Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this offering memorandum, including the attached financial statements, that are not historical may be considered “forward looking statements” and are prospective. These forward looking statements sometimes include words to the effect that the Corporation or its management believe, expect or intend a stated condition or result. All estimates and all statements that describe the Corporation’s objectives, goals, or future plans are forward looking statements. Since forward looking statements address future events and conditions, by their very nature, they involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those currently anticipated in such statements due to any number of factors, including, but not limited to, fluctuations in interest rates, political and economic conditions, industry competition and the Corporation’s ability to attract and retain key personnel. The Corporation does not undertake to review or update these forward looking statements. See Item 8 Risk Factors.

(1) Each is (or will be) a related party to the Corporation as either a director, senior officer or principal shareholders thereof, or of Orca Mobile.

(2) Sollensys is a related party as one of its senior officers, directors and principal shareholders is GwanJe Woo, who is also a senior officer and a principal shareholder of the Corporation, and a senior officer of Orca Mobile.

1.3 Reallocation

The Corporation intends to spend the available funds as stated. It will reallocate funds only for sound business reasons and in keeping with its long-term and short-term objectives as stated in sections 2.4 and 2.5, respectively, of this Offering Memorandum.

Item 2. Business of the Corporation

2.1 Structure

The Corporation is a reporting issuer and a publicly-held company that was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on December 31, 2013. The Corporation fiscal year end is December 31.

By a Plan of Arrangement dated March 6, 2014, the Corporation acquired its wholly-owned subsidiary, Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd. ("Orca Mobile"), a private company incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on December 17, 2013.

Plan of Arrangement

Pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement entered into on January 6, 2014 with Pubco and Orca Mobile, on March 6, 2014 the Corporation completed a statutory Plan of Arrangement comprised of the following principal steps:

- a) Orca Mobile acquired all 10,000 issued and outstanding common shares of the Corporation from Pubco (the "Purchase Shares") for $10,000;
- b) Orca Mobile and the Corporation exchanged securities on 1:1 basis, such that 8,010,000 common shares of Orca Mobile were exchanged by their holders for 8,010,000 common shares of the Corporation;
- c) Pubco and the Corporation exchanged securities on a 1:1000 basis, such that Pubco issued 4 Pubco common shares to the Corporation which, in turn, issued 4,000 common shares of the Corporation to Pubco (collectively, the "Exchange Shares"); and
- d) the Purchase Shares and the Exchange Shares were then cancelled.

On closing of the Arrangement, the Corporation became a reporting issuer in Alberta and British Columbia, and Orca Mobile became the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Corporation.

PRE-ARRANGEMENT STRUCTURE

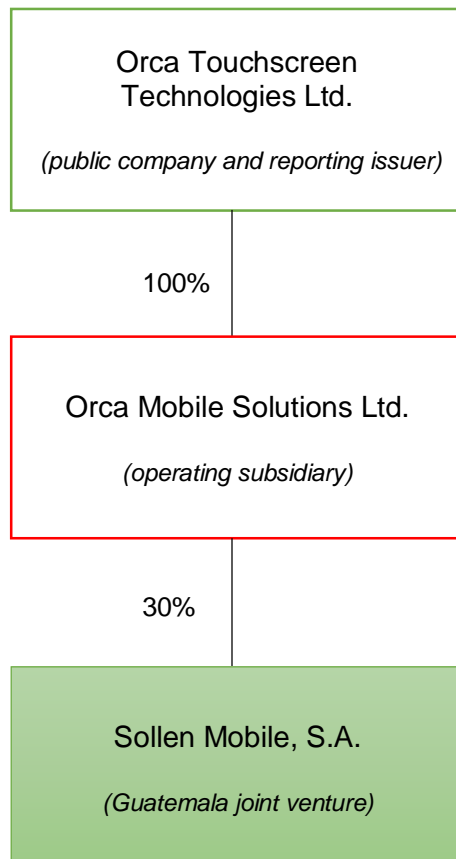

POST ARRANGEMENT STRUCTURE

On February 11, 2016, the Corporation acquired a 30% equity interest in Sollen Guatemala, a joint venture company which operates a smartphone assembly factory. See Item 2.2 The Business— Guatemala Joint Venture.

As at the date of this Offering Memorandum, the Corporation's current corporate structure is represented by the following chart:

CURRENT CORPORATE STRUCTURE

2.2 The Business

The business of the Corporation is the production and sale of touchscreen devices for the Internet of Things.

The Internet of Things (“IoT”) is the network of physical objects or ‘things’ embedded with electronics, software, sensors and connectivity which allow the exchange of data among the user, manufacturer, and other connected devices. Each thing is uniquely identifiable through its embedded computing system, but is able to interoperate within the existing internet infrastructure. The interconnection of these embedded devices (including ‘smart’ things), is expected to usher in automation in nearly all fields. ‘Things’ in the IoT can refer to a wide variety of devices such as smartphones with healthcare monitoring apps, tablets with links to libraries and educational sites, retail signs with touch links to maps and merchandise descriptions, automobiles with built-in sensors and GPS navigation, and CCTV surveillance systems that manage inventory.

According to a June 2014 article at ZDNet.com, International Data Corporation (“IDC”), an information technology research agency, expects the global Internet of Things to be a USD $7.1 trillion market by 2020, as people around the world, and particularly in developed nations develop an affinity for full-time connectivity.

The Corporation plans to participate in the Internet of Things by partnering with other companies to assemble, distribute, sell, service and refurbish smartphones and tablets.

Products

The Corporation’s products are those produced by joint venture companies in which Orca Mobile, the wholly-owned operating subsidiary of the Corporation, shall acquire an interest.

The current product portfolio consists of smartphones, to be followed by tablets. The Corporation may add other touchscreen-enabled ‘smart’ devices to its product portfolio, such as CCTV surveillance equipment which can be monitored by smartphones. The exact nature of these further devices will be determined by the Corporation based on such factors as consumer demand, profit margins, production efficiencies and marketing synergies.

The Corporation produces new smartphones and plans to produce new tablets. In addition to producing new devices, the Corporation plans to provide used smartphones and tablets to its joint venture companies for refurbishment to near-new condition and subsequent distribution, sale and service. Currently, smartphones are being produced by Sollen-Mobile, S.A. ("Sollen Guatemala"), a Guatemalan company for which the Corporation has advanced funds and equipment to acquire an approximate 30% joint venture interest. In July 2015, Sollen Guatemala began producing the first of its "Sollen Mobile" branded smartphones. (For particulars, see Item 2.2 The Business - Guatemala Joint Venture).

At the Sollen Guatemala factory, the first "Sollen Mobile" product being assembled there is a 5" smartphone called the "Lucid SP-50".

Specifications for the SOLLEN MOBILE "Lucid SP-50" smartphone are as follows:

- MT6582M@1.3GHz*4 (Quad Core Processor)
- OS-Android 4.4
- Bands: GSM850/900/1800/1900 MHz, WCDMA: 850/1900&900/2100 MHz
- SIM-Card-2Sim-Card 2 standby
- T-Card-1 T Card slot
- Product Dimensions: 143.6x71.5x8.3mm
- LCM-5" IPS HD(1280X720)

- G+F+F CTP: Capacitive touch,5-point
- Battery: 2000mAh
- Memory: 1GB+8GB
- Camera: 8M back(BSI); Camera: 2M front; Camera flash light: Yes
- Speaker: 1813box
- WIFI/GPS/BT/FM: Yes
- G-sensor: yes; Proximity-sensor: yes; Light-sensor: yes
- USB I/O DC Jack: Micro 5Pin
- Audio Jack: 3.5mm phone jack

As at the date of this Offering Memorandum, approximately 5,000 units of the Lucid SP-50 smartphone have been produced by Sollen Guatemala, and the Corporation is negotiating with prospective partners to establish factories for the SKD assembly of touchscreen devices in developing countries elsewhere in the world.

Services

The Corporation also offers expertise, advisory services and in-person training to prospective clients and partners around the globe, regarding all aspects of touchscreen technology used in smartphone and tablet manufacture, including.

- manufacturing processes, facility layout and component sourcing
- equipment testing
- cleanroom set-up and ongoing maintenance
- production efficiencies (Lean/JIT/Six Sigma techniques)

(collectively, the "Services"). Currently, the Services offered by the Corporation are performed primarily by its CEO, GwanJe Woo. As at the date of this Offering Memorandum, the Corporation has yet to earn any revenue from the direct sale of the Services on a strictly consulting basis, however, the Corporation has and continues to contribute the Services to Sollen Guatemala and the Corporation proposes to contribute the Services to its proposed SKD projects.

Production Strategy

Using Sollen Guatemala as a template for an SKD assembly factory, the Corporation through its subsidiary, Orca Mobile, proposes to establish further SKD projects in Central America, South America and Southeast Asia.

The Corporation proposes to be involved with such SKD partners in all facets of smartphone and tablet production, sales and service. For the benefit of its SKD partners, the Corporation will:

- design, finance, construct and equip a factory to assemble, service and refurbish devices
- design production lines for the factory
- consult on procuring electronic components for assembly into products
- consult on all aspects of product design and production
- consult on marketing and distributing the finished devices to local markets and global markets
- consult on after-sales service for products
- consult on obtaining bulk quantities of used smartphones and tablets from suppliers for refurbishment
- offer training on refurbishing used smartphones and tablets to near-new condition
- design apps to be embedded in the smartphones, tablets and other devices assembled by the partners

Market

According to a September 15, 2013 report prepared by IDC, 87% of connected device sales by 2017 will be smartphones and tablets, and specifically:

- IDC believed that tablets would outsell desktop and laptop personal computers (each, a “PC”) starting in Q4 2013. IDC also estimates that tablet sales will surpass PC sales on an annual basis by 2015.
- IDC is predicting the worldwide smart connected device market will increase above 2 billion units by the end of 2015, attaining a market value of $735.1 billion. The total number of PCs will drop from 28.7% in 2013 to 13% in 2017. Tablets will increase from 11.8% in 2013 to 16.5% by 2017, and smartphones will increase from 59.5% to 70.5%. The following chart shows the distribution of forecasted sales by platform.

[Source: MarketingUnwired.com 16Sep2013]

- By 2017, IDC believes that 87% of the worldwide smart connected device market will be tablets and smartphone, with PCs (both desktop and laptop) being 13% of the market as shown in the table below:

Marketing Strategy

(a) Products

Each joint venture company in which the Corporation has an interest will be responsible for marketing the smartphones, tablets and other devices that such joint venture company assembles or refurbishes. Initially, the primary markets include telecommunications providers, smartphone distributors and retailers, the financial industry and schools.

Initial Smartphone & Tablet Markets

On July 16, 2014, the Corporation entered into discussions with Solucel, S.A. (“Solucel”) regarding the production in Guatemala and sale throughout Central America of touchscreen devices. Since that time, the Corporation has, in its capacity as a joint venture partner in Sollen Guatemala, continued to meet periodically with Solucel to discuss distribution plans and strategy as to the products assembled and refurbished by Sollen Guatemala. As at the date of this Offering Memorandum, Sollen Guatemala has taken over the negotiations to develop an agreement with Solucel for distribution of Sollen Guatemala’s products in Guatemala and Central America.

