also provide an update on GreenBank's two blockchain portfolio companies, Blockchain Evolution Inc and Medi-Data Blockchain Inc.

Blockchain Evolution Inc has recently successfully completed the cloning of its EvolveChain identification based blockchain, which is a critical component in the commercialization of the EvolveChain blockchain. The Blockchain Evolution software team can now create multiple versions of the EvolveChain blockchain, each of which can be modified for specific targeted commercial and governmental uses. The primary differentiation between EvolveChain and other blockchains is that EvolveChain is based on user identification.

Medi-Data Blockchain Inc will utilize EvolveChain to create a custom designed blockchain solution providing medical confidentiality systems for the healthcare community. GreenBank management believes that recording and storing patient data on an identification based blockchain represents the future of healthcare recordkeeping, as it will maintain confidential data in a secure and low-cost environment in compliance with privacy standards.

At the conference, Daniel Wettreich, CEO of GreenBank, will be joined by other distinguished speakers such as Shantanu Narayen, CEO, Adobe Systems; Edward L. Monser, President, Emerson Electric Group; David Cote, Executive Chairman, Honeywell; and Edward Jung, CEO, Xinoa.

The National Association of Software and Services Companies ("NASSCOM") which represents 95% of the $154 billion Indian IT industry, along with the global IT body World Information Technology & Services Alliance ("WITSA") and the Government of Telangana, India, are hosting The World Congress on Information Technology ("WCIT"). WCIT, a premier international IT forum which brings together 2,500 industry leaders, government officials and academicians from 80 countries, will be held in India for the first time. From 19th – 21st February 2018, NASSCOM India Leadership Forum ("NILF") will be held along with the WCIT in Hyderabad, India. NILF is NASSCOM's flagship event which is a congregation of top global leaders to deliberate on the latest IT trends and opportunities impacting industries across sectors.
