

New Age Farm Lab Testing of Tenant-Grower Harvest from Oroville Agri-campus Underway

September 27, 2017 - Vancouver, BC

New Age Farm Inc. (CSE:NFF) (OTC:NWGFF) (FSE:ONF) (www.newagefarminc.com) (“New Age Farm” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that its tenant-grower has transported their crop from the Company’s greenhouse, in Oroville, Washington, to New Age Farm’s drying facility, and has completed the first processing phase for lab testing. New Age Farm’s tenant-grower completed the harvest in three phases and product from the first phase of the harvest has been sent to a certified testing lab in Spokane, Washington for analysis. The tenant-grower reported that the following strains were sent for analysis: Agent Orange, Big Daddy Kush, Blue Thai, Jack Skellington, Purple Trainwreck, Sinmint Cookies, Strawberry Cheese, and Tahoe OG. The strains will be tested for potency and microbial and pesticide content this week. Upon completion of all three rounds of testing, the tenant-growers will begin packaging for distribution.

Carman Parente, President and CEO of New Age Farm, commented, “We have reached a new milestone in our operational strategy as this crop moves on to the testing phase. It is a pivotal point for our tenant-grower and for New Age Farm, marking the move toward revenue generation for both parties. Upon receipt of the lab results, our tenant-grower can move on to the packaging and distribution of approved product.”

About New Age Farm

New Age Farm is an agricultural services company offering unique turnkey growing infrastructure and services for licensed growers and processors of luxury marijuana crops at three agri-campuses in Washington State. New Age Farm’s facilities will offer in excess of 250,000 square feet of canopy growing space to tenant-growers once fully built out.

In November 2012, the Washington State Liquor and Cannabis Board (“WSLCB”) passed Initiative 502 (“I-502”) pursuant to a vote by the people of the State of Washington. I-502 authorized the WSLCB to regulate and tax recreational marijuana products for persons over twenty-one years of age and thereby created a new industry for the growing, processing and selling of Washington State-regulated recreational marijuana products In compliance with state regulatory requirements,

New Age Farm’s facilities feature 24 hour security that enhances the safety and security of the community, our tenant-growers and their operations. All New Age Farm’s tenant-growers hold either Tier 2 or Tier 3 licenses allowing them to produce and / or process marijuana for sale at wholesale to marijuana processor licensees and to other marijuana producer licensees. A Tier 3 license allows for between ten thousand square feet and thirty thousand square feet of dedicated plant canopy while Tier 2 licensees can have up to ten thousand square feet of dedicated plant canopy. Revenue is generated on a base lease rate and the level of service that the tenant-grower requires for its production and / or its processing needs.

- ✓ By the end of 2016, Washington had over $1.1 billion in combined recreational and medical marijuana sales for the year, and in October, November and December, it surpassed Colorado in total monthly marijuana sales (cf Marijuana Business Daily).
- ✓ In 2016, Washington adult use sales increased by 95 percent from just one year earlier.

- ✓ Legal marijuana sales totals in Washington are nipping at the heels of alcohol sales.

New Age Farm is committed helping its tenant-growers achieve greater yield, higher quality and higher value flower from their crop and to building a reputation for providing what I-502 licensees need to achieve superior results. Year-round growing of crops maximizes the revenue potential for New Age Farm and its tenant growers.