(b) SKD Business Model

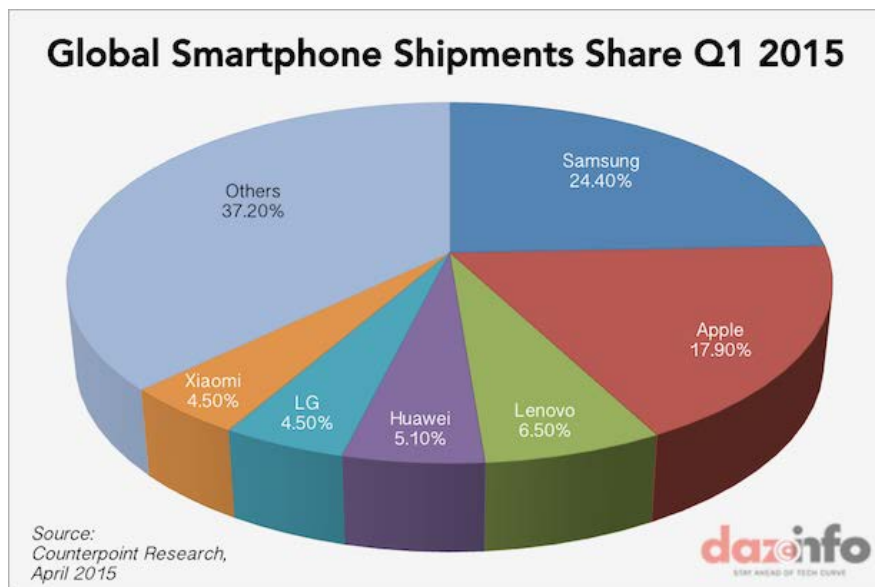

The Corporation, through its wholly-owned operating subsidiary, Orca Mobile, is marketing its SKD assembly business model throughout the world. As a result of the progress on the Guatemala Joint Venture, Orca Mobile has received inquiries from and is currently negotiating with prospective partners in Southeast Asia and elsewhere in the world to establish factories in those countries to assemble new smartphones and tablets, refurbish used smartphones and tablets, and provide after-sales service for these devices. Orca Mobile will work with its future partners to produce smartphones, tablets and other touchscreen devices using the Semi Knock Down (“SKD”) method. An SKD is a partially assembled kit of components which requires final assembly to create the finished product. During the proposed SKD projects, components will be imported by the SKD partner into the partner country for assembly into devices for sale and distribution. Each joint venture company will market and distribute its products primarily within their local national market and secondarily in other countries.

The advantages of SKD projects over conventional production include savings on import duties, savings on taxes, and the goodwill of the partner countries. The Corporation’s SKD projects will help partner countries to substitute locally-assembled products for the completely-finished products they currently import, and to provide jobs and develop highly-skilled workforces. Orca Mobile will provide touchscreen system engineers onsite at partner factories to pass on their know-how regarding all facets of SKD assembly production.

Beginning in Guatemala, Orca Mobile has targeted SKD partners in developing countries where: (a) 3G telecommunication services have only recently become available; (b) where the average distribution rate of smartphone users is low, generally below 20% of the population; and (c) where distribution rates are expected to rise to over 80% during the next 3 years.

Competition

In the smartphone market, the Corporation’s joint venture interests will face competition from companies such as Apple, Huawei, Lenovo, LG, Samsung, Xiaomi and others.

In the tablet market, the Corporation’s joint venture interests will face competition from companies such as Acer, Apple, Asus, Lenovo, LG, Samsung and others.

Intellectual Property

As of the date of this Offering Memorandum, the Corporation has not itself applied for any patents, trademarks or other intellectual property rights, and has no plans to apply for any patents in the near future.

As at the date of this Offering Memorandum and under the Guatemala Joint Venture Agreement, Sollen Guatemala has been authorized to register in Guatemala and to use in the Guatemala Territory the trademark shown on the left (the “Sollen Trademark”) and the related tradenames “Lucid”, “Sollen”, “Sollen Mobile” (collectively, the “Sollen Tradenames”) for the purpose of branding its products.

The Corporation, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Orca Mobile, acquired intellectual property relating to touchscreen technology from a Korean company, Sollensys Corp. (“Sollensys”) pursuant to: (a) the Asset Agreement governing patents; and (b) the License Agreement governing a license to use technology and patents. From 2010 to May 2014, Sollensys had spent over $5,000,000 developing its touchscreen technology and manufacturing facilities. Sollensys is incorporated in Korea with headquarters in Gwang-Ju City, Korea. Sollensys is a related party to the Corporation in that one of its senior officers, directors and principal shareholders is GwanJe Woo, who is also CEO and a principal shareholder of the Corporation and CEO of Orca Mobile. Prior to May 12, 2014, Sollensys held 19 unique technology patents, of which:

- one Sollensys patent (an apparatus for folding and laminating sensor panels to create touchscreens) was acquired by the Corporation’s subsidiary Orca Mobile on May 12, 2014 (see “Asset Agreement” below); and
- 18 other patents covering various aspects of touchscreen technology (including multi-gesture functionality, stylus designs, manufacturing processes and Sollensys’ unique technology for interfacing with the human hand), were licensed to the Corporation’s subsidiary, Orca Mobile, on May 12, 2014 (see “License Agreement” below).

(a) Asset Agreement

The Corporation, through its operating subsidiary, Orca Mobile, entered into an asset agreement dated May 12, 2014 with Sollensys (the “Asset Agreement”). Under the Asset Agreement, Orca Mobile acquired the Invention (defined below) and the Purchased Patent (defined below) from Sollensys for $50,000 cash, which has been paid. The asset consists of a folding laminating apparatus for producing touchscreens (the “Invention”), for which a patent was registered in the Korean Intellectual Property Office under registration number 1013788700000 on March 21, 2014 (the “Purchased Patent”).

The Invention can be described in simple terms as the apparatus for folding and laminating touch sensor panels to produce touchscreens. A touchscreen is comprised of two layers of sensor panels that must be laminated together during manufacture. In conventional touchscreen manufacturing, the 2 separate sensor panels are stacked together for lamination. In the Invention, on the other hand, the 2 sensor panels are 2 halves of a single panel that is folded together during lamination. In the conventional manufacturing process (Figure 1), two separate rectangular sensor panels (items 10 and 20) are placed one on top of the other in a stacked configuration, and then are laminated together using a roller to improve the bond and reduce air bubbles (item 40). This stack laminating method carries the risk of misaligning the edges of the 2 sensor panels and of tiny air bubbles remaining between the layers, creating defects which reduce production yield.

The Invention is a folding apparatus that improves the laminating procedure by improving edge alignment, reducing air bubble defects and reducing lamination processing time. Rather than starting with 2 separate sensor panels, the Invention starts with sensor panels that are 2 halves of one whole (see Figure 2), much like an open book cover that will eventually fold along its spine. During the folding lamination process (see Figure 3 below), the sensor panels are folded together, rather like a book cover closing along its spine. The Invention uses rollers to create the fold, align the sensor panel edges, and continue laminating the layers together, with better edge alignment, fewer air bubbles, and in less time than the conventional stacked lamination method. The invention is designed to produce higher-quality touchscreen sensor panels in less time by reducing misalignment, reducing air bubble defects, and reducing lamination processing time.

While the Corporation has plans to license the use of the Invention to others, as at the date of this Offering Memorandum, the Corporation has not yet licensed the Invention to any party.

(b) License Agreement

Pursuant to an agreement dated May 12, 2014 with Sollensys (the “License Agreement”), Orca Mobile acquired an exclusive worldwide license (the “License”) for a term of six years (the “Term”) to use and sublicense all the Licensed Technology and the 18 Licensed Patents owned by Sollensys to make, market and sell products and services, including the Licensed Products, for which Orca Mobile will pay Sollensys:

- 10% of the revenues received by Orca Mobile from the Licensed Patents; and
- 80% of the net revenues received by Orca Mobile from sale of the Licensed Products sold or distributed by Orca Mobile;

(together, the “Royalty”), due on the last day of December of each year during the Term with the exception of any advance payments, which shall be payable during the Term as follows:

- $4,000 on the first day of each month beginning July 1, 2014, as a guaranteed advance payment of the Royalty (each an “Advance Royalty Payment”); and
- at Orca Mobile’s option and at any point during the Term, Orca Mobile may make payments to Sollensys in addition to the Advance Royalty Payments, and these additional payments will be set off against subsequent Advanced Royalty Payments and any future Royalty owed.

While the Corporation has plans to sublicense the use of the Licensed Technology and the Licensed Patents to others, as at the date of this Offering Memorandum, the Corporation has not yet done so. Also see Item 8 Risk Factors – Licensing Risk.

Guatemala Joint Venture

On October 8, 2014, the Corporation entered into a non-binding letter of intent (the “Guatemala LOI”) with Sollensys and Fernando Rivera Carlos Sandoval, a Guatemala lawyer, to govern the incorporation of a Guatemala joint venture company, Sollen-Mobile, S.A. (“Sollen Guatemala”), to develop, manufacture and market smartphones, tablets and software (altogether, the “Guatemala Joint Venture”). Earlier, in July 2014, the Corporation had advanced USD $100,000 (CAD $112,080) to acquire an approximate 30% interest in the Guatemala Joint Venture.

Sollen Guatemala held its opening ceremony at the Barcelo Hotel in Guatemala on October 15, 2014. More than a hundred people attended the ceremony, including Guatemala's President, Vice-President and Ministers of Economy, Science and Labour. The Vice-President and Minister of Economy announced that the Guatemalan government proposed to purchase 300,000 tablets to replace printed school textbooks in 2015. As at the date of this Offering Memorandum, no contractual orders for tablets have yet been placed.

In October 2014, pursuant to the Guatemala LOI, Sollen Guatemala began construction of its head office and factory. The factory is located in Escuintla, Guatemala, approximately 42 miles south of Guatemala City in the industrial park called "Technopark". Technopark is a strategically centralized hub for Central American markets, providing both logistical convenience and Guatemalan tax advantages. On July 8, 2015, Sollen Guatemala held the official opening ceremony for its smartphone factory, which was attended by various Guatemalan government officials. Production at the factory commenced in July 2015 with the first product, a 5-inch smartphone called the "Lucid SP-50".

Opening Ceremony at the Sollen Guatemala Factory – July 2015

On February 11, 2016, the Corporation, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Orca Mobile, closed a joint venture agreement dated February 10, 2016 (the "Guatemala Joint Venture Agreement") to acquire its 30% equity interest in Sollen Guatemala. Orca Mobile entered into the Guatemala Joint Venture Agreement with Sollensys, Sandoval, Adrian Martinez Corral, a Guatemala lawyer ("Corral"), Adrian Oh, a Guatemalan businessman with South Korean business experience ("Oh"), and GwanJe Woo ("Woo") a South Korean touchscreen developer and manufacturing executive, by which the parties agreed that:

- (a) the Guatemala Joint Venture Agreement shall govern the investment in and the management of the joint venture Corporation, Sollen Guatemala, a Corporation incorporated in Guatemala on November 14, 2014.

