

Blueberries Announces DTC Eligibility of its Common Shares in the United States

TORONTO, July 04, 2019 -- Blueberries Medical Corp. (CSE: BBM) (OTCQB: BBRRF) (FRA: 10A) ("Blueberries" or the "Company"), a leading Latin American licensed producer of medicinal cannabis and cannabis-derived products, is pleased to announce that the Company's common shares, traded in the United States under the symbol BBRRF, are now eligible for electronic clearing and settlement through the Depository Trust Company in the United States.

Dr. Patricio Stocker, CEO of Blueberries commented: "DTC eligibility will allow current and prospective Blueberries shareholders more reliable, cost-efficient, and timely clearing and settlement for our common shares. This is a key milestone towards increasing our market presence in the United States and engaging with shareholders."

The Depository Trust Company (DTC) is a subsidiary of the Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation and manages the electronic clearing and settlement of publicly traded companies. Trading of securities through DTC allows for cost-effective clearing and secure settlement, in turn simplifying and accelerating the settlement process for investors.

DTC is a member of the U.S. Federal Reserve System, a limited-purpose trust company under New York State banking law, and a registered clearing agency with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
