GLOBAL HEALTH CLINICS COMMITS TO EXPAND CLINIC EXPANSION, THROUGH BUILDING AND ACQUISITION PROGRAM ACROSS CANADA

October 4, 2018 - Global Health Clinics Ltd. (the "Company") (CSE: MJRX) (Frankfurt: L002) and its subsidiary Medicinal Cannabis Resource Center (MCRCI) is pleased to announce it has committed to expanding the Company's clinic outreach initiative through a series of acquisitions and openings nationally. The initiative program provides primary cannabis health care and outreach, targeting areas of Canadians that do not have readily accessible cannabis or cannabis information. Once fully operational, the program will be able to provide thousands of Canadians annually with information and their ACMPR licence, linking them with one of Health Canada's licensed producers.

Currently targeted are clinics in British Columbia and Alberta, these partner-operated clinics act as a vital link between the communities in which they operate and the local health authority by facilitating better cannabis care and information for potential patients. Further these clinics will further help the pavilion arm of the company expand its out reach to more rural areas broadening the outreach of Global Health Clinics.

"At Global Health Clinics, a cornerstone of our beliefs is that all Canadians should have access to medicinal cannabis as well as recreational. By facilitating better health outcomes for our fellow Canadians, we will continue to be a key component of the rapid growth cannabis sector. As we have seen in developed markets like Washington and Colorado the medicinal market is extremely lively and active accounting for a large portion of overall cannabis purchases" states Terry Roycoft.