- (b) Sollen Guatemala will develop, manufacture, market, service and refurbish electronic devices equipped with touchscreens, including but not limited to smartphones and smart tablets;
- (c) Sollen Guatemala has the right to register in Guatemala and to use in the Guatemala Territory (comprised of Guatemala, Latin America, Central America and Southern Mexico) the tradenames "Sollen", "Sollen Mobile" and "Lucid" and the trademark shown below in Figure A;

Figure A

- (d) unless earlier terminated by all parties or as a result of one party acquiring a 100% interest, the Guatemala Joint Venture Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, however, such termination shall not relieve any Party from any obligations theretofore accrued but unsatisfied;
- (e) Orca Mobile will pay USD $100,000 [paid July 2014 and equivalent to approximately CAD $112,080] to acquire 30% of the common shares of Sollen Guatemala on closing;
- (f) Sandoval shall be Chairman of the Board of Sollen Guatemala and his local knowledge, contacts and experience have a deemed value of USD $100,000 for which Sandoval shall receive 30% of the common shares of Sollen Guatemala on closing;
- (g) Corral shall oversee and pay all costs associated with the construction of a factory in Guatemala, and that those costs shall have a deemed value of USD $100,000 for which Corral shall receive 30% of the common shares of Sollen Guatemala on closing;
- (h) Oh shall be general manager, vice president and legal representative of Sollen Guatemala and shall be responsible for sales in Guatemala, Latin America, Central America and Southern Mexico, for which Oh shall receive 3% of the common shares of Sollen Guatemala on closing;
- (i) Sandoval, along with Woo, shall be a co-CEO of Sollen Guatemala;
- (j) Woo, along with Sandoval, shall be a co-CEO of Sollen Guatemala, and Woo is central to the planning and coordination of the business, for which Woo shall receive 3% of the common shares of Sollen Guatemala on closing;
- (k) the remaining balance of 4% of the common shares of Sollen Guatemala shall be reserved for any future contributors to Sollen Guatemala and issued at the discretion of the board of directors of Sollen Guatemala; and
- (l) the board of directors of Sollen Guatemala shall be composed of 6 members and 3 alternatives, of which Orca, Sandoval and Corral shall each have the right to appoint 2 members and 1 alternate.

The following parties to the Guatemala Joint Venture Agreement are Related Persons to the Corporation: (a) Sollensys Corp., as one of its senior officers and principal holders is GwanJe Woo, who is a senior officer and a principal shareholder of the Corporation and a senior officer of Orca Mobile; and (b) GwanJe Woo, who is a senior officer and a principal shareholder of the Corporation and a senior officer of Orca Mobile.

As at the date of this Offering Memorandum, Sollen Guatemala has produced approximately 5,000 units of the Lucid SP-50 smartphone, none of which have yet been sold.

Jong Hyub Choi – Director

Since 2012, Mr. Choi has worked as a patent attorney for Yoon & Yang, one of Korea's five largest law firms. From 2009 to 2012, he was President of the Korean Invention Promotion Association. From 2005 to 2008, Mr. Choi was Director General of the Korean Intellectual Property Office, where he had begun in 2004 as a Senior Judge of its Intellectual Property Tribunal. From 1994 to 2003, Mr. Choi acted as Director of Planning and Budget Division, the Trademark Examination Division and the Invention Policy Division of the Korea Intellectual Property Office. During that period, from 1998 to 2002, Mr. Choi served the Korean Embassy to the European Union as a Patent Attache. From 1987 to 1988, he studied industrial engineering and management at the Asian Institute of Technology in Bangkok, Thailand, from which he graduated with a Master's degree in engineering. From 1981 to 1986, Mr. Choi was Deputy Director of the Korean Economic Planning Board involved in industrial planning of the Korean economy and compiling the government budget. From 1975 to 1981, he served as a Platoon Leader and later as a Captain in the 33rd infantry division of the Korean Army. In 1975, Mr. Choi graduated from the Korea Military Academy with a Bachelor's degree in science.

Soo Rae Park – Director

Mr. Park joined LG Electronics in 1986 and worked in personnel management as well as financial affairs, where he was in charge of tax and accounting matters. In September 1994, Mr. Park entered The Police Mutual Aid Association of the Korean National Police Agency (the "Agency"), and was in charge of the financial affairs of its accounting department. Later Mr. Park served the Agency for three years, handling police welfare matters. In 1998, Mr. Park oversaw the planning and development of an online shopping mall operated by the Agency. Mr. Park also served about a year at the Agency's inspection department which established an investment department. As an investment team manager, Mr. Park was in charge of financing real estate projects and alternative investments (including those in information technology). Mr. Park led about 20 projects including the SBI Savings 4th Bank, the Dacom Building on the Teheran Road of Yeoksam-dong, the Myongji University dormitories and the U-dong of Haeundae. From 2000 to 2012, Mr. Park served as a fund manager at The Police Mutual Aid Association, managing and overseeing investments, and contributing to the growth of the Association's assets from about 250 billion South Korean won to about 1.2 trillion South Korean won. From 2013 to 2015, Mr. Park served as a fund manager at KPX Holdings, in charge of IR-related work including managing venture investments and investment asset operations. In 2015, Mr. Park was appointed to his current role as CEO of Saeha P&J Ltd., a developer of black boxes and smart navigation solutions.

Yong Chul Kim – Director

In 1982 Mr. Kim graduated Chosun University in South Korea with a major in accounting. From 1983 to 1991, Mr. Kim served in the Middle East as an Assistant Site Manager for Hyundai Engineering & Construction Co., Ltd to supply construction materials and heavy equipment to all Middle East project sites. From 1993 to 1999, Mr. Kim served as General Manager of Goldenline ASIA in Thailand, and Thailand Marketing Agent for POSCO Engineering & Construction Co., Ltd, of Korea, supplying heavy equipment from Korea to major construction projects in Thailand. From 2000 to 2006 Mr. Kim served as a General Manager of Goldenline ASIA in Malaysia, involved in business-to-business software development in cooperation with Malaysian Government at the Cyber Jaya project and sold CCTV hardware from Korea and China. In 2005, Mr. Kim participated in the CCTV Project for the Government Saving Bank of Thailand. From 2007 to 2012, Mr. Kim joined with the former owner of Goldenline ASIA to establish PMDStar, a Korean property development company involved in major Vietnamese construction projects such as the "New Township" of Hochiminh City and the "5 Star Hotel & Serviced Apartments" in Binjung City, both of which ceased soon after the 2008 global financial crisis. From 2009 to 2013, Mr. Kim worked as an independent construction subcontractor on several major Korean projects such as the "Korean School" and "Caimep Port". From 2013 to date, Mr. Kim serves as Overseas Procurement Director of M.P Korea involved in the commodities trading among various Southeast Asian countries.

3.3 Penalties, Sanctions and Bankruptcy

No penalties or sanctions have been in effect during the last 10 years against any of the Corporation's directors, officers or control persons, or a company of which any of its directors, officers or control persons was a director, officer or control person at the time; EXCEPT that in May 2015 the Corporation's CEO, GwanJe (Frank) Woo, in his position as Chief Executive Officer of Sollensys, received a suspended sentence from the Gwangju District Court of South Korea for improper allocation of funds provided by the Korean Institute for Advancement of Technology ("KIAT") to Sollensys for technology development work. If, at the end of the two-year suspended sentence, Mr. Woo has not committed any further offences, the sentence will be dismissed. (Also see Item 8 Risk Factors, Licensing Risk.)

None of the Corporation's directors, officers or control persons, or a company of which any of the Corporation's directors, officers or control persons was a director, officer or control person at the time, has ever declared bankruptcy or been involved in a voluntary assignment in bankruptcy, a proposal under any bankruptcy or insolvency legislation, any proceeding, arrangement or compromise with creditors, or the appointment of a receiver, receiver manager or trustee to hold assets during the last 10 years.

3.4 Loans

No debenture or loan is due to or from the directors, management, promoters and principal holders as at a date not more than 30 days prior to the date of this Offering Memorandum.

Item 5. Securities Offered

5.1 Terms of Securities

The securities being offered by this Offering Memorandum are a maximum of up to 2,000,000 Units. Each Unit shall consist of one Common Share and one half of one warrant. Each whole warrant (each, a "Warrant") shall be exercisable to purchase one additional Common Share at an exercise price of $0.40 for a period of 5 years from the issuance date of the Warrants.

Meeting Attendance and Voting Rights

The holders of the Common Shares are entitled to receive notice of, attend and vote at all meetings of shareholders. Each Common Share entitles the holder to one vote.

Redemption and Retraction Rights

There are no redemption or retraction rights attached to the Common Shares.

Dividends

The Corporation's Board may declare dividends on the Common Shares in such amounts, at such times and in such a manner as the directors may determine in their absolute discretion, subject to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia).

5.2 Subscription Procedure

To subscribe for the Units offered hereunder, you must complete and deliver to the Corporation on or before 5:00 p.m. (Pacific Standard Time) on March 29, 2016 (being two full business days before the proposed Closing Date), or such other date as the Board may determine:

- (a) a signed and completed page 1 of the Subscription Agreement;
- (b) a signed and completed page 2 of the Subscription Agreement (being the Risk Acknowledgement); and
- (c) a wire transfer*, certified cheque, money order or bank draft for the full amount of the subscription price payable to "Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd."

* Funds delivered by wire transfer will be accounted for as the net amount deposited into the Corporation's bank account, after currency exchange and bank charges, if any. Accordingly, the number of Units purchased and the total purchase amount completed by the Subscriber on the Subscription Agreement will both be subject to adjustment by the Corporation to correspond with the funds actually deposited and the number of Units to which the Subscriber is entitled based on that deposit.

Funds delivered to the Corporation for purchase of the Units will be held in trust for a period of two days from the date that the Corporation receives the Subscription Agreement and payment from you.

Subscriptions for Units will be received, subject to rejection and allotment, in whole or in part, and subject to the Corporation's right to close the subscription books at any time without notice. The Corporation reserve the right to reject any subscription for Units in whole or in part. If a subscription for Units is not accepted, the Corporation will promptly return all subscription proceeds to the purchaser without interest.

Closings may occur periodically as determined by the Corporation's Board. It is expected that certificates representing the Units will be available for delivery within a reasonable period of time after the relevant closing date.

Distribution

This offering is being conducted in all provinces and territories of Canada pursuant to exemptions from the prospectus requirements. The Corporation is relying on the following exemptions and any others that may be available:

- (a) the exemption afforded by Section 2.9 of National Instrument 45-106 Prospectus Exemptions ("NI 45-106") for investors (other than residents of Ontario) who purchase as principals and receive this Offering Memorandum prior to signing any of the documents in the Appendices; and
- (b) the exemption afforded by Section 2.10 of NI 45-106 investors who are not individuals, who purchase as principal and invest at least $150,000 to purchase Units.

The foregoing exemptions relieve the Corporation from any obligations under the applicable securities legislation to file and obtain a receipt for a prospectus. Accordingly, prospective investors will not receive the benefits associated with a subscription for securities issued pursuant to a filed prospectus, including the review of material by securities regulatory authorities.

