

ORCA TOUCHSCREEN ANNOUNCES FURTHER LOAN FOR ROYALTY PAYMENTS & GUATEMALA SMARTPHONE PROJECT

Vancouver, BC, October 15, 2014 – Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd. (the “Company”) is pleased to announce that further to its news release dated October 2, 2014, it has negotiated a further loan in the principal amount of USD $42,000, equivalent to approximately CAD $47,500 (the “Loan”) from a director of the Company (the “Director”).

Of the total USD $42,000 proceeds of the Loan, the Company shall pay USD $30,000 (equivalent to approximately CAD $33,899) to the benefit of Sollensys Corp. as advance royalty payments at the rate of CAD $4,000 monthly pursuant to the license agreement dated May 20, 2014 regarding the Company’s intellectual property, and the remaining USD $12,000 for the costs of incorporating a Guatemala joint venture company and, further, establishing a smartphone assembly factory in Guatemala (together, the “Project”).

The Project was originally announced in a news release dated July 18, 2014, and a definitive agreement is being developed to follow the letter of intent for the Project announced in a news release dated October 2, 2014.

The term of the Loan is 3 months from the date of advancement of funds with interest accruing at a rate of 8% per annum. At the end of the term of the Loan, the Company is to pay the Director the principal amount plus interest thereon, associated bank transfer charges, and currency exchange fees relating to converting funds from Korean won to U.S. dollars.

As the fair market value of the Loan transaction represents less than 25 percent of the Company’s market capitalization, minority share approval of the Loan transaction is not required pursuant to an exemption available under section 5.7(1)(a) of Multilateral Instrument 61-101 Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions.

The Loan carries no equity compensation component.
