BioMark Announces Appointment of Scientific and Medical Advisors

Vancouver, British Columbia – (October 2nd, 2017)– BioMark Diagnostics Inc. (“BioMark”) (CSE: BUX) (FSE: 20B) (OTCMKTS: BMKDF) is pleased to announce that it has appointed four distinguished experts to its scientific and medical advisory team. Announcements related to each adviser will be made through appropriate news release.

Over the past few months our new advisors have provided BioMark with excellent counsel on how to fine tune our clinical trial protocol(s) and opened new opportunities for global collaboration. As advisors, they will participate in scientific planning, research design, presenting to key medical opinion leaders and evaluate our commercial strategy to successfully introduce our technology to the market. An incentive plan was approved by Board of Directors that consisted of aggregated 420,000 shares valued at 10 cents for services offered in 2017 fiscal year plus aggregated 350,000 options exercisable at 15 cents under BioMark’s option plan and will vest over 3 years plus a negotiable travel allowance.

Rashid Ahmed, President and CEO, comments: “We are extremely excited to welcome our new scientific and medical advisors to our company. Their demonstrated ability to lead, offer clinical design wisdom and connect emerging technologies would be a tremendous boost to BioMark. This is what BioMark needs as we transition into a successful commercial entity.”

About BioMark Diagnostics Inc.

BioMark is developing proprietary, non-invasive, and accurate cancer diagnostic solutions which can help detect, monitor and assess treatment for cancer early and cost effectively.