Item 6. Income Tax Consequences and RRSP Eligibility

6.1 Independent Professional Adviser

You should consult your own professional advisors to obtain advice on the income tax consequences that apply to you.

6.2 Income Tax Consequences

Tax consequences are not a material aspect of the securities being offered.

6.3 RRSP Eligibility

Not all securities are eligible for investment in a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP). You should consult your own professional advisors to obtain advice on the RRSP eligibility of these securities.

Item 7. Compensation Paid to Sellers and Finders

The Corporation intends to pay compensation to the Finder in connection with this Offering equal to up to 20% of the gross proceeds of the Units purchased by subscribers introduced to the Corporation by the Finder, payable in cash.

Item 8. Risk Factors

This offering and any investment in the Units involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks described below and all of the information contained in this Offering Memorandum before deciding whether to purchase any Units. If any of the following risks actually occur, the Corporation business, financial condition and results of operations could be harmed and you may lose all or part of your investment.

With respect to its joint venture interest in Sollen Guatemala, the Corporation has a limited operating history and has not yet received any contractual orders for products. There is no assurance that the Corporation's future operations will result in revenues or profits. If the Corporation cannot generate sufficient revenues to operate profitably, the Corporation may suspend or cease its operations.

The following are certain factors relating to the Corporation's business which prospective investors should carefully consider before deciding whether to purchase any securities. The following information is a summary only of certain risk factors and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and must be read in conjunction with, the detailed information appearing elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum. These risks and uncertainties are not the only ones the Corporation is facing. Additional risk and uncertainties not presently known to us, or that the Corporation currently deems immaterial, may also impair its operations. If any such risks actually occur, the business, financial condition, liquidity and results of the Corporation's operations could be materially adversely affected.

Forward Looking Information

Certain information set out in this Offering Memorandum includes or is based upon intentions, expectations, estimates, predictions, projections, assumptions and other "forward looking information". Such forward looking information includes projections or estimates made by the Corporation about its future business operations. While such forward looking statements and the assumptions underlying them are made in good faith and reflect the Corporation's current judgment regarding the direction of its business, actual results will almost certainly vary (sometimes materially) from any intentions, estimates, predictions, projections, assumptions or other type of performance suggested here.

Market Risk for Securities

The Common Shares are listed for trading on the CSE, the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and the OTCQB marketplace (part of OTC Markets Group). There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Common Shares will be sustained. The market price of the Common Shares can be subject to wide fluctuations. Factors such as commodity prices, government regulation, interest rates, share price movements of the Corporation's peers and competitors, as well as overall market movements, may have a significant impact on the market price of the Corporation's securities. Stock exchanges have from time to time experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations, particularly in the technology sector, which have often been unrelated to the operating performance of particular companies.

Technology Risk

The Corporation's Products and Services are dependent upon advanced technologies which are susceptible to rapid technological change. There can be no assurance that the Products or Services will not be seriously affected by, or become obsolete as a result of, such technological changes.

There is a risk that technologies similar to the Corporation's Products and Services could reach the market before the Corporation does, that similar products and services may be developed after the Products that include features more appealing to users, or that use advanced technology not incorporated in the Products or the Services. There is also a risk that consumers will not accept or adopt the Products or the Services. The occurrence of any of these events could decrease the amount of interest generated in the Products and the Services, and prevent the Corporation from generating revenues or reduce the revenue generating potential of the Products and the Services.

Licensing Risk

There are risks related to the License Agreement between the Corporation and Sollensys, in that Sollensys suspended its operations in January 2012 due to a shortage of funds. As a consequence, Sollensys suspended development and was unable to submit development status reports to the Korean Institute for Advancement of Technology ("KIAT"). In December 2012, KIAT filed a lawsuit against Sollensys to recover subsidies it provided to Sollensys in 2011 for development. In May 2015, KIAT settled the lawsuit against Sollensys. Although it no longer operates its manufacturing facility, Sollensys still owns its intellectual property. The Corporation's ability to generate revenues from the License Agreement is limited to exploitation of Sollensys' intellectual property by such means as sublicensing and providing the Licensed Services.

No Operating History Risk

The Corporation is a start-up company with no operating history and have acquired the License for the Licensed Technology and the Licensed Products from Sollensys, but have not yet entered any definitive agreements for the manufacture, assembly, sales or distribution of the Products. The Corporation will be subject to all of the business risks and uncertainties associated with any new business enterprise, including the risks that it will be unable to acquire and distribute its proposed Products, establish a market for the Products, achieve its growth objectives or become profitable. The Corporation anticipates that it may take several years to achieve positive cash flow from operations. There can be no assurance that there will be consumer demand for the Products or that the Corporation will become profitable.

Competitive and Pricing Risk

The markets for touchscreen-equipped products are fragmented, highly competitive and rapidly changing. With the introduction of technological advances and new entrants into these markets at a rapid pace, the Corporation expects competition to intensify in the future, which could harm its ability to develop a customer base for the Products and Services, and to begin generating revenue. The Corporation intends to offer its Products and Services to a broad client base. The Corporation expects its Products to compete with those of a number of well-established manufacturers and distributors of smartphones, tablets and other touchscreen devices.

The Corporation's potential competitors may have significantly greater financial, technical, marketing and other resources, may be able to devote greater resources to the development, promotion, sale and support of their products and services, may have more extensive customer bases and broader customer relationships and may have longer operating histories and more brand recognition. In some cases, these companies may choose to offer their technology at lower prices or rates in response to new competitors entering the market. If the Corporation is unable to compete with such companies, it may be unable to establish demand for the Products and Services which could adversely affect the establishment of its operations and its ability to begin generating revenues.

Intellectual Property Risk

As at the date of this Offering Memorandum, Sollen Guatemala has applied for registration in Guatemala of the Sollen Tradenames and the Sollen Trademark. The success of the Corporation's business depends in part on the its ability to protect the intellectual property rights associated with the Products. The Corporation has not acquired the intellectual property rights relating to any of the Products, except the Purchased Patent relating to the Invention. The Corporation proposes to use the Licensed Technology and Licensed Patents owned by Sollensys and, while Sollensys has protected its technology with various patents, trademarks and copyrights, there can be no assurance that other manufacturers will not develop similar technology or that Sollensys will vigorously police and defend unauthorized use of the Licensed Technology and the Licensed Patents, measures that can be difficult and costly. Foreign countries may not protect intellectual property rights to the same extent as Korea. To protect intellectual property rights in the future, the Corporation may take further precautions and may pursue litigation, which may result in substantial expenses, divert the attention of management, cause significant delays, materially disrupt the conduct of the Corporation's business or adversely affect its revenues, financial condition and results of operation.

Advertising and Promotional Risk

The Corporation's future growth and profitability will depend on the effectiveness and efficiency of advertising and promotional costs, including its ability to (i) create brand recognition for the Products and the Services; (ii) determine appropriate advertising strategies, messages and media; and (iii) maintain acceptable operating margins on such costs. There can be no assurance that advertising and promotional costs will result in revenues for the Corporation business in the future, or will generate awareness of the Corporation's technologies or services. In addition, no assurance can be given that the Corporation will be able to manage its advertising and promotional costs on a cost-effective basis.

Uninsured or Uninsurable Risk

The Corporation may become subject to liability for risks against which it cannot insure or against which the Corporation may elect not to insure due to the high cost of insurance premiums or other factors. The payment of any such liabilities would reduce the funds available for the Corporation's usual business activities. Payment of liabilities for which the Corporation does not carry insurance may have a material adverse effect on its financial position and operations.

Conflicts of Interest Risk

Certain of the Corporation's directors and officers are, and may continue to be, involved in other business ventures in the technology industry through their direct and indirect participation in corporations, partnerships, joint ventures, etc. that may become potential competitors of the Products and the Services. Situations may arise in connection with potential acquisitions or opportunities where the other interests of these directors and officers conflict with or diverge from the Corporation's interests. In accordance with the BCBCA, directors who have a material interest in any person who is a party to a material contract or a proposed material contract are required, subject to certain exceptions, to disclose that interest and generally abstain from voting on any resolution to approve the contract. In addition, the directors and officers have a fiduciary duty to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the Corporation's best interests. However, in conflict of interest situations, the Corporation's directors and officers may owe the same duty to another company and will need to balance their competing interests with their duties to the Corporation. Circumstances (including with respect to future corporate opportunities) may arise that may be resolved in a manner that is unfavorable to us.

Key Personnel Risk

The Corporation's success will depend on its directors and officers to develop the Corporation's business and manage its operations, and on the Corporation's ability to attract and retain key technical, sales and marketing staff or consultants once operations begin. The loss of any key person or the inability to find and retain new key persons could have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's business. Competition for qualified technical, sales and marketing staff, as well as officers and directors can be intense and no assurance can be provided that the Corporation will be able to attract or retain key personnel in the future, which may adversely impact its operations.

Speculative Nature of Investment Risk

An investment in the Corporation's Common Shares carries a high degree of risk and should be considered as a speculative investment by purchasers. The Corporation has no history of earnings, limited cash reserves, a limited operating history, has not paid dividends, and is unlikely to pay dividends in the immediate or near future. The Corporation is in the planning and development phases of its business and has not started commercialization of the Products and Services. The Corporation operations are not yet sufficiently established such that the Corporation can mitigate the risks associated with the Corporation planned activities.

Liquidity and Future Financing Risk

The Corporation is in the development stage, have not started operating and have not generated any revenue. The Corporation will likely operate at a loss until its business becomes established and it may require additional financing in order to fund future operations and expansion plans. As at the date of this Offering Memorandum and given its current working capital and the cost of its short-term objectives, the Corporation needs to obtain further funds to carry out all the short-term objectives of its business plan. However, the Corporation does not yet have a commitment from anyone to invest the funds. The Corporation's ability to secure any future financing that may be required to sustain its operations will depend in part upon prevailing capital market conditions, as well as its business success. There can be no assurance that the Corporation will be successful in its efforts to secure any additional financing or additional financing on terms satisfactory to the Corporation's management. If additional financing is raised by issuing Common Shares in the Corporation's authorized capital, control of its company may change and shareholders may suffer additional dilution. If adequate funds are not available, or are not available on acceptable terms, the Corporation may be required to scale back its business plan or cease operating.

Going-Concern Risk

The financial statements of the Corporation have been prepared on a going concern basis under which an entity is considered to be able to realize its assets and satisfy its liabilities in the ordinary course of business. The Corporation's future operations are dependent upon the identification and successful completion of equity or debt financing and the achievement of profitable operations at an indeterminate time in the future. There can be no assurances that the Corporation will be successful in completing an equity or debt financing or in achieving profitability. The financial statements do not give effect to any adjustments relating to the carrying values and classification of assets and liabilities that would be necessary should the Corporation be unable to continue as a going concern.

Global Economy Risk

The ongoing economic slowdown and downturn of global capital markets has generally made the raising of capital by equity or debt financing more difficult. The Corporation will be dependent upon the capital markets to raise additional financing in the future, while it establishes a user base for the Products and the Services. Access to financing has been negatively impacted by the ongoing global economic downturn. As such, the Corporation is subject to liquidity risks in meeting its development and future operating cost requirements in instances where cash positions are unable to be maintained or appropriate financing is unavailable. These factors may impact the Corporation's ability to raise equity or obtain loans and other credit facilities in the future and on terms favorable to it and its management. If uncertain market conditions persist, the Corporation's ability to raise capital could be jeopardized, which could have an adverse impact on the its operations and the trading price of its Common Shares on the CSE.

