Alibaba Innovations Corp. Announces Trading on the Canadian Securities Exchange (CSE: ABJ)

Vancouver, BC, January 29, 2015 – Alibaba Innovations Corp. (“AIC” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company expects its common shares to start trading on the Canadian Securities Exchange (“CSE”) on January 30, 2015 under the symbol "ABJ".

Pursuant to an arrangement agreement (the “Arrangement”) dated October 23, 2013 with Web Watcher Systems Ltd., approved at a special meeting of shareholders held on December 19, 2013, and by the Supreme Court of British Columbia on January 7, 2014, the Company will issue 14,403,698 common shares to the shareholders of Web Watcher. That arrangement was the subject of a Notice of Change in Corporate Structure posted on SEDAR April 3, 2014 under the Web Watcher profile.

The Company subsequently agreed to conduct a three-cornered amalgamation (the “Amalgamation”) pursuant to an amalgamation agreement with Alibaba Graphite Corp., an Ontario corporation, and 2417435 Ontario Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Pursuant to the Amalgamation, the Company: (i) completed a forward stock split of its existing share capital consisting of 14,403,698 common shares on the basis of two and one-half new common shares (2.5) for every one (1) currently issued and outstanding common share, resulting in an aggregate of 36,009,245 common shares; (ii) agreed to issue an additional of 33,810,002 common shares to the shareholders of Alibaba Graphite Corp.; and (iii) change its name from Cuprum Coating Acquisition Corp. to Alibaba Innovations Corp.

An aggregate of 2,000,000 common shares held by the directors and officers of the Company are subject to escrow conditions. The securities issued pursuant to the Arrangement and the Amalgamation have not been registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "U.S. Securities Act"), and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or applicable exemption from the registration requirements.

The amalgamated company will remain a wholly owned subsidiary and will carry on the business of the exploration of high purity graphite of the kind occurring in the recent hydrothermal “Albany style” graphite discovery north of Hearst, Ontario. In total, the Company will have 69,819,247 common shares issued and outstanding.
