

Global Cannabis Nominated for Malta Medical Cannabiz Awards

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, November 1, 2019 – Global Cannabis Applications Corp. ("GCAC" or the "Company") (CSE: APP, FSE: 2FA, OTCQB: FUAPF), a leading developer of innovative data and AI technologies for the medical cannabis industry, is pleased to announce that it has been nominated and shortlisted as a finalist for the Malta Medical Cannabiz Awards in the following categories:

- A.I. of the Year 2019
- Blockchain of the Year 2019

Representing GCAC at the annual award events is Hanan Gelbendorf, chief marketing officer of GCAC, and Anastasija Plotnikova, chief operating office of GCAC Europe.

The prestigious Malta Medical Cannabiz Awards are part of the Medical Cannabiz World conference taking place on November 4 & 5, 2019 at the InterContinental, Malta. The award ceremonies take place on November 3 at 19:30 at the InterContinental Hotel.

“It is an honour to be considered a finalist for the prestigious Malta Medical Cannabiz Awards for our work and technology development related to A.I. and blockchain,” said Brad Moore, CEO of GCAC. “We have spent considerable effort developing a medical cannabis data solution that includes, AI, blockchain and other core technologies to facilitate the seed-to-consumer journey. I am proud of what we have accomplished and how far we have come to becoming a fully integrated cannabis company. We have developed advanced technology and established joint ventures with European partners in our pursuit to the best outcomes possible for medical cannabis patients.”

Medical Cannabiz World summit will see a confluence of blockchain service providers meeting brands from the global medical cannabis industry as they create solutions to some of the barriers currently problematic for medical cannabis logistics across the globe. The inaugural edition of Medical Cannabiz World will open doors to the high-growth medicinal cannabis sector, recently unlocked by the Maltese government’s commitment to legislation supporting this global industry.

Exhibitors will include brands from across the fast-growing medcann industry, such as production, logistics, payment processing, KYC, legal, regulatory and more. All of these areas can benefit from a blockchain approach to everything from ‘seed to sale’. The Medical Cannabiz World summit is being held during Malta Week as thousands of blockchain entrepreneurs are also on the island for the Malta AI & Blockchain Summit,