Dividend Risk

The Corporation has not paid dividends in the past and does not anticipate paying dividends in the near future. The Corporation expects to retain its earnings to finance further growth and, when appropriate, to retire debt.

Share Price Volatility Risk

The Common Shares are listed for trading on the CSE, the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and the OTCQB marketplace (part of OTC Markets Group). As such, external factors outside of the Corporation control such as announcements of quarterly variations in operating results, revenues and costs, and sentiments toward technology sector stocks may have a significant impact on the market price of the Common Shares. Global stock markets (including the CSE, the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and the OTCQB) have from time to time experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that have often been unrelated to the operations of particular companies. The same applies to companies in the technology sector. There can be no assurance that an active or liquid market will develop or be sustained for the Common Shares.

Foreign Political Risk

The operations of the Guatemala Joint Venture take place in a factory located in Guatemala. The Guatemala Joint Venture Agreement is governed by the laws of Guatemala. The Corporation plans to establish business partnerships in developing countries throughout the world. Accordingly, a substantial portion of the Corporation's business may be exposed to various degrees of political, economic and other risks and uncertainties. The Corporation's operations and investments may be affected by local political and economic developments, including expropriation, nationalization, invalidation of governmental orders, permits or agreements pertaining to property rights, political unrest, labor disputes, limitations on repatriation of earnings, limitations on foreign ownership, inability to obtain or delays in obtaining necessary production permits, opposition to production operations from local, environmental or other non-governmental organizations, government participation, royalties, duties, rates of exchange, high rates of inflation, price controls, exchange controls, currency fluctuations, taxation and changes in laws, regulations or policies as well as by laws and policies of Canada affecting foreign trade, investment and taxation.

Item 9. Reporting Obligations

As a reporting issuer, the Corporation is required to comply with the provisions of National Instrument 51-102 Continuous Disclosure Obligations, which includes the periodic filing of its financial statements and reporting all material information.

For its CSE listing, the Corporation is required to comply with the provisions of CSE Policy 6 Timely Disclosure, Trading Halts and Posting Requirements.

For its Frankfurt Stock Exchange listing, the Corporation has no reporting obligations.

For its OTCQB listing, the Corporation is obliged to file continuous disclosure documents, being all documents except news releases that it files under National Instrument 51-102 and under CSE policies.

Item 10. Resale Restrictions

10.1 General Statement

These securities will be subject to a number of resale restrictions, including a restriction on trading. Until the restriction on trading expires, you will not be able to trade the securities unless you comply with an exemption from the prospectus and registration requirements under securities legislation.

Unless permitted under securities legislation, you cannot trade the securities before the date that is four months and one day after the distribution date.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the accompanying Subscription Agreement, you are restricted from selling your securities before the date that is six months and one day after the date on which they are issued.

10.2 Restricted Period

See 10.1 above.

10.3 Manitoba Resale Restrictions

Not applicable, as no trades will take place in Manitoba.

Item 11. Purchasers' Rights

If you purchase these securities you will have certain rights, some of which are described below. For information about your rights you should consult a lawyer.

11.1 Two Day Cancellation Right

You can cancel your agreement to purchase these securities. To do so, you must send a notice to the Corporation by midnight on the second business day after you sign the agreement to buy the securities.

11.2 Statutory Rights of Action in the Event of a Misrepresentation

If there is a misrepresentation in this Offering Memorandum, you have a statutory right to sue:

- (a) the Corporation to cancel your agreement to buy these securities, or
- (b) for damages against the Corporation.

This statutory right to sue is available to you whether or not you relied on the misrepresentation. However, there are various defences available to the persons or companies that you have a right to sue. In particular, they have a defence if you knew of the misrepresentation when you purchased the securities.

If you intend to rely on the rights described in (a) or (b) above, you must do so within strict time limitations. You must commence your action to cancel the agreement within 180 days after the purchase of the securities. You must commence an action for damages within the earlier of 180 days after you have knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action and three years after the purchase of the securities.

11.3 Contractual Rights of Action in the Event of a Misrepresentation

If there is a misrepresentation in this Offering Memorandum, you have a contractual right to sue the Corporation:

- (a) to cancel your agreement to buy these securities, or
- (b) for damages.

This contractual right to sue is available to you whether or not you relied on the misrepresentation. However, in an action for damages, the amount you may recover will not exceed the price that you paid for your securities and will not include any part of the damages that the Corporation proves does not represent the depreciation in value of the securities resulting from the misrepresentation. The Corporation has a defense if it proves that you knew of the misrepresentation when you purchased the securities.

If you intend to rely on the rights described in (a) or (b) above, you must do so within strict time limitations. You must commence your action to cancel the agreement within 180 days after you signed the agreement to purchase the securities. You must commence your action for damages within the earlier of 180 days after learning of the misrepresentation and three years after you signed the agreement to purchase the securities.

Item 12. Financial Statements

ORCA TOUCHSCREEN TECHNOLOGIES LTD.

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

Three and Nine Months Ended September 30, 2015 and 2014

(Unaudited)

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd. (the “Company” or “Orca Touchscreen”) was incorporated on December 31, 2013 under the Business Corporation Act of British Columbia. The head office of the Company is 1500 – 701 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, V7Y 1C6.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern, meaning it will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize assets and discharge liabilities in the ordinary course of operations. Different bases of measurement may be appropriate if the Company was not expected to continue operations for the foreseeable future. At September 30, 2015, the Company has not achieved profitable operations and has accumulated losses of $1,810,571 since inception and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business, all of which cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. The Company’s continuation as a going concern is dependent on its ability to attain profitable operations to generate funds and/or its ability to raise equity capital or borrowings sufficient to meet its current and future obligations. Although the Company has been successful in the past in raising funds to continue operations, there is no assurance it will be able to do so in the future.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of Compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements, including comparatives, have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) 34 ‘Interim Financial Reporting’ (“IAS 34”) using accounting policies consistent with IFRS issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and Interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (“IFRIC”).

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements were authorized for issue by the Board of Directors on November 26, 2015.

Basis of Consolidation and Presentation

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis in Canadian dollars, which is the Company’s functional currency. Functional currency is the currency of the primary economic environment in which an entity operates.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its wholly controlled subsidiaries. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its direct wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Certain comparative information has been reclassified to conform to the financial statement presentation adopted for the current year.

Basis of Measurement

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and are based on historical costs.

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars which is also the Company’s functional currency.

Use of Estimates and Judgments

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the Company to make estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The Company’s management reviews these estimates and underlying assumptions on an ongoing basis, based on experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Revisions to estimates are adjusted for prospectively in the period in which the estimates are revised.

ORCA TOUCHSCREEN TECHNOLOGIES LTD.

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

Three and Nine Months Ended September 30, 2015 and 2014

(Unaudited)

Estimates and assumptions where there is significant risk of material adjustments to assets and liabilities in future accounting periods include the fair value measurements for financial instruments and the recoverability and measurement of deferred tax assets.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the Company to make judgments, apart from those involving estimates, in applying accounting policies. The most significant judgments in applying the Company's financial statements are the classification of financial instruments and the going concern assumption.

3. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

On May 12, 2014, the Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Orca Mobile, entered into an asset purchase agreement and a patent and technology license agreement, both with Sollensys Corporation ("Sollensys"), a company based in South Korea.

In accordance with these agreements, the Company acquired:

- i. Sollensys' apparatus for folding and laminating touch sensor panels to produce touchscreens and the related patent for $50,000 (paid);
- ii. an exclusive 6-year worldwide license to use all of Sollensys' technology and patents for consideration of a royalty payable as to
 - 10% on gross revenues received from the patents and
 - 80% of the net revenues received by from the sale of Sollensys products sold by the Company.

Royalty payments are due on the last day of December each year during the term and are payable $4,000 per month on the first day of each month beginning July 1, 2014 as a guaranteed advance payment of the royalty. During the period ended March 31, 2015, the Company incurred $12,000 (As at December 31, 2014 - $24,000) in royalty payments pursuant to the terms of the agreement and advanced another $26,708 towards future royalty payments.

Sollensys is a related party to the Company as its principal shareholder, senior officer and a director is GwanJe (Frank) Woo, CEO and President of the Company, and another of Sollensys' senior officers and directors is Seong-Mo (Kevin) Jeong, a director of the Company (note 7).

4. LETTER OF INTENT

On September 30, 2014, the Company entered into a non-binding letter of intent with Sollensys and Mr. Carlos Fernando Rivers Sandoval, governing the proposed incorporation of a Guatemala joint venture company called Sollen-Mobile SA for the purpose of developing, manufacturing and marketing computer and telecommunications hardware and software. The initial paid-in capital of Sollen-Mobile is proposed to be US$300,000, of which the Company paid US$100,000 ($112,080 CDN) for its proposed one-third share of the investment. The Company is currently working towards completing a definitive agreement for the project.

5. SHARE CAPITAL AND RESERVES

- a) Authorized share capital

Unlimited number of common shares without par value.

- b) Issued share capital

At September 30, 2015, the Company had 49,530,709 common shares issued and outstanding (December 31, 2014 – 40,440,000).

- i. On January 23, 2015, the Company issued 1,037,382 common shares at a price of $0.50 for gross proceeds of $518,691;
- ii. On May 11, 2015, the Company completed a private placement of 1,871,413 units at a price of $0.44 for gross proceeds of $823,422. Each unit is comprised of one common share and one-half warrant. The Company paid finders a commission of $83,643 which was recorded as a share issuance cost. In connection with the private placement, the Company issued 1,871,413 shares;

c) Escrow Agreement

Pursuant to a stock restriction agreement, the transfer of 8,902,000 common shares of the Company was restricted. The restricted shares are released from such restrictions at 10% on the CSE listing date (being June 13, 2014) and an additional 15% every six months thereafter with the final tranche being released on June 13, 2017. As at September 30, 2015, 5,341,200 common shares of the Company are subject to transfer restrictions.

d) Stock options

On July 15, 2014, the Company adopted a stock option plan under which it is authorized to grant options to officers, directors, employees and consultants enabling them to acquire, in the aggregate, up to 10% of the issued and outstanding common stock of the Company. The options can be granted for a maximum of five years and vest as determined by the Board of Directors. The exercise price of each option granted may not be less than the greater of the closing market prices of the common shares on (i) the trading day prior to the date of grant and (ii) the date of grant, pursuant to Canadian Securities Exchange Policy 6.

On July 15, 2014, the Company granted 600,000 stock options at an exercise price of $0.80 expiring on July 15, 2016 to its director and officers. These stock options vest at 25% every three months following the date of grant, with the first vesting on October 15, 2014. On June 30, 2015, the Company cancelled the 600,000 stock options. During the period ended September 30, 2015, the Company recorded $18,104 (2014 - $104,252) of share based payments expense on the vested stock options. The fair value of the options was determined using the Black Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions:

Risk-free interest rate	0.57~0.98%	1.10%
Annualized volatility	100%	100%
Expected dividend yield	Nil	Nil
Expected option life in years	1.00~1.29	1.54~1.75

Details of stock options activity is as follows:

	Number of options	Weighted Average Exercise Price

The weighted average remaining life of outstanding warrants is 4.85 years.

