Key Performance Drivers

- The ability to deliver superior product quality.
- We continue to invest to ensure that our product is of high quality both in product safety and delivering superior innovative products. For every product run, we undertake testing of product quality.
- Competition - The principal elements of competition in this industry include:
 - Distribution
 - Price
 - Product quality and taste
- Innovation
- Trade and consumer promotions, and
- Labelling and packaging

Risk Factors

We need to effectively manage our resources in order to execute the business plan. Failure to execute would negatively impact our ability to achieve profitability. To achieve profitability and manage operations effectively, we must continue to improve our operational, financial, and other management processes and systems. In addition, in order to grow and execute on our business plan and opportunities, we need to have adequate resources available, including capital and personnel. We also need to maintain controls and focus as we look to add new products and distribution channels. To achieve success, we must:

- Increase sales volume to penetrate markets;
- Achieve and maintain efficiencies in operations;
- Manage fixed costs by subcontracting until in-house costs are competitive; and

- Avoid significant increases in costs such as production, marketing and distribution, without adequate funding.

Significant Events

On April 28, 2020 Kelley Fitzpatrick became an advisor with LeanLife to assist in obtaining licensing for its flax oil product in Canada as a natural health product and as a fortified food. Kelley is an expert in “all things” related to flaxseed having led initiatives in research, marketing and promotional activities for over 20 years. Kelley has worked in the areas of human and animal health, industrial fibre and oil, and plant breeding and agronomy, first as the Project Manager for Flax Canada 2015 and then as a Technical Advisor for the Flax Council of Canada. During this period, she led the development of a successful dossier to the United States Food and Drug Administration for GRAS (Generally Recognized as Safe) notice for whole and milled flaxseed. Kelley is a regular contributor of articles on health and uses of flax oil product. See our website for these articles written by Kelley:

On June 3rd, 2020: the Company announced the appointment of Natural Health Product expert, Gavin Mah, as new Chief Operating Officer (“COO”) as of June 1st, 2020. Gavin had been working as an external consultant for the company since January 1st.

Gavin’s new operational role will focus on regulatory and logistics as well as business development and sales. Mr. Mah has extensive experience working with Regulatory Advisory and Government Relations Committees with Health Canada.

Mr. Mah has decades of experience selling Omega-3 products, including fish and flaxseed products. For seven years, Mr. Mah served as Director of Canadian Regulatory Affairs at Nature's Way, a leading health company which sells its many nutritional and dietary supplements, including its Omega-3 products, through a variety of channels. He was involved in the acquisition of Ascenta Health, the leading Omega-3 fish oil manufacturer, by Nature's Way and its parent company Schwabe Pharma (Germany).

Mr. Mah has also worked with and sold Omega-3 products for both Omega Nutrition and Barleans Oils, two of the largest flax oil companies in the Pacific Northwest.

On August 18, 2020 the company announced it had secured the exclusive US and Canadian distribution rights to IRON ENERGY, a popular line of energy drinks endorsed by boxing legend Mike Tyson.

FoodCare Sp. Z.o.o. (“FoodCare”), the manufacturer and supplier, is one of the leaders in Poland's energy drink market and has grown their brand into a leading brand in the Middle East. FoodCare believes the proprietary formulations in its IRON ENERGY line will satisfy the taste profiles and energy needs of North American consumers. The annual value of the combined US and Canadian energy drink markets is estimated at over US$14 billion. Red Bull is the market leader, followed by Monster and Bang. More information on IRON ENERGY and other FoodCare products is available at: http://www.foodcare.pl/en_en/about-us.html

Under the terms of the agreement, FoodCare will supply all products for sale in the US and Canada from its production facilities in Poland. FoodCare will also assist to support LeanLife's marketing efforts in North America.

FoodCare Group was founded in 1984 by Wieslaw Wlodarski. The company has grown organically to become one of the leaders in the market for health-conscious consumer goods. FoodCare employs approximately 900 persons, and its products are sold in more than 50 countries.

The Company has distribution rights from FoodCare for a term of 5 years. The Company has determined requirements in Canada and the US for the importation and distribution according to prescribed regulations. The Company has received initial product inventory for distribution in the US. A similar version with a Canadian label will be available as required. It is estimated that sales in the US will begin within 4 to 6 months, with a larger effort in 6 to 12 months. Sales in Canada are planned in 12 to 24 months.

