Toronto, Ontario, September 18, 2018 – GreenBank Capital Inc. (CSE: GBC and OTCMKTS: GRNBF and FRA; 2TL) ("GreenBank or the Company") announces with great sadness that Danny Wettreich, Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of GreenBank Capital, died on Saturday 15th September in Dallas, Texas, due to unexpectedly severe complications from a recent heart attack.

Mark Wettreich has been elected as the Chairman of the Board and David Lonsdale will act as the interim CEO, supported by the remaining members of the board. David Lonsdale is a seasoned executive having built four technology companies including selling one of them to Microsoft.

“Danny Wettreich was a visionary banker and an entrepreneur at heart. He was an amazing human being with boundless energy, unmatched work ethic and an exceptional talent for creating possibilities.

With GreenBank, he identified a compelling business model and a repeatable strategy that has already borne fruit. He leaves behind a company with a strong foundation, a template for success, and a clear roadmap for us to execute on. We look forward to doing just that as we continue to build value for GreenBank shareholders" Chairman of the Board Mark Wettreich said.

Last week GreenBank Capital took public its first portfolio company, Ubique Minerals (CSE:UBQ) and has commenced its 2018 drilling program. The GreenBank Capital board and the management teams of the 16 portfolio companies continue to execute on our business model.