6. SHORT-TERM LOANS

During 2014, a total of $106,729 ($92,000 USD) in short-term loans was received by the Company from its directors and a person related to an officer of the Company to fund the proposed joint venture in Guatemala (note 4).

During 2014, the Company received $40,000 USD from one of its directors and $10,000 USD from a person related to an officer of the Company. The loans bear interest at 25 percent per annum, are unsecured and are for a term of 2 months. As of December 31, 2014, interest of $3,377 ($2,911 USD) was accrued.

In October 2014, the Company received $42,000 USD from a director of the Company. The loan bears interest of 8 percent per annum, is unsecured and payable on demand. As of December 31, 2014, interest of $822 ($709 USD) was accrued.

During the period ended September 30, 2015, all outstanding loans and accrued interest was repaid.

7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Related party transactions are comprised of services rendered by directors and/or officers of the Company and a company controlled by a former officer of the Company. Related party transactions are in the ordinary course of business and are measured at the exchange amount.

- a) Key management personnel are the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Directors of the Company. The remuneration of the key management personnel is as follows:

As at June 30, 2015 $3,000 (December 31, 2014 - $8,000) is due to an officer of the Company for unpaid management fees.

- b) On May 12, 2014, the Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Orca Mobile, entered into an asset purchase agreement and a patent and technology license agreement, both with Sollensys Corporation ("Sollensys"), a company based in South Korea. Sollensys is a related party to the Company as its principal shareholder, senior officer and a director is GwanJe (Frank) Woo, CEO and President of the Company, and another of Sollensys' senior officers and directors is Seong-Mo (Kevin) Jeong, a director of the Company (Note 4).
- c) During 2014, the Company paid Sollensys $50,000 for an apparatus for folding and laminating touch sensor panels to produce touchscreens and its related patent, and advanced Sollensys a total of $62,708 in royalty payments.

During 2014, a total of $92,000 USD in short-term loans were received by the Company from certain of its directors and a person related to an officer of the Company to fund the proposed joint venture in Guatemala (Notes 5 and 7). As of December 31, 2014, interest of $4,199 was accrued. During the period ended September 30, 2015, $50,000 of short-term loans and applicable interest of $3,377 ($2,911 USD) was repaid and the balance of $42,000 USD was repaid and interest forgiven. As at September 30, 2015, no short-term loans were outstanding.

8. COMMITMENTS

On January 30, 2015, the Company entered into a consulting agreement (the "IR Agreement") with Primoris Group Inc. ("Primoris"), of Toronto, Ontario, by which Primoris will act as the Company's investor relations consultant by providing proactive, customized investor and media relations services at a rate of $6,000 per month. The initial term of the agreement is for 1 year, beginning January 16, 2015, and the term renews automatically on a month-to-month basis until terminated by either party on 30 days' written notice.

On March 18, 2015, the Company entered into a service agreement ("Service Agreement") with a private equity and venture capital firm based in Singapore (the "Firm") pursuant to which the Firm will provide business development services at a rate of $85,000 per month for the first nine months starting February 2015 and $5,000 per month for each month thereafter. The initial term of the agreement is three years, unless terminated by either party on thirty days' written notice. The Company has advanced $900,000 to the Firm as pre-payment for services.

9. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial Instruments

Cash is carried at fair value using a level 1 fair value measurement. The carrying value of receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and loans payable approximate their fair value because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

Fair value estimates of financial instruments are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant information about financial markets and specific financial instruments. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matters of significant judgment, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can significantly affect estimated fair values.

Financial risk factors

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its obligations associated with its financial liabilities. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. As at September 30, 2015, the Company had a cash balance of $281,496 to settle current liabilities of $40,088.

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

Three and Nine Months Ended September 30, 2015 and 2014

(Unaudited)

There can be no assurance the Company will be able to obtain required financing in the future on acceptable terms. The Company anticipated it will need additional capital in the future to finance on-going developments of its technology, such capital to be derived from the completion of other equity financings. The Company has limited financial resources, has no source of operating income and has no assurance that additional funding will be available to it for future development of its technology, although the Company has been successful in the past in financing its activities through the previously mentioned financing activities. The ability of the Company to arrange additional financing in the future will depend, in part, on the prevailing capital market conditions and the success of its technology. In recent years, the securities markets have experienced wide fluctuations in price which have not necessarily been related to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. There can be no assurance that continual fluctuations in price will not occur. Any quoted market for the common shares may be subject to market trends generally, notwithstanding any potential success of the Company in creating revenue, cash flows or earnings.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets including cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments. The Company limits exposure to credit risk on liquid financial assets through maintaining its cash with high-credit quality financial institutions. Receivables consist mainly of GST receivable from the Government of Canada. The Company has been successful in recovering input tax credits and believes credit risk with respect to receivables to be insignificant.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices. The Company does not have a practice of trading derivatives.

a) Interest rate risk

The Company's financial assets exposed to interest rate risk consist of cash and restricted cash. The Company's current policy will be to invest excess cash in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates issued by its banking institutions. The Company periodically monitors the investments it makes and is satisfied with the credit ratings of its banks. As at June 30, 2015, the Company did not have any investments in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates.

b) Foreign currency risk

The majority of the Company's planned business is conducted in South Korea in United States dollars. As such, the Company is exposed to foreign currency risk in fluctuations among the Canadian dollar and the US dollar. Fluctuations in the exchange rate among the Canadian dollar and the US dollar may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and financial condition. Fluctuations do not have a significant impact on operating results.

c) Price risk

The markets for touchscreens are fragmented, highly competitive and rapidly changing. With the introduction of technological advances and new entrants into these markets at a rapid pace, we expect competition to intensify in the future, which could harm our ability to develop a customer base for the Products and begin generating revenue.

10. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company considers capital to be an element of shareholders' equity. The Company's primary objectives in capital management are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and to maintain sufficient funds to finance the sale and distribution of its products. The Company manages its capital structure to maximize its financial flexibility making adjustments to it in response to changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets and business opportunities. The Company does not presently utilize any quantitative measures to monitor its capital and is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

11. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On October 20, 2015, the Company announced a private placement of up to 33,333,333 units of the Company at a purchase price of $0.30 per unit to raise gross proceeds of up to $10,000,000. Each unit will be comprised of one common share and one-half warrant. Each whole warrant will be exercisable into one common share of the Company at an exercise price of $0.40 per share for a period of 5 years.

On October 31, 2015, the Company and the Firm agreed to amend the Service Agreement by changing the monthly rate to $42,500 to better reflect the value of services provided, starting November 2015 and thereafter until the end of the three year term. During the period ended September 30, 2015, the Company advanced an additional amount of $1,012,500 to the Firm.

On November 17, 2015, the Company and Primoris agreed to amend the IR Agreement to better reflect the fees invoiced by and paid to Primoris since inception of the IR Agreement, by changing the monthly rate to $6,000 subject to such discount as Primoris in its sole discretion may indicate in its invoices to the Company for services from time to time and payable on the last day of the month in which services are rendered.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To: the Shareholders of Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd., which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2014 and 2013 and the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd. as at December 31, 2014 and 2013 and its financial performance and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Emphasis of Matters

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 1 in the consolidated financial statements which indicates that the Company has incurred losses to date. This condition, along with other matters as set forth in Note 1, indicates the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements.

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd. (the “Company” or “Orca Touchscreen”) was incorporated on December 31, 2013 under the Business Corporation Act of British Columbia. The head office of the Company is 1500 – 701 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, V7Y 1C6.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern, meaning it will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize assets and discharge liabilities in the ordinary course of operations. Different bases of measurement may be appropriate if the Company was not expected to continue operations for the foreseeable future. At December 31, 2014, the Company has not achieved profitable operations and has accumulated losses of $486,396 since inception and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business, all of which cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. The Company’s continuation as a going concern is dependent on its ability to attain profitable operations to generate funds and/or its ability to raise equity capital or borrowings sufficient to meet its current and future obligations. Although the Company has been successful in the past in raising funds to continue operations, there is no assurance it will be able to do so in the future.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of Compliance

These financial statements for the period ended December 31, 2014, have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (“IFRIC”).

The consolidated financial statements were authorized for issue by the Board of Directors on April 17, 2015.

Basis of Consolidation and Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis in Canadian dollars, which is the Company’s functional currency. Functional currency is the currency of the primary economic environment in which an entity operates.

These consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its wholly controlled subsidiary Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its direct wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Basis of Measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and are based on historical costs.

The financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars which is also the Company’s functional currency.

Use of Estimates and Judgments

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the Company to make estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The Company’s management reviews these estimates and underlying assumptions on an ongoing basis, based on experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Revisions to estimates are adjusted for prospectively in the period in which the estimates are revised.

Estimates and assumptions where there is significant risk of material adjustments to assets and liabilities in future accounting periods include the fair value measurements for financial instruments and the recoverability and measurement of deferred tax assets.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the Company to make judgments, apart from those involving estimates, in applying accounting policies. The most significant judgments in applying the Company's financial statements are the classification of financial instruments and the going concern assumption.

Significant Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies used in the preparation of these financial statements set out below have been applied consistently in all material respects.

Cash

The Company's cash consists of amounts held in trust.

Basic and Diluted Loss Per Share

Basic losses per share are computed by dividing the loss for the year by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted losses per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if potentially dilutive securities were exercised or converted to common stock. No potentially dilutive securities were issued during the period. Accordingly, there is no difference in the amounts presented for basic and diluted loss per share.

Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets are derecognized when the rights to receive cash flows from the assets have expired or have been transferred and the Company has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

At initial recognition, the Company classifies its financial assets in the following three categories depending on the purpose for which the instruments were acquired: Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), available for sale ("AFS") financial assets or loans and receivable.

At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired. Financial assets are impaired when one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset have been impacted.

For financial assets carried at amortized cost, the amount of the impairment is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows, discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate.

The Company's financial assets include cash and is classified as loans and receivable.

Financial liabilities within the scope of IAS 39 are classified as financial liabilities at FVTPL or other financial liabilities, as appropriate.

The Company determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition. All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value.

The Company's financial liabilities include accounts payable. Subsequent to initial recognition, accrued financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. All are classified as other financial liabilities.

At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there is objective evidence that a financial instrument has been impaired. In the case of the available-for-sale financial instruments, a significant and prolonged decline in the value of the instrument is considered to determine whether impairment has arisen.

The Company does not have any derivative financial assets or liabilities.

Income taxes

Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current period are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date, in the countries where the Company operates and generates taxable income.

Current income tax relating to items recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity and not in profit or loss. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and recognized only to the extent that it is probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilized.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the year when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the deferred income taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets consist of touchscreen technology and patent acquired externally and are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment losses.