"With Mike Tyson back in the ring, our Company as an exclusive marketing representative is ready to establish IRON ENERGY drink as one of the best-selling in North America!", said LeanLife CEO Stan Lis.

On January 19th, 2021 the Company entered into a sales agreement in the United States with Eclipse LLC ("Eclipse"), a private U.S. company specializing in the in the beverage space. The key principal of Eclipse, Cathal O'Flaherty, has a stellar track record of building and growing beverage brands, including over 16 years at Constellation Brands, where he helped develop sales and business development programs enabling Constellation to enjoy unparalleled growth in the beer industry; accounting for over half the U.S. total sales of imported beer. O'Flaherty worked with iconic brands like Corona Extra and Modelo Especial. During this time the import beer division grew from from $1 billion to $5 billion in revenue. Prior to Constellation, O'Flaherty spent 15 years with Anheuser Busch's wholesale operations division, working in a wide variety of sales, marketing and operations roles. More recently, O'Flaherty partnered closely with Invest Northern Ireland (NI), the Vermont Cider Company and Vitani Spirits.

On February 4th, 2021: the Company entered into agreement with Rob Hatch and Big Venture Sales Ltd. to launch online sales on the Company's own website and through Amazon. Further, to facilitate online and brick and mortar sales, Big Venture will also be responsible for handling distribution and warehousing.

Mr. Hatch launched Wisdom Brand Stevia in Tempe Arizona into 2,800 Walmart stores in the USA in 2004. From its beginning in 1982, SweetLeaf Stevia Sweetener made consumer well-being its number one priority. It was the first stevia sweetener to receive Generally Recognized as Safe (GRAS) status.

Since that time, Mr. Hatch and Big Venture have built out additional brands, such as LifeFlow Health Care, with sales both online and through traditional channels.

Further, prior to selling through major retailers, suppliers are now required to operate ERP software with EDI ('Electronic Data Interchange') connections, allowing purchase orders and invoices to seamlessly be exchanged. The Company has just purchased Microsoft Dynamics GP, and will be commissioning this software and for it to go live this quarter in order to meet the requirements of major US national retailers. Microsoft Dynamics GP is a mid-market business ERP software package that has localizations for additional countries in South America, UK and Ireland, the Middle East, Singapore, Australia and New Zealand.

On May 17, 2021 the Company entered into an agency agreement with ex-heavyweight boxer, Bill Corrigan. LeanLife is excited about its' new Mike Tyson Energy Drinks, welcoming Bill Corrigan as a member of the LeanLife and Iron Energy team to focus on Iron Energy Drink product awareness.

From championship boxing to an entrepreneur being crowned "King of Connections" by some of the largest brands and corporate developers, Bill Corrigan has over 20 years of experience in product development. He is nationally known as a marketing guru for fitness, health, food, beverage, alcohol, and sporting goods products. Bill has worked with many of today's top brands and product lines, whether direct-to-consumer sales programs or in-store point of purchase, infomercials, product placement, and celebrity endorsed products and programs.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The Company’s primary exposure to credit risk is on its cash held in bank accounts. The majority of cash is deposited in bank accounts held with major banks in Canada. As most of the Company’s cash is held by one bank there is a concentration of credit risk. However, this risk is managed by using a major bank that is a high credit quality financial institution as determined by rating agencies.

Liquidity Risk

The Company believes that at the present time it will not face significant liquidity risk as it will be able to secure sufficient funding from a private placement.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Acquisition and Expansion

The key to the Company's ongoing success will be its ability to create and enhance value through the skill, creativity and energy of its management team and the opportunities which the market presents. LeanLife will continue to seek out acquisition and expansion opportunities that offer acceptable risk-adjusted rates of return.

Regulatory Risk

The Company and its proposed business are subject to various government legislation and regulations. Any change in such legislation or regulations adverse to the Company or its investments could affect the operating and financial performance of the Company. In addition, laws and policies relating to the protection of the environment have become increasingly important in recent years. Environmental laws and regulations can change rapidly, and the Company may become subject to more stringent environmental laws and regulations in the future. Compliance with more stringent environmental laws and regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition or results of operations.
