

New Hemp Energy Drink to be offered to consumers in cannabis accessory stores, vapes stores, and kiosks in Canada and the US

OTTAWA, June 18, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) – Tetra Natural Health, a subsidiary of Tetra Bio-Pharma (TSX VENTURE: TBP) (OTCQB: TBPMF), today announced that it has signed an exclusive agreement with Spyder Cannabis Inc. (TSX VENTURE: SPDR) (“Spyder”) to distribute the three flavours of its Hemp Energy Drink in cannabis accessory stores and vapes stores in Canada and the US. The drink is expected to be available to consumers in Spyder’s retail stores located in Scarborough, Woodbridge, Burlington, and shortly at the Niagara Falls and Pickering locations, which are expected to be opened early this summer. A launch event will be held during the Canada Day long weekend at the Niagara Falls location situated at 6474 Lundys Lane.

“We are very excited to be adding the Hemp Energy Drink to our portfolio of premium brands that will be available to our growing clientele,” stated Daniel Pelchovitz, CEO and President of Spyder. “This new offering will please our customers who are always seeking unique and distinctive quality products in this emerging industry.”

“This exclusive agreement allows us to take another step in implementing our distribution strategy and achieving our goal of making our Hemp Energy Drink accessible to all consumers “ said Richard Giguère, CEO of Tetra Natural Health “Consumers appreciate the qualities of the Hemp Energy Drink (HED) including the fact that it contains more natural ingredients than other energy drinks, and is the first energy drink made with hemp available in the country” adds Derek Theriault, National Sales Director of Tetra Natural Health..