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Development costs are expensed as incurred unless they meet certain criteria for deferral and amortization. The Company assesses whether it has met the relevant criteria for deferral and amortization at each reporting date.

Impairment of tangible and intangible assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Company's assets are reviewed to determine whether there is any indication that those assets may be impaired. If such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment, if any. The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. Fair value is determined as the amount that would be obtained from the sale of the asset in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable and willing parties. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. If the recoverable amount of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount and the impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss for the period. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash flows, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but to an amount that does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Accounting standards issued but not yet applied:

The following new standards and interpretations are not yet effective and have not been applied in preparing these financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impacts of these new standards and does not anticipate any material changes to the financial statements upon adoption of these new and revised accounting pronouncements.

IFRS 9 – Financial Instruments (effective January 1, 2018) introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets, and will replace IAS 39. IFRS 9 uses a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortized cost or fair value, replacing the multiple classification options available in IAS 39.

The Company anticipates that the application of these standards, amendments and interpretations will not have a material impact on the results and financial position of the Company.

3. PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT

On January 6, 2014, the Company entered into an arrangement agreement which included a statutory plan of arrangement (the “Arrangement”) with Gorilla Minerals Corp. (“Gorilla”) and Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd. (“Orca Mobile”). Gorilla is a reporting issuer in the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia.

Pursuant to the Arrangement, the following principal steps were completed on March 6, 2014:

- a) the Company acquired all the issued and outstanding shares of Orca Mobile from all shareholders of Orca Mobile through a 1-for-1 share exchange;
- b) Orca Mobile acquired all issued and outstanding shares of the Company from Gorilla for consideration of $10,000 (the “Purchase Shares”);
- c) Gorilla issued 4 common shares to the Company and, in turn, the Company issued 4,000 common shares to Gorilla (collectively, the “Exchange Shares”); and
- d) the Purchase Shares and the Exchange Shares were then cancelled.

Following closing of the Arrangement, the Company became a reporting issuer in Alberta and British Columbia.

As a result of the Arrangement, the former shareholders of Orca Mobile, for accounting purposes, are considered to have acquired control of the Company. Accordingly, the Arrangement has been accounted for as a reverse takeover that was not a business combination and effectively a capital transaction of the Company. As Orca Mobile is deemed to be the accounting acquirer for accounting purposes, its assets and liabilities and operations since incorporation on December 17, 2013 are included in the consolidated financial statements at their historical carrying value. The consolidated financial statements are a continuation of Orca Mobile in accordance with IFRS 3, Business Combinations. The Company’s results of operations are included from March 6, 2014 onwards. At the time of the execution of the Arrangement, the Company had no net identifiable assets. Accordingly, no reverse acquisition transaction costs were recognized.

4. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

On May 12, 2014, the Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Orca Mobile, entered into an asset purchase agreement and a patent and technology license agreement, both with Sollensys Corporation (“Sollensys”), a company based in South Korea.

In accordance with these agreements, the Company acquired:

- I. Sollensys’ apparatus for folding and laminating touch sensor panels to produce touchscreens and the related patent for $50,000 (paid);
- II. an exclusive 6-year worldwide license to use all of Sollensys’ technology and patents for consideration of a royalty payable as to
 - 10% on gross revenues received from the patents and
 - 80% of the net revenues received by from the sale of Sollensys products sold by the Company.

Royalty payments are due on the last day of December each year during the term and are payable $4,000 per month on the first day of each month beginning July 1, 2014 as a guaranteed advance payment of the royalty.

During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company incurred $24,000 in royalty payments pursuant to the terms of the agreement and advanced another $38,708 towards future royalty payments.

Sollensys is a related party to the Company as its principal shareholder, senior officer and a director is GwanJe (Frank) Woo, CEO and President of the Company, and another of Sollensys' senior officers and directors is Seong-Mo (Kevin) Jeong, a director of the Company (Note 8).

5. LETTER OF INTENT

On September 30, 2014, the Company entered into a non-binding letter of intent with Sollensys and Mr. Carlos Fernando Rivers Sandoval, governing the proposed incorporation of a Guatemala joint venture company called Sollen-Mobile SA for the purpose of developing, manufacturing and marketing computer and telecommunications hardware and software. The initial paid-in capital of Sollen-Mobile is proposed to be US$300,000, of which the Company paid US$100,000 ($112,080 CDN) for its proposed one-third share of the investment. The Company is currently working towards a definitive agreement for the project.

6. SHARE CAPITAL AND RESERVES

a) Authorized share capital

Unlimited number of common shares without par value.

b) Issued share capital

On July 11, 2014, the Company completed a four-for-one forward stock split. The Company executed the forward split using the push-out method whereby the shareholders on record as of July 11, 2014 kept the share certificates they then held and were issued additional shares. All references herein to numbers of shares and per-share amounts have been retroactively restated unless stated otherwise.

- i. On December 17, 2013, the Company issued 9,200,000 common shares at a price of $0.001 per common share for gross proceeds of $11,500.
- ii. On February 28, 2014, the Company issued 22,800,000 common shares at a price of $0.005 per common share for gross proceeds of $114,000.
- iii. On March 3, 2014, the Company issued 40,000 common shares at a price of $0.025 per common share for gross proceeds of $1,000.
- iv. On April 11, 2014, the Company issued 2,000,000 common shares at a price of 0.025 per common share for a total value of $50,000.
- v. On April 28, 2014, 1,600,000 common shares of the Company were cancelled and returned to treasury, and $8,000 refunded to the investor.
- vi. On June 10, 2014, the Company issued 8,000,000 common shares were issued for $0.025 per share for gross proceeds of $200,000;

c) Escrow Agreement

Pursuant to a stock restriction agreement, the transfer of 8,902,000 common shares of the Company was restricted. The restricted shares are released from such restrictions at 10% on the CSE listing date (being June 13, 2014) and an additional 15% every six months thereafter with the final tranche being released on June 13, 2017. As at December 31, 2014, 6,676,500 common shares of the Company are subject to transfer restrictions.

d) Stock options

On July 15, 2014, the Company adopted a stock option plan under which it is authorized to grant options to officers, directors, employees and consultants enabling them to acquire, in the aggregate, up to 10% of the issued and outstanding common stock of the Company. The options can be granted for a maximum of five years and vest as determined by the Board of Directors. The exercise price of each option granted may not be less than the greater of the closing market prices of the common shares on (i) the trading day prior to the date of grant and (ii) the date of grant, pursuant to Canadian Securities Exchange Policy 6.

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

On July 15, 2014, the Company granted 600,000 stock options at an exercise price of $0.80 expiring on July 15, 2016 to its director and officers. These stock options vest at 25% every three months following the date of grant, with the first vesting on October 15, 2014. During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company recorded $185,479 of share based compensation on the vested stock options. The fair value of the options was determined using the Black Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions – Risk-free interest rate of 1.1% Dividend yield of $Nil; Expected volatility of 100%; Expected life of 1.54 – 1.75 years.

Details of stock options activities for the year ended December 31, 2014 is as follows:

	Number of options	Weighted Average Exercise Price
Balance outstanding, December 31, 2013	-	-
Granted	600,000	$0.80
Balance outstanding, December 31, 2014	600,000	$0.80
Balance exercisable December 31, 2014	448,505	$0.80

The weighted average remaining life is 1.79 years.

d) Warrants

The Company has no share purchase warrants outstanding.

f) Reserve

The Company's equity reserve is entirely comprised of share-based payments.

7. SHORT-TERM LOANS

During 2014, a total of $92,000 USD ($106,729 CDN) in short-term loans were received by the Company from its directors and the person related to the officer of the Company to fund the proposed joint venture in Guatemala (Note 5).

During 2014, the Company received $40,000 USD from one of its directors and $10,000 USD from a person related to an officer of the Company. The loans bear interest at 25 percent per annum, are unsecured and are for a term of 2 months. As of December 31, 2014, interest of $2,911 USD ($3,377 CDN) was accrued.

In October 2014, the Company received $42,000 USD from a director of the Company. The loan bears interest of 8 percent per annum, is unsecured and payable on demand. As of December 31, 2014, interest of $709 USD ($822 CDN) was accrued.

Subsequent to December 31, 2014, all loans and accrued interest were paid.

8. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Related party transactions are comprised of services rendered by directors and/or officers of the Company and a company controlled by a former officer of the Company. Related party transactions are in the ordinary course of business and are measured at the exchange amount.

1. Key management personnel are the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Directors of the Company. The remuneration of the key management personnel is as follows:

- Paid or accrued management and consulting fees of $36,878.

As at December 31, 2014 $8,000 (2013 - $Nil) is due to an officer of the company for unpaid management fees.

2. On May 12, 2014, the Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Orca Mobile, entered into an asset purchase agreement and a patent and technology license agreement, both with Sollensys Corporation ("Sollensys"), a company based in South Korea. Sollensys is a related party to the Company as its principal shareholder, senior officer and a director is GwanJe (Frank) Woo, CEO and President of the Company, and another of Sollensys' senior officers and directors is Seong-Mo (Kevin) Jeong, a director of the Company (Note 4).

During 2014, the Company paid Sollensys $50,000 for an apparatus for folding and laminating touch sensor panels to produce touchscreens and its related patent, and advanced Sollensys a total of $62,708 in royalty payments.

- During 2014, a total of $92,000 USD in short-term loans were received by the Company from certain of its directors and a person related to an officer of the Company to fund the proposed joint venture in Guatemala (Notes 5 and 7). As of December 31, 2014, interest of $4,199 was accrued. Subsequently, all the principal of these loans and related interest was paid.

9. INCOME TAX

The difference between tax expense for the periods and the expected income taxes based on the statutory tax rate arises as follows:

	2014	2013
Net loss for the period	(474,396)	(11,999)
Expected tax recovery at a combined federal and provincial rate of 26% (2013 - 25%)	(123,343)	(3,000)
Net adjustments for deductible and non-deductible items	48,225	-
Tax benefit not recognized	75,118	3,000
Deferred income tax recovery	-	-

No deferred tax asset has been recognized in respect of the following losses and temporary differences as it is not considered probable that sufficient future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered:

	2014	2013
Non-capital loss carry forwards	78,238	3,000
Total unrecognized deferred tax assets	78,238	3,000

Management had determined that the realization of the potential income tax benefits related to the non-capital losses is uncertain at this time, and cannot be viewed as more likely than not. Accordingly, the Company has recorded the potential deferred income tax asset.

At December 31, 2014, the Company has Canadian non-capital losses of $300,916 (2013 - $11,999) which, if not utilized to reduce income in future periods, expire through 2034.

10. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial Instruments

Cash is carried at fair value using a level 1 fair value measurement. The carrying value of receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and loans payable approximate their fair value because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

Fair value estimates of financial instruments are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant information about financial markets and specific financial instruments. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matters of significant judgment, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can significantly affect estimated fair values.

Financial risk factors

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its obligations associated with its financial liabilities. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. As at December 31, 2014, the Company had a cash balance of $26,106 to settle current liabilities of $180,782.

There can be no assurance the Company will be able to obtain required financing in the future on acceptable terms. The Company anticipated it will need additional capital in the future to finance on-going developments of its technology, such capital to be derived from the completion of other equity financings. The Company has limited financial resources, has no source of operating income and has no assurance that additional funding will be available to it for future development of its technology, although the Company has been successful in the past in financing its activities through the previously mentioned financing activities. The ability of the Company to arrange additional financing in the future will depend, in part, on the prevailing capital market conditions and the success of its technology. In recent years, the securities markets have experienced wide fluctuations in price which have not necessarily been related to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. There can be no assurance that continual fluctuations in price will not occur. Any quoted market for the common shares may be subject to market trends generally, notwithstanding any potential success of the Company in creating revenue, cash flows or earnings.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets including cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments. The Company limits exposure to credit risk on liquid financial assets through maintaining its cash with high-credit quality financial institutions. Receivables consist mainly of GST receivable from the Government of Canada. The Company has been successful in recovering input tax credits and believes credit risk with respect to receivables to be insignificant.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices. The Company does not have a practice of trading derivatives.

a) Interest rate risk

The Company's financial assets exposed to interest rate risk consist of cash and restricted cash. The Company's current policy will be to invest excess cash in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates issued by its banking institutions. The Company periodically monitors the investments it makes and is satisfied with the credit ratings of its banks. As at December 31, 2014, the Company did not have any investments in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates.

b) Foreign currency risk

The majority of the Company's planned business is conducted in South Korea in United States dollars. As such, the Company is exposed to foreign currency risk in fluctuations among the Canadian dollar and the US dollar. Fluctuations in the exchange rate among the Canadian dollar and the US dollar may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and financial condition. Fluctuations do not have a significant impact on operating results.

c) Price risk

The markets for touchscreens are fragmented, highly competitive and rapidly changing. With the introduction of technological advances and new entrants into these markets at a rapid pace, we expect competition to intensify in the future, which could harm our ability to develop a customer base for the Products and begin generating revenue.

11. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company considers capital to be an element of shareholders' equity. The Company's primary objectives in capital management are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and to maintain sufficient funds to finance the sale and distribution of its products. The Company manages its capital structure to maximize its financial flexibility making adjustments to it in response to changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets and business opportunities. The Company does not presently utilize any quantitative measures to monitor its capital and is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

12. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On January 23, 2015, the Company closed a private placement of 1,037,382 common shares at a price of $0.50 for gross proceeds of $518,691. The shares are subject to a 6-month hold period from the closing date.

On January 26, 2015 the Company announced a private placement of up to 10,000,000 units of the Company at a price $0.56 per unit for gross proceeds of up to $5,600,000. Each unit will be comprised of one common share and one-half warrant. Every whole warrant will be exercisable into one common share of the Company at an exercise price of $0.70 for 5 years.

On March 12, 2015, the Company entered into a service agreement with a private equity and venture capital firm based in Singapore (the "Firm") pursuant to which the Firm will provide business development services at a rate of CAD$85,000 per month for the first nine months and CAD$5,000 per month for each month thereafter. The initial term of the agreement is three years, unless terminated by either party on thirty days' written notice. The Company has advanced CAD$750,000 to the Firm as payment for services.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Directors of: Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd., which comprise the statements of financial position as at December 31, 2013, the statements of loss and comprehensive loss, the statement of changes in shareholders' deficiency and the statement of cash flows for the period from date of incorporation December 17, 2013 to December 31, 2013, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information for the period then ended.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd. as at December 31, 2013, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the period from date of incorporation December 17, 2013 to December 31, 2013 in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Emphasis of Matters

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 1 in the financial statements which indicates that Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd. is dependent on continued financing in order to fund its operations. This condition, along with other matters as set forth in Note 1, indicates the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2013

(Stated in Canadian Dollars)

1. Nature and Continuance of Operations

Orca Mobile Solutions Ltd. (the “Company” or “Orca Mobile”) was incorporated on December 17, 2013 under the Business Corporation Act of British Columbia. The head office of the Company is Suite 2101 – 1455 Howe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6Z 1C2.

These financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. As at December 31, 2013, the Company has not generated any revenues from operations, and an accumulated deficit of $11,999. The continued operations of the Company are dependent on its ability to generate future cash flows or obtain additional financing. Management is of the opinion that sufficient working capital will be obtained from external financing to meet the Company’s liabilities and commitments as they become due, although there is a risk that additional financing will not be available on a timely basis or on terms acceptable to the Company. These financial statements do not reflect any adjustments that may be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. These conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern.

2. Basis of Preparation

Statement of Compliance

These financial statements for the period ended December 31, 2013, have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (“IFRIC”).

Basis of Measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and are based on historical costs.

The financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars which is also the Company’s functional currency.

Significant Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the Company to make estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The Company’s management reviews these estimates and underlying assumptions on an ongoing basis, based on experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Revisions to estimates are adjusted for prospectively in the period in which the estimates are revised.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2013

(Stated in Canadian Dollars) – Page 2

Significant Judgements

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the Company to make judgments, apart from those involving estimates, in applying accounting policies. The most significant judgments in applying the Company's financial statements is the classification of financial instruments and the going concern assumption.

3. Significant Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies used in the preparation of these financial statements set out below have been applied consistently in all material respects.

Cash

The Company's cash consists of amounts held in trust.

Basic and Diluted Loss Per Share

Basic losses per share are computed by dividing the loss for the year by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted losses per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if potentially dilutive securities were exercised or converted to common stock. No potentially dilutive securities were issued during the period. Accordingly, there is no difference in the amounts presented for basic and diluted loss per share.

Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets are derecognized when the rights to receive cash flows from the assets have expired or have been transferred and the Company has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

At initial recognition, the Company classifies its financial assets in the following three categories depending on the purpose for which the instruments were acquired: Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), available for sale ("AFS") financial assets or loans and receivable.

At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired. Financial assets are impaired when one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset have been impacted.

For financial assets carried at amortized cost, the amount of the impairment is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows, discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate.

The Company's financial assets include cash and is classified as loans and receivable.

Financial liabilities within the scope of IAS 39 are classified as financial liabilities at FVTPL or other financial liabilities, as appropriate.

The Company determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition. All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value.

The Company's financial liabilities include accounts payable. Subsequent to initial recognition, accrued financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. All are classified as other financial liabilities.

At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there is objective evidence that a financial instrument has been impaired. In the case of the available-for-sale financial instruments, a significant and prolonged decline in the value of the instrument is considered to determine whether impairment has arisen.

The Company does not have any derivative financial assets or liabilities.

Income taxes

Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current period are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date, in the countries where the Company operates and generates taxable income.

Current income tax relating to items recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity and not in profit or loss. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and recognized only to the extent that it is probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilized.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the year when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the deferred income taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Accounting standards issued but not yet applied

The following new standards and interpretations are not yet effective and have not been applied in preparing these financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impacts of these new standards and does not anticipate any material changes to the financial statements upon adoption of these new and revised accounting pronouncements.

- IAS 32 – Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities (effective January 1, 2014) has been amended to clarify the conditions under which an entity may offset financial assets and financial liabilities.
- IFRS 9 – Financial Instruments (effective January 1, 2018) introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets, and will replace IAS 39. IFRS 9 uses a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortized cost or fair value, replacing the multiple classification options available in IAS 39.

c) Share subscription

As at December 31, 2013, the Company received $8,000 towards a private placement of $0.02 per share which was completed on February 28, 2014.

5. Financial Instruments

The Company is exposed to varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related risks:

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and accounts payable approximated their fair value because of the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

Credit risk

The Company's cash is largely held in large Canadian financial institutions. The Company maintains cash deposits with Schedule A financial institutions, which from time to time may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any significant credit losses and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Financial assets and liabilities with variable interest rates expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk. The Company does not hold any financial liabilities with variable interest rates. The Company does maintain bank accounts which earn interest at variable rates but it does not believe it is currently subject to any significant interest rate risk.

Liquidity risk

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on management's ability to raise required funding through future equity issuances and through short-term borrowing. The Company manages its liquidity risk by forecasting cash flows from operations and anticipating any investing and financing activities. Management and the Board of Directors are actively involved in the review, planning and approval of significant expenditures and commitments.

The Company intends to meet its current obligations in the following year with funds to be raised through private placements, shares for debt, loans and related party loans.

Fair value

Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified into one of three levels in the fair value hierarchy according to the relative reliability of the inputs used to estimate the fair values. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 – Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

6. Capital risk management

The Company defines its capital as shareholders' equity. The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to pursue the development of its technologies and to maintain a flexible capital structure for its projects for the benefit of its stakeholders. As the Company is in the development stage, its principal source of funds is from the issuance of common shares.

The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares, acquire or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash.

The Company expects its capital resources, which include a share offering, will be sufficient to carry its research and development plans and operations through its current operating period.

The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

7. Income Taxes

The difference between tax expense for the periods and the expected income taxes based on the statutory tax rate arises as follows:

	December 31, 2013
Net loss for the period	$ (11,999)
Expected tax recovery at a combined federal and provincial rate of 25.00%	(3,000)
Tax benefit not recognized	3,000
Deferred income tax recovery	$ –

Effective December 1, 2013, the British Columbia provincial tax rate and the Canadian Federal corporate tax rate remained at 11% and 15% respectively.

No deferred tax asset has been recognized in respect of the following losses and temporary differences as it is not considered probable that sufficient future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered:

	December 31, 2013
Non-capital loss carry forwards	$ 3,000
Unrecognized deferred tax assets	(3,000)
Net deferred income tax asset not recognized	$ -

Management had determined that the realization of the potential income tax benefits related to the non-capital losses is uncertain at this time, and cannot be viewed as more likely than not. Accordingly, the Company has recorded the potential deferred income tax asset.

At December 31, 2013, the Company has Canadian non-capital losses of $11,999 which, if not utilized to reduce income in future periods, expire through 2033.

8. Subsequent Event

On January 6, 2014, Orca Mobile entered into an arrangement agreement which included a statutory plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement") with Gorilla Minerals Corp. ("Pubco") and Orca Touchscreen Technologies Ltd. ("Orca Touchscreen"). Pubco was a reporting issuer in the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia. On closing of the Arrangement, the following transactions took place:

- a) Orca Mobile acquired all the 10,000 issued and outstanding Orca Touchscreen pre-split common shares from Pubco (the "Purchase Shares") for $10,000;
- b) Orca Mobile and Orca Touchscreen exchanged securities on 1:1 basis, such that 8,010,000 pre-split common shares of Orca Mobile were exchanged by their holders for 8,010,000 pre-split common shares of Orca Touchscreen;
- c) Pubco and Orca Touchscreen exchanged securities on a 1:1,000 basis, such that Pubco issued 4 Pubco common shares to Orca Touchscreen and Orca Touchscreen issued 4,000 Orca Touchscreen pre-split common shares to Pubco (collectively, the "Exchange Shares"); and
- d) the Purchase Shares and the Exchange Shares were then cancelled.

Following closing of the Arrangement, Orca Touchscreen became a reporting issuer.

On March 6, 2014, the transaction was approved and completed. 8,010,000 common shares, which included 5,710,000 common shares issued subsequent to the year end were exchanged to Orca Touchscreen shares on a 1:1 basis.
